Raymond is a machinist mate in the SeaBees, he runs the crane. Although he is not in the actual fighting, he says he can get into a fox hole just as quickly as the next one, and he says he has been bombed while working. He has some shrapnel that he hopes to bring back when he comes.

Harold Vaughn Arrives From Foreign Service. Last week we received a story about Marine Corporal Harold Vaughn, who was given the Purple Heart Citation for machine gun wounds suffered at Guadalcanal. We did not use the story for the reason that he had served one year very much the same, several weeks before. We are not running the story this week, because Corp. Harold Vaughn arrived home this week and we would be available to farmers, either by hand carry a first-hand story from him. This we will try to do next week.

Court To Convene March 13

Judge Bridges White will open Circuit Court here on Monday, March 13, for a three-weeks scheduled term. For the past year and a half, Joe McKinley, clerk has been indicated to be the lightest docket ever scheduled and that is just what he says now, even though two murder cases are up for trial.

One is Bill Alderman for the slaying of William Moore. This was tried in November, but resulted in a hung jury. The other case is Mathew Pyffe for the murder of Ida Mason, near Rodburn last year. Pyffe has been under $15,000 bond since that time. Alderman is also out on bond. The Alderman case is set for the fourth day of the term, Thursday, March 16, while the Pyffe case comes up on Monday. Farmers May Now Apply For Crop, Stock Loans

Mr. A. V. Allison, field supervisor for the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Office, stated that farmers of Rowan County may now apply for loans to finance the production of their 1944 crops. Applications for loans are being written by Mabel Alfred. Mr. Allison called special attention to the emphasis being placed on the production of those crops declared essential to the war effort and so vitally needed this year. He stated that loans were being made to finance the production of those crops, as well as regular crops, such as corn and soybeans. Emergency Crop and Feed loans have been available to farmers, either by hand carry a first-hand story from him. This we will try to do next week. Loans are also made for the (Continued on Page Five)

'Riddie' Hall, 90, Is Taken

Death came to one of Rowan county's oldest citizens yesterday when William Thomas Hall, better known as "Uncle Riddie," died at the home of his grandson, Edgar Hall. William Thomas Hall was born in Rowan county February 26, 1854, and was at the time of his death, February 1944, ninety-two years and one day. He celebrated his birthday on Saturday, but on Thursday Mrs. Ed Hall had a birthday dinner in his honor and for Rev. Ramon Johnson and Miss Grace, Croswater, who also had birthdays last week.

He was married to Sarah Riddle on February 23, 1871. She preceded him in death by eleven years. He has been a member of the Church of God for 65 years and preached for almost the entire, but his health failed a few years ago. For the past ten years he has made his home with his grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hall. He lost his sight about seven years ago, and since that time he has been constantly cared for by Mrs. Hall. He suffered an attack of flu in January, but had recovered from that, when on Friday he walked out into the yard and caught more cold. Saturday he felt quite ill, but by Sunday morning had developed pneumonia, which caused his death that evening.

His funeral services were held at 1 o'clock with Rev. Ramon Johnson officiating at Fleming Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon, March 5, at 2:30 p. m. for the Societies of Bracken Association. All visitors are welcome to the funeral. The program is planned to be one of information, inspiration and challenge. It is to be presented under the auspices of the Baptist Training Union. The largest possible attendance is urged from the Baptist Churches of the Association whether they have a Training Union work or not. State Baptist Training Union secretary, Byron C. S. DeJarnette of Louisville, announced that this meeting is to be one of many such Baptist Association meetings over the state. The statewide attendance goal is 8,000. These meetings are features of this fourth year of the Four Year Promotional Program of Kentucky and Southern Baptists.

