BILL JONES IS DEAD

The following article is from our correspondent in New York. We have been receiving these stories for some time and they are usually good we always try to run one. The note at the beginning is self explanatory. In reading the Labor Bulletin I came across this article Bill Jones is dead. When I read it I felt as though someone had turned a searchlight on this whole matter of the war and I couldn't get the article out of my mind - so I have obtained permission from J. B. Ross, the editor of the Labor Bulletin, to reprint the article in my own service.

Each of us rename Bill Jones, but whether to use his name is Smith or Buckley, O'Donnell or Goldberg, Vogel, Sikowski, Jorgensen, Benedetto or Andriasis, he still is the boy down the street or next door the boy who believes as we believe, who fights for our way of life, who dies for America!

Bill Jones is dead. Bill Jones had just graduated from agricultural college. He was ambitious to put into action all he had learned about conservation of soil, better breeding of cattle, rotating crops because 24 Sim Owens his dad's farm was in pretty bad shape. When war came Bill enrolled in the army. Bill went to the Philippines and a little town where he was billeted was over-run by a horde of Japs. Bill fought as long as he could and then, under orders, surrendered. They tied his hands behind him and a Jap soldier started to rape a white woman. He had torn her blouse off when Bill kicked him in the belly, and three Japs waiting their turn rammed their bayonets into Bill's guts.

This happened about the time you were telling the folks at your house that it was all darned nonsense to ration sugar because cake and candy were certainly no diet for soldiers.

Bill Jones is dead. He was a soda jerker in a small town, and when the bands blared and the sage struts he signed up for the Navy. They put him on a torpedo boat. He learned to wear his hat on the corner of his head, and to roll

Funds Still Coming On March of Dimes

Delayed contributions recently turned in to Glenn W. Lane, Rowan County treasurer for the March of Dimes, amounted to $13.01 from the Haldeman school and $1.87 from a coin collector at the Clearfield Supply Co. Added to the $175.04 previously in Louisville, these items bring Rowan County's contributions to the 1943 infantile paralysis drive to $189.92.

Not Much Court Is Promise for This Term

"The highest term of court since World War One" that is Circuit Court Clerk, Joe McKinney's statement in giving the court news this week. There are a few misdemeanors and a light civil docket. Always before Rowan County Court has had from one to several murder trials to dispose of, but not so this year. In checking over the cases, Mr. McKinney said, he had one case of drunken driving and one.

Well, that's about all. Court convenes Monday, March 8 according to the new order, set by the last legislature when the terms of Rowan Circuit were changed the second Monday in March, the third Monday in May and November. Formerly Court convened, on the first Monday in March and October and the third of June. This is supposed to be a three weeks term, but will undoubtedly be cut short because of lack of material.

Eagles Win Two, Bul Lose In Finals

Murray moved its step toward another battle with Western in the first game of the second round of the 18th annual Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference tournament at a Richmond, by thumping Centre 69-42. Western had yet to get past Berea (54-45 conqueror of Georgetown in the first round in another second round.

Another Kentucky teachers college, Morehead, also moved into the semi finals with a 28-20 victory over Wesleyan and then rested for a battle with the winner of Friday's Union-Eastern game.

Although obviously off its best form a classy Morehead College team managed to keep its wits collected long enough to down Wesleyan in a unique game.

The contest was unusual in that the Panthers didn't tally a field goal until slightly less than one minute remained to be played in the first half. Herman Brush rebounded a shot for that.

Morehead, however, definitely was not in the groove and Coach Ellis Johnson's boys also had difficulty in finding the range throughout the first half, which ended 15-5 with Morehead on top.

Big Max Brand, Eagle center, dropped in four field goals to saw his mates in scoring, which saw personal feelings flare up in the closing minutes after much bodily contact had occurred under the basket through the greater portion of the wild and woolly fray.

Morehead just didn't have enough to come thru Sat. night after having subdued Eastern by 66-64 in an overtime in the afternoon.

But at that it took the entire Western squad to beat Morehead and Earl Duncan tonight. Earl scored 29 points, 12 field goals and five free throws. In the first half Earl scored 14 of Morehead's 16 points as Western slipped into an 18-16 lead at intermission.

