Methodist Ladies To Have Sale

The ladies of the Methodist Church will hold a Rummage Sale at the courthouse on Saturday, December 4.

You will find plenty of things for your Christmas basket or for gifts here. Come and see what we have.

Americans All

Hubert Allen, a student of meteorology at the University of Chicago, arrived home Saturday for a ten days' furlough before returning to Chicago to complete the course, which lasts until May. Hubert enlisted last March but was not called until May, to report for duty.

Car Owners To Get One Tag For This Year

As the year closes for the sale of license stickers for cars in Rowan county for the 1943 year, the county clerk has announced that only 1,075 have been licensed during that time. During 1942 there were 1,135 cars. There were about 350 in the county.

This year, one tag will be sold instead of the stickers as last year. The tag, to be used on the back of the car is black background with orange lettering. The cost will be five dollars as other years.

Miss Anna Jane Day, who enlisted in the WACs after the outbreak of the war, was promoted to lieutenant on graduation. She is now serving in the Army.

Det. Lyman B. Jones, husband of Mrs. Volva Jones, of Morehead, has been given two promotions in the past month. On November 2, he was given the rank of Private First Class. Then on the eighth of the month he was again promoted, this time from PFC to Technician 5th Class. This was the highest in the South Pacific area, since last August. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Jones of Sidesway. He served the Service December 17, 1942, shortly after Pearl Harbor.

In this issue we are running an outline of what is necessary to get your license for your truck license. This is asked for by the Federal Government and by studying it and finding out all the details you may save yourself an extra trip to the court house.

The tags go on sale on December 1.

According to a telegram received by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Calvert, their son, J. B. Jr., has been transferred from Camp Pappin, Texas, to the Air Corps at Miami, Fla. J. B. is a graduate of Morehead High school of the class of '43. He has been in the service since August.

Firemen Save Carr Lu'ber Co.

Except for the quick work of the Morehead firemen and the help of the neighbors, the lumber yard and planing mill of the Carr and Lu'ber Company would have been completely destroyed by fire Saturday morning.

Fire started when the gasoline pipe to the motor sprung a leak, and quickly spread to other parts of the plant. The planer, motor and belts were completely destroyed, but the fire was kept from spreading further and was extinguished.

First Sgt. T. D. White, of Morehead, Route 2, was quietly married to Miss Mary Pearl Kimberling of First Smith, Ark. The wedding took place the seventh of November at Fort Smith.

Mr. Carr was able to replace the machinery and will have the mill in running order very soon.

He asked The News to express his gratitude to the Morehead Army Air Forces Flying Training Command. During this period he will study numerous academic subjects and receive elementary flying training. Upon completion of the course he will be classified as a navigator, pilot or bombardier and go on to schools of the Flying Training Command for training in these specialties.

Dental Clinic Gives Report On Work Done

The Dental Clinic, sponsored by several county organizations, a few weeks ago was very successful according to reports just received. The clinic was in charge of Dr. Kelly Cornelius, now head of the Harrison County Health Department at Cynthia. There were 1,565 children examined and 740 corrections were made. The total cost of the work, had it been done in a private dental office, would have been $1,014. The cost of the clinic to the county organizations was $110.

The women of the various organizations assisted the doctor in the work.

Mr. John Palmer was local chairman. It is the hope of the community, that this may be made an annual event.

Cousin Indicted In Mason's Death

Court certainly isn't what it used to be in Rowan county. For in former years, sixty or seventy indictments by the Grand Jury was always the order of the day. But this term, the Grand Jury was in session only four days and returned only twelve indictments. This however is still more than were returned in the May 1943 term, when only six were reported for trial.

However of the twelve, two are for murder. One, Bill Alderman for the killing of Wilburn Moore last summer, was returned last week and the trial of Mr. Alderman is now going on.

The other murder indictment was in the case of Ida Mason, who was found dead beside the railroad track at Radburn last February. Evidence pointed to certain party or parties and the grand jury since last February has tried to get enough evidence for an indictment, but until this term, were unable to do so. Now although no arrests have been made, sufficient proof has been given and the indictment made.