Mistakes - - Then And Now - -

Last week in making up the paper we forgot to change 1926 to 1927 in "Do You Remember, Way Back In—". Of course that is only one of our mistakes. But the Rowan County News like most newspapers—quite often. One in particular occurred in The News in 1927. The reason for this particular mistake was the circumstances that brought it about. It was in June, 1927, Ernest Jayne "Mammy," and Bill Scruggs both worked in The News. Not only that, but both were married the same week—Ernest to Miss Vella Wain, Bill to Edna Basenback. And that same week either "Mammy" or "Bill" week the editor and his sister attended a Press meeting. In making up the paper, two stories were used on the front page—one a Sunday School Lesson, the other a Baseball game. The Sunday School lesson started off very well but in the excitement and hurry, the two "gallegies" became mixed and the baseball game got into the Sunday School lesson and the following was the result: "When they came to arrest Jesus, in the Garden with boldness did Peter—step forth to furnish an empire for the game— from here on it was the baseball story. Of course nobody could blame either "Mammy" or "Bill."

'Frozen Food Locker Assured In Rowan County'

The Frozen Food Locker is assured for Morehead and Rowan county by the U. S. Food Administration who told us Monday that enough lockers have already been rented to assure the installation. Everyone who made the trip to Mayville last week for a demonstration of the locker were very enthusiastic about getting it in operation as soon as possible. Those who went were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rice, D. C. Caudill, Dave Gevorton, Bill Johnson, Ott Carr, Roy Cornett, Charles Hughes and Mrs. W. R. Shafer. All were very much sold on the idea. Several prominent farmers of the county have already rented lockers and more are coming in each day.

Farmers Club To Hold Special Program

Emil Deen, University of Kentucky expert on Farm Seeds, will attend the next meeting of Rowan County Farmers Club on March 10. Mr. Deen will explain the Experiment Station method of testing field seed and explain how every farmer can get his home-grown seed tested for germination and purity without cost. The Farmers Club announce that this will be an open meeting and invite all farmers, seed dealers and other interested persons to attend the meeting which will be held at the Public High School Friday, March 10, at 7:30.

Morehead USO Held An Open House Party

Last Saturday evening Morehead USO held an Open House Party. Not only were sailors from the Morehead Naval Training School present in force, with hostesses and junior hostesses present as usual to entertain them, but there was also probably the largest number of civilian visitors ever to attend the USO. The program was in the evening, led by Mrs. C. L. Cooper. Refreshments were served throughout the eight hour Open House period. (Continued on Page Four)

Meeting To Discuss Water Problem

A meeting will be held Monday night, March 6, to discuss the possibility of getting city water piped to Tolliver's Addition. A man from the city council as well as the water commissioner will discuss the approximate cost of the construction of the line and the cost of the water. The use of city water is of great benefit to the people using it. This water is not only more convenient but has been purified which is a safeguard against typhoid and other diseases. The meeting will be at the Agriculture Building 1 mile east of Morehead on Route 60. Starting time will be 7:30. Each family living in Tolliver's Addition should be represented at this meeting.

Services Held For O. Maxey

Last Thursday, O. Maxey suffered a stroke of paralysis while down town. He was taken home and everything done for him but on Sunday afternoon he passed away. Gervton Maxey was born November 4, 1871, in Morgan county, but has lived in Rowan county over fifty years. He died on Sunday, February 27, 1944. He was married to Addie Lane, October 1, 1891. To this union were born six children. They are Frank Maxey and Mrs. Ethel Davis, of Morehead; Herbert Maxey of Mansfield, Ohio; Sherman Maxey in the Army at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.; and Ollie Maxey and Eva Ann Ward, who with their mother, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were conducted at the Church of God Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock with Rev. Ramon Johnson conducting. Burial was in the Clearfield cemetery. Pallbearers were members of the American Legion, Jack Helwig, Jack Cecil, Russell Barker, Malon Hall, Felix Wellman; E. P. Hall and Hobart Hogan.