Poultry Leaders Elected 1943 Chairman

George Ellington from Upper Licking River was elected chairman of the Rowan County Poultry Program for 1943. Mr. Ellington keeps 200 layers and is one of the most consistent and energetic in the county. Land Hall from Pine Grove was elected secretary. Mr. Hall is brooding 400 baby chicks which he plans to sell on the early broiler market and then brood another bunch of chicks from which he will select the layers for next fall. In answer to the question as to whether a poultry man could make money with the present high feed prices, both Mr. Ellington and Mr. Hall stated that there has never been a time when a good poultryman did not make money. Mr. Hall identified himself with Red made a report on his poultry Cross volunteer workers crew for 1942. His 126 hens averaged 196 eggs for 12 months and his feed cost was $1.12 per hen and a total of $235.57. Mr. Hall's income came from eggs and chickens. Each contributor to the Red Cross War Fund will receive the customary Red Cross service SECOND RID CROSS STORY

Live At Home Programs Encouraged

50 neighborhood leaders are discussing the importance of a Live-At-Home Program with their neighbors this week. They are encouraging the planting fruit and berry crops, a good big garden which is well planned and recommending where possible that every family raise enough chickens for the family use. These neighborhood leaders are all volunteer workers who are helping to win the war by helping their neighbors to produce more food. They have the best information obtainable on how to control and prevent both crop and livestock diseases but to improve yields by using better varieties and methods of cultivation, and many other questions which will come up during the crop season. Last week they helped in the registration for Book No. 2 by telling their neighbors when and where to register and what papers they would need to take with them. Their leaders are modern minute men who are ready and willing to help wherever they are needed. Some of the recent volunteers include Columbus Terrell at Pelrely, Robert Riddle at Slab Camp, Mr. and Mrs. Willin in the Tolliver Addition, John Jones and Delmar Padgett at Bluestone.

Special Services At M E Church This Week

Special Services are being held each night this week in the Methodist Church in observance of the Week of Dedication. On Thursday evening at 7:30 Dr. J. O. Everhart will be the speaker. The program Friday evening will consist of a series of pictures in colors on the life of Christ. These pictures will be presented by Rev. G. C. Frey of Owensville. Appropriate songs will be sung with the pictures.

This special week will come to a close on Sunday with the following services: At the morning service an opportunity will be given for those attending to give of their substance to help in some emergencies that the church faces because of the conditions in the world. This money thus raised throughout the Church will be used both in the Service abroad in relieving suffering and ministering to those in the Service of their country. The Vesper Service, at 5:15 P. M. will consist of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. All are invited to attend these services.

Allie Jane Is Now Open For Business

The Allie Jane Beauty Shoppe is again in operation after being closed for a month during Mrs. Haven's absence in California. Mrs. Haven has engaged an operator, Miss Gossett, William of Lexington, to assist her.

Miss Wilburn is an experienced operator with four years experience. She and Mrs. Haven are ready at all times to serve you.

War Fund Of $12500000 To Be Asked

American Red Cross volunteers by the millions on March 1 will launch a house-to-house canvass of the cities, hamlets and rural communities of the nation in behalf of the $125,000,000 Red Cross 1943 War Fund. Early indications show that almost 3,000,000 men and women will participate actively in the Red Cross War Fund campaign to help finance the vastly expanded wartime Red Cross program at home and abroad. In 10,000 Red Cross chapters and branches throughout the United States, volunteers have spent weeks preparing for the elected secretary. Mr. Hall is brooding 400 baby chicks which he plans to sell on the early broiler market and then brood another bunch of chicks from which he will select the layers for next fall. In answer to the question as to whether a poultry man could make money with the present high feed prices, both Mr. Ellington and Mr. Hall stated that there has never been a time when a good poultryman did not make money. Red Cross War Fund Drive To Be On Radio

During this month of the War Fund drive, radio listeners will be kept aware of the work and the needs of the Red Cross. For even a single week, a full list of Red Cross radio programs would be too long to print in a few sample names, however, just six minutes to register a personality and commercial sponsors are baking the Red Cross. From Friday through Sunday, at least 34 national network programs are known to be planning some mention of the Red Cross. Among these are Life Shoes; Can Be Beautiful; Maxwell House; Fred Warning; Camel Caravan; Truth and Conscience; Jack Benny; Kate Smith; Ringo; Happiness; Colonel Terry; District Attorney; Amos' Andy; and Bob Burns.