Ten months ago Ida Mason was found dead, beside the railroad tracks near Radburn. A coroner's

Mrs. Carter Has Good Cause For Happiness

Mrs. Wanda Carter is rejoicing and all of her neighbors and friends are rejoicing with her.

On September 6, Mrs. Carter received word from the War Department that her son, Grant Carter, is being released in action. And until Monday afternoon she had given up all hope of ever seeing him again.

And then Monday afternoon, the War Department sent another message to Mrs. Carter, stating "We are happy to report, that your son, Grant Carter, who was reported missing in action, in Sicily, has been located and is now again on active duty."

Of course nobody knows exactly how Mrs. Carter feels, but we 14th Navy Exercises Held Sat.

One hundred and thirty men of the Second Division graduated from the Morehead Navy Training School last Saturday, when the sixteenth class commenced the opening of the school, not because the class had lower averages, but because of a change in the regulations.

Honor man was Frank Taggart, Mr. Brooklynn, with an average of 84.4. Only three were granted to receive their certificates because of the rated men had been sent to an assignment at advanced schools.

Collector Of Taxes To Be Here Soon

Collector of Internal Revenue S. R. Glenn, announces that a deputy from his office will visit Morehead December 1 through 7, and 13 through 16, for the purpose of assisting farmers in preparing their December 15 declaration returns. Mr. Glenn says that the new Revenue Act is in many respects different from the laws previously in effect. Special attention is called to farmers who will be required to file their declaration returns by December 15, if 80% or more of their gross income is from farming activities and their income is sufficient from this source to require the filing of an income tax return.

Attend Meeting Of U. S. O. In Louisville

"You are the army behind the army." Mrs. Dwight M. Morrison, national chairman of the USO Uniform Training Program, led over to the state-wide touring institute held in Louisville last week.

W. J. Goddard, formerly director of the USO club in Louisville, now USO associate regional director with headquarters in Chicago, was chairman of the meeting. W. J. McLaughlin, also associate regional director; Miss Ruth Shaw, originator of finger painting and member of USO program staff; Miss Bernice Bridges, from USO office in New York; and Lawrence Caines, regional director of the YMCA, one of the six cooperating USO agencies were program speakers.

"Without you and the nearly 80,000 other volunteers serving firms, sailors and friends, the next Happy Hour will be on December 6 and will be a remembrance of your mother."

Rowan County Over the Top in War Fund Drive

Rowan county is over the top. With collections still incomplete, money actually in the bank for the War Fund Drive exceeds the total quotas and expenses by nearly $30.

At a meeting of the USO Citizens Committee on Monday night, it was voted to pay over the quotas at once to the organization concerned to hold the balance until the collection of unpaid pledges is finished, and then to prorate the surplus among the participating groups according to their quotas.

New Pastor Takes Over Work At Christian Church

Rev. Charles Dietze and Mrs. Dietze will arrive this week to take over the pastorate of the Christian Church.

Rev. Dietze was in Morehead several weeks ago for the trial sermon and was called immediately to fill the vacancy left when Rev. A. E. Landolt accepted a call to Neosho, Mo.

Rev. Dietze comes to Morehead from Burgen where he has been pastor. He is a native of Georgia, a graduate of Transylvania College and will complete the course at the College of the Bible at Lexington in early December. He was not expected to be able to take up his work here until later, but Burgen was able to release him, so that he and Mrs. Dietze will move to Morehead this week.

Don Blair To Be Home Soon

Little Don Blair, who was seriously injured several weeks ago, when run over by a truck, showing great improvement and it is hoped he will be able to return home by the Christmas holidays. Skin grafting on his legs will probably be done in the next week or so and great hopes are entertained for his complete recovery.

Red Cross Room Moved Back To Old Quarters

Owing to the death two weeks ago of Mr. Virgil Wolford, the Red Cross Production Room will be moved back to their old headquarters in the Morehead Woman's Club House, next to the City Hall.