Epperhart Brothers Meet After 25 Years

For the first time in twenty-five years the Epperhart brothers enjoyed a visit together. Four brothers, Bill, George, John and Robert Epperhart live in Rowan county and see each other often, but their youngest brother, Francis Epperhart, who lives in Kansas, Mo., has not been here since 1919, until he came last Monday. The five brothers met at the old home place at Minor, where Mr. Bill Epperhart and his family live. It was a most enjoyable visit, until he left on Friday.

Many Visitors Call At U. S. O. Open House Day

Last Saturday evening Morehead USO held an Open House Party. Not only were sailors from the Morehead Naval Training School present in force, with hostesses and junior hostesses present as usual to entertain them, but there was also probably the largest number of civilian visitors ever to attend the USO. Salvage Committee Organized, In County

Last week at a meeting held at the County Superintendent's office a Salvage committee was appointed and plan on having a campaign throughout the county for the collecting of waste paper. At present plans are incomplete while awaiting a representative from the state committee. However, in the meantime bring your papers and magazines to the County building on Fairbanks street. And continue to take your waste fats to any grocery store. They pay you for it, both in cash and points.

More And More Sewers Needed In Red Cross Work

The sewing branch of the Red Cross Production department are trying to complete the 1943 quota of sewing, but so far have had very few orders of help. If two or three dozen women would come to the Red Cross room and either help there or head in 1917. Mr. Caudill was shopped and shipped so that it might help some of the people who are fighting our battles and/or at least helping us to fight them.

Red Cross Asks Huge Amount

One of the most difficult, costly and important foreign services of the American Red Cross is its service to prisoners of war. In general the conditions in German prison camps are reported to be fairly satisfactory and in accord with the terms of the Geneva Conventions. Parcels of food and clothing are distributed to prisoners in these camps. Japan is not a signer of the Geneva Convention. Early in the war the Japanese Government agreed to abide by the terms of the international agreement, but so far has refused either to permit inspection of prison camps or to admit to Japanese prisoners any neutral vessel carrying Red Cross goods. Small shipments of prisoner of war packages did reach Japan on the diplomatic route, but were held by the Japanese and helped to relieve the sufferings of our captured boys. The quality is, far from sufficient, and the Red Cross is continuing under great difficulties its efforts to obtain from the Japanese government some kind of an agreement whereby prisoners of war, in Japanese camps may receive the sort of treatment which is accorded to them by all civilized nations.

Breck Eaglets Win From St. Xavier By Top Heavy Score

After losing two heart-breakers, or perhaps we should say having two heart-breakers taken from them—Mayville by a 39-29 score and Ashland 41-38, the Breckins Eaglets of St. Xavier by a 56-27 count here Saturday night. This was the worst beating St. X has had this year. Breck flashed their best form of the season. St. X has lost 11 other games since the 13 played, out all by narrow margins, except Jeffersonville, Ind. when the score was 61-34. Breckinridge has played 20 games and lost 4. Breckinridge led from the start, scoring two crisp shots by Banks, and a side shot, and a free throw by Hutchinson to make the count before Fijan tallied a crisp for St. X. That was the closest the Tigers could get to the Eaglets. The score was 16-7 at the quarter and 22-12 at the half. During the third quarter, holding St. Xavier to 8. Hutchinson made 15 points; G. Allen, 5; Banks, 10; Budgeon, 9; Nickell, 10; Substitutes B. Allen made 1 point, and Robinson, 6.

Steve P. Caudill Called

Morehead suffered another great loss Sunday, when death took Steve P. Caudill, although death was not unexpected. He has been seriously ill since December 12, when he suffered a severe heart attack. He had not been well for two years previous, but did not feel that anything serious was the trouble. However, even since he was stricken in December, he has been bedfast. He was taken to the Lexington hospital but after two weeks was brought home. The immediate cause of his death was cirrhosis of the liver. Stephen P. Caudill was born in Owsley county, Ky., on November 1, 1879, the son of Alfred W. Caudill and Jane Caudill. On September 8, 1905, he was married to Miss Minnie Cecil. They came to Morehead the work home, in a very hard short time, all could be completed and shipped so that it might help some of the people who are fighting our battles and/or at least helping us to fight them.

