Rowan County Poultrymen Urged To Produce Eggs

Government Asks Farmers To Produce More Food

Rowan County poultrymen are asked by the government to produce approximately 300,000 dozen eggs this year, four per cent more than in 1943, as their part in the Food for Victory program, the National Poultry Defense Committee announced today.

This county goal can best be reached if housewives take full advantage of the present egg surplus and plan more menus calling for greater use of eggs, thus encouraging farmers to maintain high production, declared the Committee Secretary Leon Todd.

In urging poultrymen to meet the 1944 quota, Todd pointed out that the present egg surpluses may be followed by a serious shortage if farmers liquidate some of their laying flocks because of difficulty in disposing of eggs at profitable prices now.

An aid to producers in the concerted effort of distributors to keep the supply of eggs available to consumers channels as a nutritious wartime food, Todd said, adding that aggressive merchandising has thus proved an important factor in increasing egg consumption. "For instance," he asserted, "records of A. & P. Food Stores, one of the largest purveyors of Kentucky eggs, show this company bought 942,281 dozen eggs in the state last year, more than doubling their 1942 purchases of 497,712 more than during the previous year."

Vaughan Gives Talk at Scholarship Day Program

Honor Students Commended For Scholaric Records

President William H. Vaughan was the speaker for the annual Scholarship Day program, honoring those students who have attained an average of 2. during the past school year.

"Two years ago people said that the schools had not prepared us for peace or war. During the past two years America has changed from a peaceful nation into a mighty fighting nation, if America wins this war will be the cause the school system is a good one."

"The nation as a whole is gradually changing its attitude toward those of us who seek the pursuit of scholarship in preference to some other pursuits of the college campus. The seeking of scholarship is a definite place in the lives of people and in the life of an individual. I am constrained to believe that a liberal education is one in which the individual finds the truth that liberates him from some great bondage. It is going to take a great deal more thinking and a vast amount of school teaching to prepare for the ideals of today. Only as we as scholars succeed will the world succeed. If we fail, then God help the world. To you people who have chosen the quiet pursuit of scholarship, the wiser way, we say that if you fail us, the failure will be far greater than if our soldiers lose a battle on foreign soil. If you lose the light of scholarship burning, it will bring forth the idea needed by those who rule America and the world."

The following students were those who had received a standing of 2. or better during the past two quarters:

Billy Young Shot Down In Germany

The War Department officially announced this week that Lt. Bill Young of Morehead and Frankfort has been forced down in his plane over Germany or occupied Europe.

Notice of the force-down of Lt. Young's plane came less than six weeks after the War Department had issued a citation of unusual bravery on the part of Lt. Young, who brought his plane in after it was shot up and the crew killed or injured. His relatives did not know that he was in condition to resume flying, but official War Department notices at that time stated that he had requested a new plane as soon as possible. Lt. Young piloted a flying fortress.

The son of Bill Young, who, before his death, was one of Rowan County's leading citizens and an aviator, was killed in action and Nellie Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Miller, Lt. Young had been almost continuous service with the 484th Central Postal Directory and has one son.

The notice from the War Department did not indicate whether the official War Department members of the crew had bailed out.

Ky. State Fair To Be Held This Year Aug. 28-Sept. 4

Churchill Downs In Louisville Chosen Site For 1944 Event

At a meeting of the Kentucky State Fair Board in Frankfort, it was decided that the 1944 State Fair will be held August 28 to September 4 at Churchill Downs in Louisville. The home of the Kentucky Derby was selected as the site for the 1944 State Fair because of the lease to the Girder Corporation of Louisville of the Fair Grounds buildings for war work.

This year's Fair will be the first held since 1941. Churchill Downs is ideally suited for use by the Fair and there will be more than ample accommodations and space for every Fair activity. Elliott Robertson, Commissioner of Agriculture and President of the State Fair Board, said that undoubtedly the Fair this year would draw record crowds. It is planned to make the 1944 State Fair a "Fair of Freedom" and the agricultural exhibits will emphasize the important part the farmers of Kentucky played in the successful conclusion of the war to a victorious conclusion.

Among the other interesting exhibits will be captured enemy war materiel.

Featured, of course, will be the Grand Championship Horse Show in which the finest five-gaited saddle horses in the country will be shown. Premiums have been generously provided for all departments. The State Fair office at the Fair grounds in Louisville is also turning on a variety of midway attractions and other features for the big show. The catalog and program lists are in preparation and will be sent out as soon as possible to all prospective exhibitors throughout the State. Meanwhile, anyone interested in a specific department of the Fair may communicate now with J. C. Wehrley, assistant Fair manager and superintendent regarding air mail orders.

Forest Ranger Karl M. Stoller To Leave Morehead

Is Being Transferred To South Carolina

Karl M. Stoller, Forest Ranger on the Red River District of the Cumberland National Forest since 1935, is being transferred in the next week or 10 days to South Carolina. Mr. Stoller has lived in Morehead for the last few years. In his new location he will be Forest Ranger on the Enoree District of the Sumpter National Forest, at Newberry, S. C. Stoller was a graduate of Union College and Yale School of Forestry and had one year's military service in World War I.

