THIS AMERICAN SOLDIER Gave HIS HAND

... Will You LEND Dollars To Your Country To Assure Victory And Peace?

THE sketch above was made in an Army Hospital within a day's journey of this town. The subject is a young man who fought several months in the swamps and jungles of Guadalcanal. Then a Jap grenade blew off his right hand and he came back home.
Now he faces the heart-breaking task of learning to dress and shave and feed himself and earn a living, with the aid of a wooden hand. This lad is one of scores of thousands recently mutilated or killed in defending the United States and safeguarding the American way of life for all the rest of us.
How can you, as a civilian, help win this war in which everyone has a huge stake? How can you show your appreciation to the men in the armed services?
By oversubscribing to the Fifth War Loan, which starts June 12 and ends July 8. This Loan is to provide funds to carry on the war to quick victory. The goal is $16,000,000,000, of which $6,000,000,000 will come from the sale of bonds to individuals. That includes everybody.

Of course, most people have been buying bonds since Pearl Harbor. It hasn't hurt. It hasn't meant sacrifice. It has meant only that the bond buyers have saved surplus earnings at a profit . . . $4 return for each $5 invested.
This Fifth War Loan demands extra effort . . . greater economy . . . downright stinginess with yourself . . . so you can put more dollars into bonds.
Remember the boys who gave their lives at Bougainville, on the Tarawa beaches, in the Cassino streets, in the skies over Germany. Remember those butchered at Bataan and murdered in Jap prison camps.
And remember the lads who have come back to our hospitals - crippled, blind and insane - from those grim battle places. They really sacrifice!! In their name, for your country, for your children's future--buy more War Bonds!

Veterans Advisory Committee Meets In Elliott County

Clifford Stafford Served As Chairman

The initial meeting of the Elliott County Veterans Advisory Committee was held at Sandy Hook, Kentucky, May 31, 1944.

Mr. Clifford F. Stafford, Veterans' Employment Representative of the United States Employment Service, served as temporary chairman. He gave a short explanation of the purpose of the Committee. Through the cooperative efforts of all organizations, employers and those persons actively interested in the welfare of veterans, the Veterans Advisory Committee will be a powerful instrument for the rehabilitation of the returning Service men and women. The Veterans Advisory Committee will help the ex-service man to find employment, give him correct information concerning the various organizations that can serve him, and advise him of the rights and benefits to which he is entitled.

The following members were elected officers of the Veterans Advisory Committee: Dr. W. C. Green, chairman; Mr. Harvey Barker, chief clerk AAA, vice-chairman; Mr. V. H. Redwine, home service chairman, American Red Cross, secretary.

Present at the meeting were: Oliver De Hart, member Selective Service; E. D. Rice, Post Commander American Legion; Dr. W. C. Green; Harvey Barker, Chief Clerk AAA; J. H. Williams, County Court Clerk; Mrs. Carrie Howard, secretary American Red Cross; Mr. Clifford F. Stafford, Veterans' Employment Representative; U. S. Employment Service; and Mary M. Bullington, U. S. Employment Service.

(Continued from page 1) any previous undertaking." He continued, "General Eisenhower has often reminded us that as many lives as possible will be saved and you may be sure that is how it will be done. Every previous amphibious operation has been analyzed, and we will capitalize upon our experience. Remember the unusually heavy casualties at Dieppe! The experience gained in that raid saved many lives at Cassin, in Italy, and the Pacific landings. We have learned valuable lessons which will pay dividends in this largest undertaking."

Assembly recital of the 23rd Psalm and benediction concluded the services.

Auto Tax Stamps--

(Continued from page 1) It is the desire of the Bureau of Internal Revenue that the use tax stamp shall be placed on the windshield in a location that will not be in conflict with State requirements. Mr. Nunn stresses the fact that the use tax law has not been repealed and cautions motor vehicle owners that failure to purchase and display the new use tax stamps on vehicles using the public highways after July 1, 1944, will subject the violators to severe penalties imposed by law.

OLD FASHIONED AMERICANISM IS FAVORED

By WASHINGTON.

MADISON is the capital city of "competitiveness with business?" Wisconsin, has about 70,000 population, and is the birthplace of the "progressive" movement. It is the heart of a state that has done more experimenting in government than any other commonwealth in the Union.

Recently the people of Madison became agitated about whether or not the city should own and operate the local gas and electric company. They decided to hold an election to settle the question. The ensuing campaign was considerably warmer than the weather. Hours of radio oratory and columns of newspaper publicity were devoted to the subject. When the votes were counted the score was 12,940 to 6,955 against municipal ownership.