The Legion Auxiliary have taken Thursday as their day, but they need more helpers, and you don't have to belong to the Auxiliary to help. Just come in and volunteer and see how quickly they will give you some work. The ladies of the Baptist church were also at the room on Friday. They also need helpers and you don't have to be a Baptist to assist with their work. Their work is so important and so good. We need other sewers for other days, too.

The naming of Bob Coleman to manage the Eastern Braves for the 1944 season came as an upset to a good many baseball followers.

Navy Offers Commissions To Men Between 35-38

"An urgent need for General Duty Officers has prompted the Navy to consider commission applications of exceptionally qualified men between the ages of 35 and 38." Lt. Comd. Hugh MacMillan, Officer in Charge of the St. Louis Officer of Naval Officer Procurement, announced today. Heretofore, only men between 19 and 35 years of age were considered for General Duty commissions.

Commissioner MacMillan emphasized, however, that any man past 35 who wishes to be considered must be particularly outstanding and able to meet every other professional, physical and educational requirement for the General Duty classification. This includes at least two years successful college work and five years progressively successful business or professional experience.

Physically, a candidate must be of normal good health, with an acuity of 15-20 uncorrected vision in each eye.
Further information regarding applications for Navy commissions may be obtained at the Office of Naval Officer Procurement, Missouri Pacific Building, St. Louis 3, Missouri.

Red Cross

Part of every Rowan County dollar contributed in March to the Red Cross War Fund Drive will help with service to prisoners, part will help to entertain our fighters, part will go toward medical, surgical and drug supplies, and part will help to maintain the many vital services of the Rowan County Chapter to people of this region and their relatives in uniform.

USO Visitors

The entertainment was varied and informal just as it is during any regular party for our sailors. Dancing, card games, bowling, pool, ping pong and general conversation were under way at all hours.

Bert Childers, one of the best farmers in our county, was looking a little worried.
"Best hired man I ever had has just been drafted, Joe."
"Goeh, Bert—and with both sons in the service. What do you figure you'll do?"
"Well, I'll tell you. We farmers got together and talked things over. Some have more equipment than man—and vice versa. So we worked out a plan for swapping men for machinery and machinery for team. I reckon we'll make it all right—we always have!"

The Court of Honor will be held on Thursday, March 16, at 7:30 p. m. at the Methodist Church. A special program is being prepared.

A number of Scouts are to be promoted at this time and the families and friends are invited to be present.

One of the activities the Scouts are interested in, is the purchase of a camp on North Fork.

The Scouts sold 33,400 worth of War Bonds in the 4th War Loan Drive just closed.

tents, so you know about what it is like. Other soldiers that have only been over here two or three months and been so where but here in England, get to stay in hotels and private homes and other good places. I think we are the ones that should have the good places to stay in. Out the Army does funny things. I guess they know what is best. I had a 7-day leave about two weeks ago and went back to Scotland. I saw a lot of friends I met while I was there before. It was something like going home on a leave. When I come home I want to have a piece of paper saying that (Harry Clark) has been discharged from the United States Army. That will be the happiest day of my life. I see Vancouver everyday now. Sure hope George gets here soon. It has been a long time since I saw him. How do the kids like their new home? I hope they like out there and I hope you both like it too. Maybe it won't be too awful long until I'll be there with you all. Well news is scarce. I had better close for this time. I'll write again soon. Tell everybody hello and I would love to see them.

Dear Mom:
I hope all is well there this morning. I am OK, as usual. It's about 8 o'clock and the sun is shining bright, some of the boys have already gone to church. The boys here are a fine lot, but nothing like the Paratroopers. I don't think I ever lived with a finer group than they, they are better buddies than even the air corps.

In the troop every man has a job to do and it is the same—no one gets by easy, we all jumped.