He entered the Forest Service in Arkansas in 1930, where he assisted in land purchases on the Cumberland National Forest. After a short detail to the Monongahela Forest in West Virginia, Stoller came to Winchester where he aided in the early land purchases on the Cumberland Forest.

His first assignment as Ranger was at Mt. Sterling, Ky., and later he was assigned to Winchester. He was promoted to Ranger John R. Hicks of London, who formerly worked under Stoller at Morehead. Seldon Campbell of London will fill Kip's position.

Stoller is well known to and liked by hundreds of folks from Rowan to Lee and Estill Counties. His deliberate, homespun personality and his ability to cooperate with local residents has endeared him in their hearts. Under his leadership the forest fires in his district have been reduced from a high of 101 in 1940, to 36 in 1943. By expanding the size of ties and increasing the "watering" of timber cut on his district to 1,750,000 board feet in the last year.

Soldiers Believe They Will Have Jobs Upon Return

Report Released By Dr. J. D. Falls

A post-war job shift by 27 per cent of the men in the Army, based on a representative cross-section visiting USO clubhouses in the United States, is indicated in the post-war planning section of the National Research Council and USO, according to a report received recently by Dr. J. D. Falls, local chairman, from Chester I. Barnard, chief of the research section.

Half of the men, however, said they would return to their former type of work, the report said, and 75 per cent expected to go to college.

In answer to the question "Are you worried or not worried about finding a good job after war?" 72 per cent of all the soldiers said that they were "not worried at all" or "not so worried," and only about 24 per cent expected that they were "somewhat worried" or "very worried."

About half of the men indicated that they have been thinking about their own business after the war.

Dr. Falls reported that when the sample of enlisted men in USO clubs were asked, "What do you think USO clubs could do now to help with the job problems you might have after the war?" 75 per cent of those replying made suggestions. These suggestions ranged from requests for classes to prepare men for new jobs to requests for vocational aid. The subjects suggested for the classes or discussion groups most mentioned were: business and agriculture.

The complete survey, assembled under the title "Soldier Opinion About USO Clubs," was gathered through the questionnaires and interviews administered in 30 Army camps by the Research Branch of the Morale Services Division of the War Department, and is geographically inclusive of USO clubs by the NORC. It is in this latter phase of the survey that the soldier opinion of post-war prospects was obtained.

State's 4-Hers To Can More In '44 To Speed Victory

Rural Girls Enlisting In Victory Brigade

Rural girls throughout this state are enlisting in what promises to be the largest Victory brigade of its kind on record. It comprises 4-H club members of practically every state in the Union, whose wartime motto is "Can More In '44 to Speed Victory."

An indication of the volume of foodstuffs these girls will put up this year is reflected in the 1943 4-H canning records, which show nationally 60,000 4-H girls canned 25 million jars of foods. Many of the girls will receive training essential to the successful preservation of vegetables, meats and fruits in the National 4-H Canning Achievement Activity.

W. G. Survant, Field Agent Discusses Soil Conservation
The Supervisors of the Rowan County Soil Conservation District, Leland Hall, John C. Eldridge, Jesse Perkins, and W. H. Johnson held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday, May 23. All Supervisors were present except Mr. Johnson.

Mr. William C. Survant, Field Agent in Agronomy, talked with the supervisors about functions of the Rowan County Soil Conservation District. Mr. Survant pointed out to the supervisors that Soil Conservation did not mean just tagging, but it included a great many farm practices including long rotations, more land used for hay and pasture, liberal applications of lime and phosphate and protection of all practices from over-grazing.

Mr. Survant suggested to the supervisors that they might render more service to the farmers in their district if they talked with some of the farmers in each community and used one farm as a demonstration of all the practices that might be used to prevent soil from washing.

Also attending the meeting was Hiram Eldridge, Con. Hibbard, Lawrence Tidrow, County Agent, Dan Brane and Mr. McKinzie.

N. E. Kennard Resigns As Mayor Of Morehead

S. M. Caudill Named To Fill His Place

Mayor N. E. Kennard handed in his resignation to the surprise of all at the last meeting of the Morehead council. Sam M. Caudill, a member of the council, was appointed to serve as mayor until the next meeting of the council which is scheduled for June 13. Having served only two and one-half years, Mr. Kennard had a year and a half more to serve on his four year term. He had not indicated his intention to resign prior to the meeting of the council, but the council felt his health was such that the mayor's position would be too much to continue at the present time.

During Mr. Kennard's term as mayor, the council, the city affairs, operated by him and a co-operative council, were maintained on a sound financial basis and a high level of performance. The cash reserve of the city has been steadily increased during this time, and the city has been a member of the council during "you go" policy.

Mr. S. M. Caudill, the new acting mayor, has served numerous terms on the council. He has been a member of the council during Mr. Kennard's tenure, and has taken an active interest in city government and community affairs.