Production Dept. Are Sewing Today

Today, Thursday, March 4, is the day the women of the Red Cross are sewing at the home of Mrs. Grace Ford. The 1942 quota is being completed, marked and packed, ready for shipment to the coast from which place it will be sent, where most needed.

Last year the production department of the Red Cross made and shipped over a TON of clothing for war refugees.

Second Division Graduates At Naval School

Naval Training School's sixth division of graduates completed its course here this week and were awarded ratings and diplomas by the Commanding Officer Tuesday evening at the Staff Mess. Assisted in advanced training to duty aboard a number of ships of the fleet and to some shore stations the newly rated petty officers' third class, will be transferred to their new duties soon after their graduation. Leaves of appreciable length were granted a large majority of the graduating unit.

The man making the highest grade was Richard Weeks of Alhambra, Calif., whose average was 96.27. There were 147 in the class and all completed the course. This is the best showing made by any class, with 123 making "A" rating.

The new Division Two will be billeted in Thompason Hall upon their arrival soon after this week's graduation.

Nearly 3,000 Fail To Register For Book 2

Did you register for War Book No. 2 last week? There were 10,750 who did but that leaves nearly three thousand who didn't get these new books. If you did not register, you did not register, you will be placed on the collection of forty eight points worth of canned goods or beans or any of kitchen grease by the Office of War Information and the emphasis is on kitchen grease. Kitchen grease produces glycerine is the basis of the ammunition used in large guns. Every pound of grease collected will help knock out the Axis. Therefore, we are told that this is our last chance.

For three days the lines were formed in the public school building waiting to register. According to those doing the work it took some time between now and the 10th of March to get War Book No. 2.

World Day of Prayer, March 12

On March 12th, in the Christian Church, members of the Methodist and Christian Churches will observe the World Day of Prayer. Leaders of both churches will direct the period. Those interested in world peace and the dawn of better things, and who desire prayer help, are extended an invitation to participate in the meeting.

Planning Board Meets In Red Cross Drive

The Red Cross War Fund planning committee for Rowan County held its second meeting last Thursday night, with all but one member present and Professor Gabriel C. Banks presiding. Details of the plan were discussed, with special attention to the choosing of neighborhood solicitation leaders.

For the nation, the whole month of March has been set aside to raise Red Cross funds. In Rowan, door-to-door asking will be delayed until about the middle of the month but anyone who will make his contribution early is invited to make a check or money order to "Rowan County Chapter, American Red Cross," and hand of mail it to Mr. Banks, chairman of the War Fund drive, or to Mr. H. C. Haggan, chairman of the chapter.

The national goal of 125 million dollars - 80 million for war work and 45 million for home service - is far more than last year's, and many of the men who gave last year are in uniform now and perhaps needing help themselves. "Give double" is the motto of the 1943 drive. "Give double" will have to be Rowan's motto in this county's campaign for $800,000.

Newspapers Are Asked To Help In Drive

In the fall of 1942 the newspapers of Kentucky did a very fine work in promoting the collection of scrap metal. Their participation was so effective that Kentucky ranked eighth in the Nation. We are asking everyone therefore I am writing you this letter in regard to the collection of tin cans and household or kitchen grease and request that you continue through 1943. Kitchen grease produces glycerine is the basis of the ammunition used in large guns. Every pound of grease collected will help knock out the Axis. Therefore, we are told that this is our last chance.

Oh, thus be it ever when free men shall stand

Between their lov'd home and the war's desolation

Blessed with victory and peace may the heav'n rescued land Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved as a nation.

Then conquer we must, when our cause is just and our cause is just

And this be our motto: "In God is our Trust."

And the Star-Spangled Banner - it triumph shall wave

Over the land of the free and the home of the brave

The Valley of the Shadow

Every hour of every day all over the world, on land, sea and in the air, the finest and best of our youth are passing through the valley of the shadow of death. When they are sent into it, danger, it is not asked of them from what class or from what national or racial stock they come, or by what religious creed they live. The phrase "Selective Service" does not mean selection by these discriminative canons. Instead, it means that they are chosen for the service, that they are chosen for their mental ability to endure hardship, strain, stress and privation, to obey and carry out orders, to follow and to lead in such a way that they have the resiliency and high courage of youth.