This letter is from Private Leroy Clifton Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hall, Morehead, Ky., Route 1.

EROGY.
I think the war will be over this year. I mean we soldiers think so. Do you all hear from R. and A. very often? I wrote to them when I was in Georgia. I don't do much any more. I attend a Specialized Training School—we study martial law, maps and news bulletins. I am not attached to any company, but after tomorrow I will stay with the Anti-Tank Co. just for rations and quarters. There is a "Spic" playing his Gee-tar and I can't see how to think. Excuse mistakes. Love to all.

WAR BONDS to Have and to Hold

AN AMERICAN

By Bush Taylor
I've been accused of using my friends for copy material, and told that no conversation is safe from my pencil.

Therefore, I don't apologize for retelling another conversation. The other evening I was listening to a group of men talking about various things when, across their theories, came the words of the oldest of the group, who up to then had been silent.

"You talk about the problems of Europe being reflected here," he said. "I want to tell you this. I've read some of the vicious scurrilous, smutty, un-American material that is the rounds today. It's disgusting. I've read it only because I had to in my work. But I tell you this, no American who is worthy of the name, (and I hold that most Americans care as much for democracy as I do), no decent American would give house room to it. Let alone read the stuff, some of which is anti-Semitic, some of which is anti-Catholic and all of which is plain anti-Christian. Decent people don't read or believe that kind of thing.

You can't live in America without knowing that it is all lies. Nobody is fooled by it—and only the vicious will lend an ear to it."

He went on to say, "I have lived in this town my entire life time. Many of those I know as boys are dead. I've outlived my years—but those I used to know, those I've always known, have come from all sorts of homes—their parents spoke English with different accents, we went to different churches—but rich or poor, first or sixth generations here, Protestant, Catholic or Jew—we were all Americans—and we were friends. We knew each other. We understood each other—and it's hard to dislike a man when you really know him."

"This country has given me many opportunities. Some I've used wisely. Others not so well. I've had a chance to work at the work I enjoyed. I've prospered and been honored by my fellow citizens. But others with different backgrounds than mine have done the same or better. They are still my friends, my fellow Americans. And it is as Americans that I think of them! I do not narrow them down to any group either of class or creed. And I hold that what I do, any real American will do if he gives any real thought to the matter—as I have. Don't talk to me of any European problems being reflected over here! Such lamens are plain un-American; and I, together with all real Americans, will have no part in them."

to be marketed. A first lien security is required on crops to be financed and livestock or poultry and its increases. These loans will be made to farmers whose resources are not ample to enable them to obtain credit on a reasonable basis from other sources.

What Will Bring Industries To Kentucky?

ONE newspaper in Kentucky would have you believe all that is necessary to get industries to come to Kentucky is to have electric power. IF ELECTRICITY WERE FREE TO INDUSTRIES, THIS ALONE WOULD NOT CAUSE THEM TO SELECT KENTUCKY IN PREFERENCE TO SOME OTHER STATE.

Why is this statement true? Because the cost of electricity is one of the minor costs in manufacturing most products. A report by the United States Bureau of Census shows that the cost of electricity in the average manufactured article is less than one cent for every dollar's worth of goods produced.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Cost. Items include Materials and Containers, Wages and salaries, Taxes, overhead expense and profit, Fuel, Commission and contract work, Electric power.

From this you can see that the other items of cost far outweigh the cost of electricity, and that a slight reduction in these would more than offset the entire power expense. For instance, a saving of 10% on the cost of materials and containers would pay for the electric power used.

Electric rates of business and industry tax paying utilities are not keeping industries out of Kentucky.

Our largest industrial areas—Detroit, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Louisville, Akron, Cleveland, Buffalo, etc.—are served by business managed, tax paying utilities—not by subsidized government power.

