

Good Morning, Faculty and Staff,

Below are a few announcements regarding important upcoming events and deadlines in Academic Affairs.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

UPDATE FROM THE MSU FARM

Fuji apples are now available at the farm for $10.00 a peck or $18.00 for a half bushel. For more information, contact Caroline Roush at 304-208-7033.

INCLUSIVE TEACHING PRACTICES VIRTUAL PD SESSION

As our institution works to become an increasingly inclusive environment, the Faculty Center for Teaching & Learning is sponsoring an online workshop to help faculty learn more about inclusive teaching practices that they can integrate into their courses. All faculty are encouraged to participate. The workshop will be led by Drs. Bernadette Barton and Laurie Couch and will be offered on two dates, Tuesday, Nov. 9 at 3 pm or Wednesday, Nov. 10 at 3 pm. Register HERE.

MSU ARTIST SERIES CHAMBER CONCERT

The MSU Artist Series, to be held on Wednesday, November 10, 7:30 pm in Duncan Recital Hall in Baird Music Hall, features music faculty members and students. We are thrilled to bring back live concert experiences on our campus this semester, and this collaborative concert will be a great example of some of the wonderful music that our campus community enjoys.

VETERAN'S DAY EVENTS

As we celebrate Veteran's Day on November 11, please consider participating in the following events:

- Veteran's Day program in ADUC ballrooms A & B, 4 pm (see attached)
- Drive in movie, AAC parking lot (see attached)
- Community event: Wreath Ceremony at Freedom Park downtown, 11 am

SPEAKING EVENT: RURAL EDUCATORS

The Appalachian Future Educators Program and the Appalachian Rural Education Hub will be sponsoring a talk by Fleming County High School Principal Stephanie Emmons on November 16, from 4 -5 p.m. in ADUC 325. Mrs. Emmons, who is an alumna of MSU, will be speaking on the "Joys, Rewards, and Challenges of Being a Rural Educator." This event is open to the entire the MSU community. For more information, contact Dr. Chris Beckham (c.beckham@moreheadstate.edu)

PRESENTATION BY DR. ROGER CLEVELAND: BUILD YOUR BRAND, BEFORE YOUR BREAK THROUGH

You are invited to a presentation by MSU graduate Dr. Roger Cleveland, professor and director of Diversity and Faculty Development in the Division of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion at Eastern Kentucky University. Dr. Cleveland's presentation, "Build Your Brand, Before Your Break Through," will be held on November 17, 2021 at 7 pm in ADUC 325. Dr. Cleveland is a transformational leader and groundbreaking researcher in the fields of diversity, equity, multicultural education and academic innovation.

33RD ANNUAL STORYBOOK CHRISTMAS PROJECT

The Advisory Council for Adult Education (ACAE) is seeking your help with the 33rd Annual Storybook Christmas Project. Since 1989, ACAE has sponsored Storybook Christmas in order to provide new books to disadvantaged children in Rowan County. Collection boxes for new books can be found on campus in the Education Services Building, MSU Public Radio, and 214 Combs Building. Other collection sites in the community include CoffeeTree Books, Cracker Barrel, Dollar Tree, Giovanni's Pizza, Rowan County Public Library and several banks and churches. Books will be collected through November 29.

Tax deductible donations may be made to: MSU Foundation, Inc – Storybook Christmas. Monetary donations must be received by November 19, 2021.

Mail to:

MSU Adult Learning Center
Education Services Building – Room 103