The room was changed a short time ago, to give Mr. Wolford, who was ill, the benefit of the new quarters. As his health would not permit him to climb the stairs in the building he occupied. He agreed to pay the rent on the upstairs room, for the Red Cross and had just become settled in his new office when death occurred.

Mrs. Wolford, who is carrying on the insurance business in her husband's place, moved back to the Canfield building Monday and will be glad to meet all of her old friends as well as new ones.

Let Us All Say "Thank You"

Most of us were brought up in homes where the fine old custom of saying Grace prevailed and we learned to daily express our gratitude to the Giver of all Gifts "In our home we say Grace" meant something very real and fine.

Saying Grace is a custom that should be part of our lives today, for we have much for which to be thankful. Although the world is rough and the lot greater than we can yet conceive, we know that victory has already been gained and that unite.

What are we thankful for this Thanksgiving Day?

Thanksgiving Day? We are thankful that we have learned much from the past year and sacrifice and in being on the side of justice and mercy. We are thankful that we have learned the privilege of living in the greatest hour of history, that we can in that hour give advice to our brothers everywhere, what color their creed, or color.

As Chesterton so aptly said - "The way to love anything is to realize that it might be lost."

We are thankful that we have learned what we really love—and for that knowledge while there is yet time to keep it, learned how to spend less time we are thankful-

Breckinridge Five Defeat Grayson 34-14

Breck won his second game of the season by defeating Grayson High School 34-14.

The local team was never behind at any time during the game.

To date little is known of Breck's ability, they have only played two games winning both by large score. They will get their first real test of the year when they meet Olivet Hill Friday night at the college gym. This should be one of the best games of the season for the Morehead fans. Both teams are undefeated. Olivet Hill has won seven games and is expected to capture the eighth here Friday night.

Due to Olive Hill's size, Breck will be at a great disadvantage.

Score by quarters of Grayson game:

Grayson	1	2	3	4
Breck	1	2	3	4

It is planned for Curtis Wright representatives to visit Breck school for personal talks.

En Garde!

By Ruth Taylor
"What house is so strong or what state so enduring that it cannot be utterly overthrown by animosities and divisions?" So wrote Cicero nearly two thousand years ago.
"A warning against divisive tactics again!" you will say. "But don't you know the war is being won?"

Of course it is being won, but in the fighting we can suffer a Pyrrhic victory. The unity which grew up overnight when we were attacked is showing signs of being too quick a construction job. There are cracks across it and the breaches in the walls brought about by group hatreds and prejudices have not been mended. Listen to people talk today. Notice how quick they are to blame their neighbors for all that is troublesome. I've had three examples of this recently. A labor man, whom I ad always counted on as being a conservative as myself, showed me a flagrant example of self-interest on the part of an firm, and said "This is the attitude of industry." Another man whom I have always respected for his fairness, startled me by his generalized denunciation of all labor after an outlaw strike condemned by labor itself. A third man made me sick at heart by a vicious diatribe against minority groups.

Those are cracks in the wall. Those are the signs of danger. The greatest peril, however, will come when the siege halts and the men are withdrawn from the walls. Then if we let it happen, disunity will divide us into small self-seeking groups. Then will the breaches widen until a small force can march in and seize the state.

It has happened before. It can happen again. And it will happen to us unless we use care in preventing it. We must calm the damparts in the hour of calm as waterfalls do in the heat of battle. We must stand shoulder-to-shoulder in the reconstruction of the work, never slackening our fight against divisive influences. We must remain on guard to preserve our unity.

In the words of that great spokesman of unity, General Spauld—"Let us go forward in the attitude of industry." Another

Morehead Hi Service Club

This letter is from Tommy Johnson, son of Mrs. Jesse Johnson. Tommy graduated in the class of 1943. He was inducted into the Service in August and was given Navy duty. He had his "Boot" training at Great Lakes, San Bruno, Calif., Aug. 29, 1943. Dear Mary:
Well I guess you will be surprised to hear from me, I presumed to write you so here I go. I am away out in sunny California in a little town called San Bruno. It's about 12 miles from San Francisco and believe me it sure is beautiful country out here. The sun is coming around and it sure is hot and at night it is cold as can be but I like it fine. Well they have started something new in the Navy, it's plenty tough. They are making commando fighters out of us and we are trained by Marine officers so you can guess what it is like. Well Mary yesterday I run up on Billy Stewart, he is out here in camp and he will have to go across before long.
I guess I will be here for about two months or more I hope before I go across but by that time I hope it's over; you can't keep a guy from hoping. I will close now and please write when you get time.
As Always,