So our boys go into the valley of the shadow. Some will come out - not unchanged, for who that faces death bravely fears death? Many will never return. Differing though they may in class, color or creed, they will lie alike in distant graves, in land honored forever by the fact that there they died by that others might be freed.

Three such boys died in the line of duty a short time ago - a Protestant named Vogel, a Catholic named Sipowak and a Jew named Goldberg. There is no room for editorial aloofness in this statement. But more significant to me than any editorial was a phase in the government story.

Three American boys in the Navy, a Protestant, a Catholic and a Jew, united by their common faith in American democracy and in freedom, met death together. They met death, as brave men meet the thing they fear. United by their common faith in American democracy and in freedom, they walked into the valley of the shadow never to return. Our hearts go out to those they left behind, those that are separated. But to them is one consolation they share in common. Though these lads followed different roads of faith to each was won the promise of the Psalmist David: "Yes, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil for thy staff they comfort me. And each family who mourns rests secure in the faith that beyond the valley of the shadow lies an eternal page.

limited personnel that the office is staffed with in this area it is important that the taxpayers file their returns as early as possible and take advantage of this service. If too many of the taxpayers wait until the last minute rush it is likely that they will not be able to obtain service from the local collectors' office. The commission of internal revenue advises that taxpayers must file their returns before March 15, 1943, and that if they fail to do so they will be subject to penalty for failure to file on time. Deputy collector Roger Howe will be at Morrhead from the 1st of March through the 6th, as well as on March 15.

Explainers To Help In Food Stores In Kentucky

"Not a single OPA restriction is going to last one minute longer than is necessary," Prentiss M. Brown, OPA administrator, said last week in announcing that motorists who wish to have their tires recapped with reclaimed rubber no longer have to apply to their War Price and Rationing Boards for permission.

With a limited group of play shoes bring releases from rationing along with certain other types not generally used for street-wear, the OPA has appealed to consumers to limit the purchases of these shoes to one pair per person.

Housewives again will buy sugar in the familiar 5-pound sacks and boxes when sugar stamp No. 12 becomes valid on March 16. However, the five pounds must last from that date until the end of May - a period of 11 weeks.

You may not give away ration stamp or rationed food, but you may give away up to 50 quarts of home-canned foods, jams and jellies are not rationed.

The OPA has allowed a seven-day overlap period for the first and second period food stamps, most but before a third sent a burst of fear into his back that he'd be on the stick until he rammed the fourth plane and went down in the flaming embrace of death.

At this time of year when appetites are apt to become jaded, plan for variety in meals, is the advice of food specialists at the Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics. Through the use of different main dishes new ways of preparing vegetables or a satisfying dessert such as the one given below, a meal might be made tempting.

- For a Sunday or other special dinner, this menu will have both eye and taste appeal: smothered chicken, sliced sweet potatoes and corned apples baked together with butter, whole wheat rolls with mint, whole wheat crackers pudding.
- 1 c. milk
- 1 c. pineapple or other fruit juice
- 4 tsp. flour.
- 2 egg yolks
- 2 egg whites
- 1/2 c. sugar
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/2 tsp. vanilla
- 1 c. pineapple or other fruit
- 12 Graham Crackers

Mix the flour, one third cup of sugar and pineapple juice. Add to the scalded milk and cook over hot water, stirring constantly until it thickens. Add the crushed pineapple mixture about 2 minutes longer and add Make a meringue of the egg whites and the remaining 3 table spoons of sugar. Spread over the top of the custard and bake in a slow oven (300 degrees) until the meringue is a golden brown. (Six to eight servings.)

