

Used a Dirk.

Alexander Bradley and Anderson Short, a saloon keeper of Morehead, Ky., engaged in a quarrel a few days since in which Bradley was fatally stabbed. It is said Bradley claimed that Short had made some remark to Bradley's sweetheart. Short denied that he had said anything to the woman, who was present at the time and told Short that he had made the remark. It is said that Short thereupon struck the woman, and Bradley interfered, when Short stabbed him in the abdomen with a dirk. There is no hope for Bradley. Short is at large.
