

Convicted.

In the Rowan Circuit Court on Saturday the jury in the case of the Commonwealth against App. Perry returned a verdict of guilty and fixed his punishment at three years confinement in the penitentiary. He was convicted for the murder of Paris Carroll in 1899. His bond was fixed at $10,000, pending trial. The case has been a noted one.

A. T. Wood, of Mt. Sterling, and Chas. Day, of Morehead, assisted Commonwealth Attorney, William Young. The defendant was represented by Allie Young and H. B. Kinsolving.