War Fund Drive

This year for the first time, in order to avoid tapping vital to the Red Cross War Fund will receive a paper label tag bearing the Red Cross insignia. The campaign will continue throughout March, and early reports from communities in all parts of the country indicate that this year, more than ever, the American public is preparing to welcome Red Cross volunteers with double enthusiasm. Money collected by the volunteers will serve to further the American Red Cross work not only on the home front, but on the distant fields of battle where American fighting men are defending freedom.

when he walked. Then his boat got into a scrap down in the South Seas. Bill stood by his gun and laughed when he fired it, but a shell hit its deck beside Bill. When he tried to pull himself to his feet, he saw that his right arm was in the scupper's five feet away. He reached for his gun with his left hand and then things went black. The list of the ship rolled a dead sailor into the scupper where his dismembered arm lay. Its extended thumb touched the tip of his nose so that in death as in life, Bill was thumping his nose at the Jap ship that got him.

This was the same day you were raising hell because they were rationing gasoline, and for fear you couldn't drive up to the lake to go fishing every week end this summer, you hid four cans of gasoline in your garage.

Bill Jones is dead. Bill's dad had a lot of money and when Bill wanted his own plane, dad bought it for him. Bill was a wild devil, driving a car out of reason, and flying a plane the same way. But he was the first man in his town to respond to the Air Corps' call for flyers.

Gill got into a dog fight over the English Channel. There were six German planes. But with a "Tallyho!", Bill dove into the bunch of them. He got two before a third sent a burst of fear into his back that he'd be on the stick until he rammed the fourth plane and went down in the flaming embrace of death.

This happened about the time you were bellyaching and feeling abused because of the outrageous rationing given you by the tire rationing board which would not allow you recaps for your pleasure car.

Bill Jones is dead. Bill was a Marine who had inclinations for the ministry, but when the call came, Bill laid aside his Bible and joined the Marine Corps. Bill wasn't much fun, around the barracks, and he wasn't so hot at the beer drinking contests in the jukes, but he earned his sergeant's stripes before they sent his gang bustered broccoli, cabbage slaw with mint, whole wheat rolls with butter, grain crackers

The fistful of fighting fools charged a machine gun nest, and Bill had just taken careful aim and let go a hand grenade when another machine gun caught him. Four bullets in his head, but a Marine has four speeds forward and no reverse and Bill fell toward the enemy. That was the afternoon when you were sitting at the golf club with a highball in your hand, telling the other three fellows in your foursome that if income taxes were not reduced they were going to kill initiative in this country.

Bill Jones is dead. Bill was a football player who had good prospects as a professional coach at a small college. Then came Pearl Harbor until the meringue is a golden brown. (Six to eight servings.)

words were "Of all the damn fool luck!"

That was the time you were telling the boys at the poker game that the union racketeers and the munitions manufacturers were making fortunes out of this war, when we had no business getting into it in the first place.

Bill Jones is dead. Bill was an uneducated calm digger on the New England coast, but he knew about boats. He had only one eye and the uniform ranks wouldn't take him so he shipped on a tanker. His ship was bringing oil up the coast when a German pig boat came up out of the slime and sent a torpedo into the hull amidship. The freighter burst into flames and Bill went over the side into the burning oil.

When he came to the surface, a machine gun was practicing on the bobbing heads. When the bullets hit Bill's head it burst open like a dropped egg. His charred bullet riddled body sank beneath the surface.

That was the night you were telling the folks at your party that this was being run by a lot of old women in Washington the most mismanaged mess ever heard of.

Bill Jones is dead. When God is His infinite kindness meets Bill Jones at Heaven's gate, He is going to say "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

What He is going to say to you, God alone knows.

You keep your food in the icebox your auto in the garage and your clothes in the closet. You protect your possessions by placing them where they are the most secure.

For the same reason it's safest to keep your money in a sound bank. For convenience, security and availability there is no better place.

 Odica Spears, John Oldham and the Dee Gibson.

Before the game was over Spears had made four points Oldham seven and Gibson eight for 19 points. McKinney and Ray fouled out trying to stop Duncan.

Duncan opened the scoring of the game and closed Morehead's by making gone free throw, eight minutes before the end of the game.

For those last eight minutes Western subdued Duncan and Morehead and won going away in the second half there were six tie scores and three lead changes.

There were five tie scores and five changes of the lead in the first half as Western's entire team did its utmost to control Duncan. The first five scoring plays were a private duel between Duncan and Oren Mc-Kinney.