The Foreign Economic Administration revealed that the U. S. has sent 28,000 planes to our Allies and kept 12,000 for our own forces in three years lend-lease. Of the lend-lease planes, 7,800 went to Russia, 4,000 to Allies in the Pacific and Far East, and 16,000 to all other combat and training centers abroad. Three-fourths of the planes sent to Allied nations have been of combat or transport planes. The remainder were transport planes. You Will Be Interested In This Report To The Customers of Kentucky Utilities Company

WE HAVE recently issued our regular annual report to stockholders. This report necessarily carries a lot of figures dealing with what we own and what we owe. But back of these cold figures is the story of 1,000 men and women employees who are rendering a vital war-time service. Handicapped with a shortage of materials and equipment, and often short-handed, they are working hard to maintain the high standard of service which is a tradition with our Company.

EMPLOYEES IN ARMED SERVICES

Our Company now has 174 employees in the armed services. Many of them are highly skilled and impossible to replace. The fine cooperation of the remaining employees, and their willingness to undertake additional responsibility and work, has enabled us to continue providing first class service to you in spite of the loss of this skilled manpower.

NO WAR PROFITS

Taxes paid by our Company in 1943 totaled $2,369,968.12. This is nearly equal to the entire revenue we received from the sale of electricity to your homes. For every dollar of revenue from residential customers we pay 80 cents for the support of federal, state and local governments. If the socialists take over the power industry for the government, this tax would have to be paid by you and others. We are glad that we can bear our fair share of the cost of the war. However, we do most strongly object to the immunity from taxes granted to government power projects which go scot-free of federal taxes, thus placing additional burdens on all other taxpayers — including you and us.

A LOCAL COMPANY WITH MORE THAN 1,000 EMPLOYEES

Our Company employs a total of more than 1,000 operating and construction workers. They received $2,184,434.24 in salaries and wages from us during the year. More than 6,000 of the company's stockholders are residents of Kentucky.

ALL WAR NEEDS FOR SERVICE MET

In a year marked by the greatest industrial output in all history, there has been no shortage of electric power. Our Company has fulfilled every electrical requirement. No industry has had to wait for electric power, because long range planning by this Company has enabled us to meet all war and civilian needs despite many handicaps.

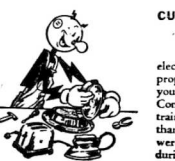

THE ELECTRICAL DOLLAR BUYS TWICE AS MUCH

Although living costs for the average family have steadily increased since 1941, the cost of electricity has gone steadily downward. In 1943, our rate reductions effected a saving of $50,000 a year in the cost of service to you and other customers. Today the average home gets twice as much electricity as it got nine years ago for the same amount of money.

CUSTOMER SERVICE AND INFORMATION

To help you customers use electricity economically, and properly care for and maintain your electrical equipment, our Company employs a staff of trained Service Advisers. More than 2,880 pieces of equipment were repaired in your homes during 1943. Farm customers also have been aided in increasing food production during the man-power shortage.

WHAT OF THE FUTURE?

Our Company is keenly aware of its future responsibility to supply better service at lower costs. Our past record indicates this, for as the use of electricity increased the cost has been reduced. You can expect this trend to continue as you take advantage of the many new electrical services to be offered by the industry when the war ends.

We are planning to help in developing new and existing industries in the 432 communities now served. Our Farm Service Program has been stepped up to aid in developing rural areas. We aim to help the farmers improve production at less cost. Also, we are planning to provide employment for returning service men and women.

Thirty-one years ago when Kentucky Utilities Company was formed, its organizers little realized the tremendous part electricity would play in the life of industry and business, and especially in the home. As we look into the future, electricity takes on still greater importance in our daily life. After Victory Day the modern way of living will be the Electric Way. And we promise you to do our best to provide better service at a cost that will enable you to enjoy life to the fullest — the Electric Way.

THESE CRITICAL DAYS call for more PULPWOOD

TODAY our armed services are shipping enormous quantities of supplies to our fighting men overseas. They are unloading it on farflung beachheads and advance supply bases. Much of this equipment is made wholly or in part from pulpwood. Nearly all of it is wrapped or packed in paper and paperboard containers. Without enough pulpwood our Army and Navy will be severely handicapped at a time when victory may depend on their all-out effort abroad and ours at home.

Peeled Pulpwood is Needed
War and Home Front needs require that every mill operate full time. This cannot be done without more pulpwood. If you have idle woodlands or can cut pulpwood, now is the time when you can serve your country best and earn the most money for your work. If you delay, it may be too late.

ANOTHER MEMORIAL DAY

The flowers we gather on Memorial Day are but symbols of our appreciation for all who have fought in the cause of freedom. The day is set aside in their memory. In America they loved they have an enduring monument. The nation lives on even though they are gone.

It is a day for thought . . . a time to renew our allegiance to the flag for which our fighting men are ready to give their lives. If we observe the occasion in proper spirit, we will rededicate ourselves more earnestly to the war effort. War means sacrifice. Victory is nearer . . . but not yet won.