September 18, 1943.
Dear Ma:
Just a few lines to let you know I am still alive and feeling fine, sorry, but didn't have time to write sooner, was working very hard, but will try to write more often. I have just written Judy a letter but it has been over a year since I have heard from Ligon or Lt. Kessler, but he must be busy or going out with too many girls to find time to write his brother, but we'll all be home some day, we hope, maybe for Christmas. I would love to walk down the path again, if it was only for a little while, but this war has changed a lot of plans. I have a beautiful scrap book on the war from all fronts. I cut clippings out of papers you sent me and the ones I bought, it sure is beautiful. I will show it to you some day soon. I hope. When Pete came overseas I missed him by one day, he came December 11, 1942. I left December 10, 1942. I spent four months there and it is a hell of a place. You can sure save money there. When I was there I saved $350, but when I went to civilization it didn't last long, but I will save some more some day and then when I come home I want a new uniform to come home in. I will buy that time have saved up enough to buy what I want. When I come back I will call you up the minute I hit the States, but it sure would be good to hear your voice again. How is Papa? He is working and fusing as much as ever. Give Rufus and Tom my love, also Frank and Velvet, Tell Papa to keep the car in good shape, don't rip the fenders off. I want to use it some time.
You will get some letters from me I had met before long, be sure and send them something for me. They are good people, treated me just like their own son. I drove their car on liberty and we all had a lot of fun, just like our big happy family. I will show you how to bake apple pies when I get home. I make good pies and cake. Well I must close. Write soon.

Get Security Numbers For Xmas Work
Persons expecting to be employed during the holiday season to help take care of the rush in business must have social security account numbers. Elbert M. Bohm, manager of the Ashland, Kentucky, field office of the Social Security Board, announced today.
"Unless the worker has a job view, however, he should not apply for a number. As soon as he is certain of going to work at an early date, he should go to the nearest Social Security Board office and put in his application for his account number."
The social security field office in this area is at 1118 Second National Bank Building, Ashland, Kentucky.

F. S. A. Women Save On Points On Thanks Dinner
The extra ration points needed to prepare a regular old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner won't worry Farm Security Administration families this year, according to Miss Lillian O. Ratliff, Associate FSA Supervisor for Rowan County.
"Our borrowers began preparing for their Thanksgiving almost a year ago," Miss Ratliff said. "Last winter they started making farm and home plans which provided for a farm victory garden large enough to grow all the foods needed for the family throughout the year."
"At summer they were filling their jars with a variety of vegetables, fruits, and meats — all raised on their own farm. Now that Thanksgiving is here, small farm families in the FSA program won't need to save up points for the meats and canned foods to round out their Thanksgiving meal."
"Instead, they went down to their own home-constructed cellar for their Thanksgiving, and that means more food left on grocery shelves for the use of town and city families and for their fighting men."

Miss Ratliff said that a recent survey of FSA families in Rowan County revealed that an average of 88 quarts of fruit, meats, and vegetables per member of the family had been canned this year; and that storage cellars contained potatoes, apples, carrots, turnips, pumpkins and many other fresh fruits and vegetables.

In The Midst of War We Still Have MUCH TO BE THANKFUL FOR

Thanksgiving Day finds us grateful for assured Victory, even though the exact date is still uncertain; for ample food, clothing and other necessities in a War-rationed world; for unity and patriotism displayed in so many ways here on the home front.
And let's not forget a special Thanksgiving prayer for our fighting boys overseas, who are giving everything to insure that Freedom shall not perish among Nations.