Every One in Rowan County will want A Frozen Food Locker
Do you need a locker? If so, you must sign your application and deposit for it. There is no other way to get one. The Government has made that ruling.
Your application and deposit must be on file at the Bank to prove that Morehead and the community needs the system. Here's what a Modern Food Locker will mean to you:
80 per cent. less labor is required than in canning and preserving and you have no failures.
You can have fresh strawberries, blackberries, raspberries, fresh lima beans, string beans and your fresh corn on the cob any time of the year. When your spring chickens are ready for broilers or frying, you can dress them, saving on your feed bill, and put them in the Locker, and you can have spring chickens any time you wish. You can butcher any time that is convenient for you, winter or summer, and eliminate your chances of spoiling your meat by the weather changes.
Preserve the full flavor and vitamin content of YOUR OWN HOME PRODUCED vegetables, fruits and meats the most modern way.
QUICK FREEZE
Authorities agree that food retains much higher nutritive value when QUICK FROZEN, properly stored than when home canned or preserved. The result is increased energy, vitality and good health. A Locker will hold approximately 300 pounds of food—a hog, one half of a baby beef, one hundred spring chickens or approximately the same amount of fruit or vegetables.
You can restock as you need it. The average locker room saves upward of $100 per year. Ask anyone who uses them. Do not put off until too late and then wish you had rented one. Here's the price on the two types:
DOOR TYPE $12.00 Per Year
DRAWER TYPE $15.00 Per Year

BLACK SOMBROERO by CLIFFORD KNIGHT

Elsa Chatfield, Hollywood artist, is disheartened by her Aunt Kitty, who died from an overdose of morphine. Her lover, Barry Madison, seems, go to Mazatlan, Mexico, to save what they believe to be Elsa Chatfield's murderer. The arriving they find that Elsa's party had preceded them by plane.

CHAPTER XIV

I saw the black, wicked plot emerge through the white shirt on his back, and then instantly in one mighty thrashing of foam, Elsa's surface floated upon the creek weapon, swordfish and all sank below into the depths of the sea.

We stared horrified from the rocks to the launch at the spot where they sank. For some moments huge billowing masses of bubbles streaked with blood came boiling up, and then ceased, and the dancing, sparkling waters of a blue sea held no sign of what had happened.

Rogers accompanied Dwight and Reed Barton that afternoon when they went solemnly into the launch to bring the news. The rest of us were purposely occupied with getting the launch stowed on deck and were, of course, returning immediately to Mazatlan. Dwight came out at last, followed by Rogers and Reed Barton. The three looked miserably forward to the bridge.

"Barb took this very hard," Rogers commented as he went to a requisitor report. "In fact, she went to pieces. It was all that Margaret and Elsa could do to quit the launch and have a sleeping powder, and she'll probably soon be asleep."

"We came abreast the harbor entrance, and something was wrong with the swell. It started to roll in the long swell. It was quite obvious, now that I had learned to recognize his mood."

"Barb," he said speculatively, "could this afternoon's tragedy have been entirely an accident to you think?"

"It couldn't have been anything else. An accident, you know, may have many purely coincidental factors in it, but they all click in sequence. That's what constitutes an accident. What do you think?"

INDIGESTION

It is only natural when the stomach is upset—nausea, vomiting, pain—to blame the symptoms on food very recently eaten. While this is true in some cases, the stomach is upset usually because something about the stomach and out of the intestine—nausea and vomiting.

These months ago I spoke of the results of an investigation of the causes of indigestion recorded in the New England Medical Journal. A chart showed the causes of indigestion in 2,543 cases accompanied the article.

The symptoms complained of were: loss of appetite, gas distention—coming up through the mouth and going down and out of the intestine—nausea and vomiting.

An interesting point shown by the above figures is that 25 per cent of the cases in which indigestion was not caused by any disease or malformation of the stomach or intestine but by mental and emotional disturbance.

The lesson learned from this investigation is that when any of the above symptoms are present in stomach, lack of appetite, excessive amount of gas, nausea, vomiting, occur at all regularly, a certain amount of physical check should be made to reveal that no organic disease or condition is causing the symptoms. The very best method for this is to consult a physician who can examine the organs of the stomach.