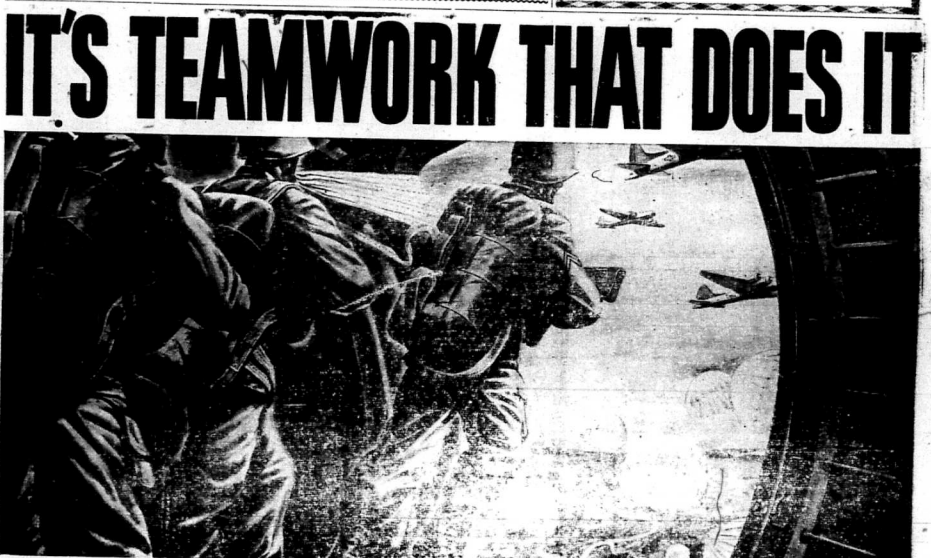

To many Americans interested in public affairs, this result looks like a political and economic straw in the wind.

What The Farmers Think
CROSSLEY, Incorporated, is a well-known organization which gathers information for manufacturers, radio stations, magazines, newspapers, etc. For example, the manufacturer of such-and-such hand lotion who is spending $2,000,000 a year on radio advertising, may hire Crossley to find out how many million people in the U.S.A. listen to the entertainment program that goes with the advertising. And Crossley gets the facts with amazing accuracy.

Last winter Crossley was engaged by the Association of National Advertisers (representing the biggest firms in the country) and thirty-six leading farm publications to learn what American farmers think of business? Two questions were submitted to a cross section of farmers on every economic level from poor to wealthy, in all parts of the country.

For Private Enterprise
THE first question: "Which do you think would do a better job of running business—private management or the Government?"

The second: "The Government now owns many large manufacturing plants. When the war ends should it sell them to manufacturers or operate them in

IT'S TEAMWORK THAT DOES IT

The 5th War Loan starts next week!

WHEREVER your invasion forces are fighting—at sea, in the air, on the ground—they're working together for victory. They know that they must depend on each other, for only by coordinated teamwork will they win through to final victory in the earliest possible time.

The Fifth War Loan starts next week. It's going to take teamwork—a lot of it—to put this drive over the top. For we've got a job to do. As the tempo of invasion rises every one of us must mobilize for support of our fighting men.

In every city, town and hamlet men and women like yourself have banded together as War Bond Volunteer Workers, giving their time to taking your subscriptions for Bonds. Support them. Give them the kind of teamwork our boys are giving to each other on the fighting fronts!

When your Volunteer Worker calls, double your War Bond subscription. It's their job to help raise $16 billions of money for victory during this Fifth drive, $6 billions from individuals like yourself.

Make up your mind to welcome your Victory Volunteer with a friendly smile and an open checkbook—remembering that it's teamwork that does it!

Here's What Uncle Sam Offers You In The Fifth War Loan

The "basket" of securities to be sold under the direction of the State War Finance Committees during the Fifth War Loan consists of eight individual issues.

These issues are designed to fit the investment needs of every person with money to invest.

The offering includes:

- * Series E, F and G Savings Bonds
- * Series C Savings Notes
- * 2 1/2% Bonds of 1965-70
- * 2% Bonds of 1952-54
- * 1 1/4% Notes, Series B of 1947
- * 1/4% Certificates of Indebtedness

War Bonds Build Morale

The fighting man is reassured when he knows we are solidly behind him, and that we are buying more War Bonds to give him everything he needs. He wants to get on with the war so he can get back home.

War Bonds also build morale for all who buy them. The man who is getting ahead is happier and a better citizen. Hard work and some sacrifice are easier when they are a service to the nation and when they make your own future more secure.

And these same War Bonds which are so good to buy today are also good to hold until the war is over . . . and G. I. Joe comes home.

Jessy's articles adorn the pages of favorite recipe books and are passed on to friends.

Of good old Kentucky stock, blue-eyed Gissy grew up in Cynthiana amid scores of cousins . . . and came to us by way of the University of Kentucky wearing a Bachelor Science degree in Home Economics and Agriculture.

Fall of neighborly chattiness, she moves with hoyden grace among her array of culinary equipment . . . has always been the prima donna of her own kitchen, and says that no amount of theory can take the place of a practical knowledge of short cuts in cooking-recipe. Women readers having a first fling at cooking, due to scarcity of domestic help, find Gissy an oracle of wisdom.

Gissy's husband, Lt. Colonel Edd Gregg, now in active service overseas, was a peace-time architect. He designed their charming hilltop home where Gissy and the dog, Pat, an Irish terrier, wait for letters and Edd's ultimate return. For never-failing interest in the problems of her readers, whose letters fill the mail pouches and keep The Courier-Journal's switchboard humming with calls, Gissy's friends think she deserves a citation.
