INDIANAPOLIS MAN IS DEAD.

Howard Atkinson Dies of Pneumonia at Oklahoma City.

Wabash, Ind., Jan. 9—Howard M. Atkinson of Indianapolis, 39, who recently removed from this city, died tonight at Oklahoma City, Okla., where he went in hope of benefiting his health. Death was due to pneumonia.

He organized the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of this city, represented Eastern capital in Indiana and was at the head of the Atkinson Agency at Indianapolis. He was a son of the late A. M. Atkinson, a prominent Christian minister and philanthropist. He leaves a family.—Indianapolis Star.

Wednesday morning, January the sixteenth, at the close of Chapel exercises of the Morehead Normal School, the following memorial relative to the late Howard M. Atkinson, was read and ordered spread upon record.

WHEREAS Howard M. Atkinson has been taken from this world by death, the Faculty and Students, holding him in high esteem as a benevolent Christian man, desire to express their appreciation of his character in the following resolutions:

First, that in his death the Christian church has lost a zealous advocate; society a public spirited member; and the cause of education an able supporter.

Second, that we extend to his sorrowing family and relatives our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in this their hour of great bereavement.

Third, that these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and that they be spread upon the records of the Morehead Normal school.

MAGDALENA STUKEY,
MRS. E. M. HOPKINS,
SIMON MILLER,
Committee.

Howard M. Atkinson was the son of Mrs. N. E. Atkinson, late president of the C. W. B. M., and was a liberal donor to the Morehead Normal School.