Been hearing a lot about the Civil Air Patrol lately. A lot of fellows—and girls, too—helping out in the war here at home, flying the army's errands.
Many of 'em fly their own plane and they all pay their own expenses. What they're doing is mighty important, seems to me.
Saw one bucking a strong headwind in a storm here a while back. Gave me a thrill to watch that little plane scudding through on his war work.
Real patriots, cooperating like that together, is what wins.

And talking about cooperation, it looks to me like Kentucky brewers are doing a mighty fine job, through the Army and Navy Cooperation Program of the Brewing Industry Foundation.
They're seeing to it that every licensed retail beer dealer near a military camp maintains the highest standards of operation.
From where I sit, the military authorities have every right to their enthusiasm over the brewers' cooperation program.

Duck Carter Makes Good In The Baseball World

Most basketball fans in this area remember Allie (Ducky) Carter. He played with Morehead College, Marshall, the Olive Hill Brickies, the Morehead Marchants and the professional Huntington Boosters but stepped out of the Tri-State picture about 10 years ago.

Hubert Counts of Olive Hill sends the following interesting news concerning Ducky—who is well past 30. It is taken from the news publication "Morris Code" of Morris Field, Charlotte, N. C.

"A ball player's ball player," that's the appropriate title for Allie B. "Ducky" Carter, captain and smooth working second baseman of the 84th Guard Sq. baseball team. The affable and soft-spoken Virginian has plenty of press clippings to substantiate the title.

"Born in Morehead, Ky., he was a 4 star letter man in high school, and obtained a scholarship to Marshall College in Huntington, where he starred in baseball for three years.

"During his first year, the diamond nine racked up an impressive total of 19 consecutive triumphs. This feat placed the "Big Green" among the strongest collegiate teams of the country.

"Ducky" likes to recall one of two games in particular, notably two wins over Notre Dame. He scored the winning run in the initial encounter, a 2-1 victory, and drove in the deciding marker in the second contest to give his mates a 1-0 triumph. In this feat, he says, was his biggest thrill."

"Carter is still playing great ball. In a recent game he slugged three triples, two doubles, drove in five runs and scored two in leading the Guards to a 10-2 victory... which the paper commented on as "a perfect day for a perfect player." The Morris Field All-Star team was a cinch for Ducky, who was the only unanimous choice. The all-star pitcher was Junior Thompson, and several other former professional players.—Ashland Independent.

Work For Victory In Navy Waves

There are many ways you can work for Victory now, can you?

Right now, can you? "I'm doing all I can to help my country win this war!"

You can say it—say it proudly—when you wear the Navy blue of the WAVES.

As a member of the Women's Reserve, you have the chance to serve your country as women have never served before. To serve where America needs you in leading the Guards to a 10-2 most. To serve, to work and win, shoulder to shoulder with the gallant men of the Navy.

That's the kind of opportunity the WAVES offer you. The chance to get off the sidelines and get into uniform, the chance to be in the Navy, of the Navy, living a real Navy life. The chance to feel important, to be important, to hold your head high.

Isn't that the part you want to play in winning this war? Is there any part you can play in which you can take greater pride after Victory is won?

Then today, take the first step toward an experience you'll be proud of always: volunteer for the Navy—serve as a WAVE.

The Ashland WAVE office is located in room No. 209 of the Post Office building. The WAVE recruiter will be glad to explain the great opportunities for you and the jobs that must be held by WAVES so that men may be free to fight at sea.

Troop Movement Equals 50 World Trips For Rowan

Taking all of Rowan county's 12,734 people around the world in sleeping cars more than 50 times would be a tremendous undertaking, yet that is actually about the size of the troop movement job reported today by The Pullman Company.

Since Pearl Harbor, Pullman has carried about 14,000,000 troops a distance of more than 15 billion passenger miles in its sleeping cars, the company reports. These figures are said to cover mass military movements alone, and do not include the heavy travel of furloughed men and others.

Many of the boys from Rowan county, like servicemen from all parts of the country, are getting their first Pullman rides, ac-ording to George A. Kelly, vice president of the company. Now most of them are making six or seven trips by Pullman, as the intense training program of the armed services necessitates that many moves or more prior to embarkation for points abroad, he said. In addition, the Army and Navy believe in all the comfort possible for the members of the armed forces, he declared, and about two thirds of all military movements by rail are by Pullman sleeper.