Three Western players, Sydney
 Ray and Spears, made the all-tournament team along with Duncan, Cooper Sampbell of Eastern, Frank Heinze and Calver Little of Berea, and Hyland Grimmer and Joe Fulks of Murray.

All that need be said about the Morehead victory over Eastern is that Duncan was there and having a lot to say about everything.

All told, Earl scored 22 points but that doesn't tell the story.

The teams had fought nip and tuck from the start and only a few points separated them at the end. Just before the regular play time ended Max Bran-had tied the score at 52.

As the regular playing ended Duncan sank a short one, to tie the score at 59-59. During the next 5 minutes the score was tied several times. It finally ended when Duncan scored from the side with a score of 66-64.

ONE DAY AT A TIME

Great times call for great people. But it isn't the crisis that call for the greatest exercise of self-control and patience.
 It is the every day grind of mon-otomous, disagreeable tasks. We can stand big sacrifices, but it's the giving up of little things which no one knows about that wears our tempers thin.

It's the plane spotting detail on a holiday evening - after weeks of nothing happening.
 It's the first aid class on the being out of butter when we've so carefully rationed our family.

 It's the conscience that makes us buy Bonds when we want bright new clothes. It's all the things we do day in and day out that nobody notices, that makes us not angry, but - worse still - fretful.

What we must do is to rem-

Remember when Johnny was just a little boy?

IT SEEMS only yesterday that Johnny was romping through his childhood.
 Remember? As if you ever could forget!
 Even in those days, he had his troubles, and they seemed great and unbearable until he brought them to you. After all, Mom or Dad could make the world right again with a word or a kiss.

Now your Johnny is somewhere on many of the war-shattered fields where countless thousands of Johnnies are fighting - fighting for Mom and Dad and The Girl - against the forces of evil. He may be pouring out his lifeblood. And you - Mom and Dad - can't be there to take his hand and make everything all right again.

But the American Red Cross, "The Greatest Mother," is there and will continue to be there if we - all the Moms and Dads and Girls - give a little of our plenty to pay the cost.

If Johnny was among the wounded today, a blood transfusion may be required to save his life - blood contributed to the American Red Cross by Americans back home. Contributions? Yes, but it costs money to store and transport the precious plasma which may save Johnny's life. Back at the Army hospital, Johnny's wounds will be dressed by Army nurses, recruited by the Red Cross.
 Sympathetic Red Cross workers will advise you of the proper bank, as it were better, either Red Cross workers will be with him to nurse his recovery by furnishing him cheerful companions and the other little comforts of convalescent requires.

Maybe Johnny hasn't been wounded.
 But the chances are he's lonely and is sick for home. He can't come home, but he can go to the American Red Cross

Club. True, that isn't so good as home, but he will find a warm welcome, a good meal and amusements.

Perhaps Johnny is in an enemy prison camp. The Red Cross will help him there, too - help him to get mail from home and some of the comforts which will help to keep his morale up. Or suppose you are in trouble at home, and Johnny can't come back to help straighten things out. . . . There are thousands of Red Cross workers throughout the country, and millions of volunteers, ready to do it for him.

The American Red Cross needs $125,000,000 to carry its many tasks in 1943. It must depend upon your contribution to continue its great work. Don't fail "The Greatest Mother!"

File Claims By Mail After March 10

Executive Director V. E. Barnes of the Kentucky Unemployment Compensation Commission announced today at Frankfort that after March 10 all claims for unemployment benefits from Rowan county residents must be filed by mail rather than with claims takers of the Commission. Barnes explained that because of the rubber shortage and gasoline rationing and the need for reducing administrative expenses it would be impossible for the Commission to send a claims taker to this county every other week, as in the past to accept unemployment claims.

The last visit to be made by the claims taker will be on March 10. At that time the claims taker will explain fully the procedure for filing claims by mail after persons now claiming benefits. Any person desiring to file a claim after that date may obtain full information by writing to the Commission's branch office at 425 13th Street, Ashland, Ky.

At the present time 10 counties are being served by mail and the mail procedure is being extended to include 64 additional counties. The move will bring about a saving of over $7,000 a year in travel expense alone, Barnes declared.

It is expected to also prove advantageous to claimants by eliminating the necessity of periodic visits to the county seat to continue filing the claim.