Pullman is now carrying more than 800,000 troops every month in mass movements, it is revealed by Mr. Kelly, who pointed out that in addition to this heavy and steadily increasing military passenger burden, civilian travel itself is also at a record-breaking level. He believes that Pullman's passenger-mile volume for 1943 may exceed the 1942 all-time high of 19 billion by 30 or more per cent.

"The military and civilian passenger burden of Pullman and the railroads today is so heavy," Kelly said, "that there is unfortunately little margin left for some of the conveniences travelers enjoyed in peacetime. Service today is wartime service, and by their understanding and tolerance of this fact, travelers can help us greatly in the performance of our vital job."

"members of the armed forces," Mrs. Morrow continued. "I can not praise too highly the work you are doing—your giving so generously of your time and effort to provide the little things that mean so much to those who have so recently changed from civilian clothes to uniform."

USO now serves in every state in the Union, in Central and South America, Alaska, Hawaii, the Canal Zone, the Caribbean area, Bermuda and Newfoundland. Mrs. Morrow explained. And, as more men are sent to these bases, USO will expand its services outside the continental United States. USO Clubs are not operated on fighting fronts because USO serves only where requested by the government, and the government has not designated USO to go into these fields. USO Camp Shows, however, provides entertainment for men serving in all parts of the world.

Volunteers from Morehead attending the meeting included J. D. Falls, chairman of the USO Citizens' Committee, and Mrs. J. D. Falls, director of USO activities.

Court

County are up to standard and there have been very few violations of the law committed so far as we are able to learn. We have had witnesses come up from every part of the County and it appears that conditions are quiet.

We further report that we have examined all the offices in and about the courthouse and so far as we are able in the short time allotted to us have examined the records of the offices and find the offices being well administered and the records of same in good shape. We have also examined the buildings and commend the records officials for the recent repairs made upon the courthouse, that is the new roof that is placed on same, as well as the coat of paint on the courthouse, which is a great improvement and has been needed for some years. We would recommend however, that the Circuit Court room be papered and the wood work painted or varnished; also we recommend that the toilet for the men that is located in the basement of the courthouse as it is now located, be discontinued and be removed to the west side of the courthouse and we learn is continuously out of order. Other than these two suggestions we find the courthouse in excellent shape, in fact, in better shape than it has been for some years.

We have examined the City Hall and learn that the toilet in said building is out of repair and we recommend that the City officials repair this immediately.

We thank the Court for his helpful advice and suggestions given us during the term and the other officials for the fine cooperation in helping us to make our investigation.

Respectfully submitted,
BILL HAMPLE, Foreman.

Can You Picture KENTUCKY without Newspapers?

Hometown Paper
LOCAL BOY DECORATED IN ITALY!
GREYHOUND SERVES NEW WAR PLAN!

Every hour of the day headline news of overwhelming interest to every person in Kentucky is being made all over the world. But without our modern communication systems and particularly our newspapers it would be next to impossible to find out what's going on.

Getting even closer to home, we wouldn't know what local boys are back on furlough—what the ball scores are—who's getting married and when—that's happening in the comic-strip world—what events are taking place all over town.

All of us should feel proud of the fine job newspapers are doing to keep Kentucky in touch with the times. It's a strong and free press, serving free people—one of the first things the dictators would suppress if they had the chance! And it would be hard to over-estimate the part played by Kentucky's great dailies and weekly newspapers in furthering the war effort. Nearly a million people buy these papers—far greater numbers read them—the whole State relies upon them for information and inspiration.

For this reason Greyhound depends upon such newspapers as this one to carry its information on bus service to those Kentuckians who travel. Greyhound, in turn, carries many newspapers to rural areas not served by any other transportation system.

As fellow citizens of this State, the Greyhound Lines take much pleasure in helping to make near neighbors and good neighbors of all the communities we serve in Kentucky—linking them to each other and to the rest of the country, as newspapers do.