Lesson for March 5

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts are: Jesus Christ, the Son of God. Jesus Christ, the Son of God. Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

God has a plan, and even now when men were to have turned out of order into chaos, we know that God is working out His purpose. The important thing is that plan of God for Christ. His second coming.

There have always been such false leaders who for the prominence or false ambition of the prophet.

Christ warns believers that before the end of the age there will be world-wide wars, earthquakes, and famines. These are to be expected, and will come.

Preach the gospel! That is our first and most important business. We are to be evangelized before the end came.

That is our responsibility—to see to it that every nation has the opportunity to hear the blessed gospel message.

There should be a revival of interest in the work of missions. We know that many who believe that at the close of this war almost the entire world will be open for Christ.

SPARKY WATTS

By BOODY ROGERS

PETER RABBIT didn't believe that the Merry Little Breezes had told the truth when they said that they had found flowers in-bloom. Not that he thought they had deliberately told an untruth. No, indeed. He didn't think that. He thought that they either were just trying to tease him or that they had been mistaken. But he couldn't get rid of the thought that perhaps they had seen something that he hadn't seen, and nothing upsets Peter more than the thought that others know more than he does about what is going on in the Green Forest and on the Green Meadows. The Merry Little Breezes had told Peter to use his eyes. Just as if Peter isn't forever using his eyes. You know how curious he is. Peter felt satisfied that there were no signs of spring in the Old Briar Patch. And there certainly were none on the Green Meadows for these still were covered with snow.

Then Peter made up his mind to visit the Green Forest just to make sure that he had missed nothing there. "They're just fooling or dreaming or simply lying," he mused, so he scampered about through the Green Forest. Nowhere could he find the least sign of spring in the Meadows Spring. There was snow everywhere. Suddenly an idea popped into his head. "If they really saw any flowers, it must be that they saw them through the window of Farmer Brown's house." A few minutes later Peter came to the part of the Green Forest where Lightfoot the Deer had spent the winter. It was quite sheltered there—one of the warmest spots in all the Green Forest. In places it was swampy. You know, a swampy place is where the ground always is very wet. In places the water had disappeared, and in one of these

Crabtree's Idea Might Have Serious Drawback

Old man Crabtree had become a chronic case of "determined to be sick" and had been visiting his doctor, young Johnyba, with talk of being bedridden for life, death, funerals, etc.

"Well, Mr. Crabtree," the young doctor replied, "it may be all right, but your wife may complain of your leaving ashes around!"

TAKE SHORTAGES IN YOUR STRIDE

by Nancy Turner

This war is teaching us Americans a lot of things—to appreciate our country more than we ever did on days of peace, to walk miles and like it, to be almost as frugal as your pioneer ancestors, and to enjoy some of the good old fashioned foods of an earlier, heartier day. Such simple combinations as baked beans and frankfurters, codfish cakes and cole slaw, and bacon and eggs with French fried potatoes are appearing more and more frequently on our tables. And if they're properly prepared and teamed up with good, cool beer they're quite good enough for company as well as for "just the family."

Of course it's only human to look back with longing to the time when the whole world was at our service and the only limitations we knew in planning a meal were our budget and the family's taste. Then we could sit down quietly and decide beforehand exactly what we were going to have for a day or a week—confident we could get it.

ration stamps and decide how many points we can afford to spend and after that find out what's available. Sometimes there isn't much or it isn't at all what we want. But a clever and patriotic woman takes these domestic disappointments in her stride and finds satisfaction in adapting herself to every situation. However, the average housewife clings steadfastly to the old standby that are still available and lets these wartime friends help her out of many an emergency.

Beer is one of these friends, and it's a good idea to keep a supply on hand so that when your grocer or meat man hasn't all the items you want you can bolster up your meal with this hearty, old-time beverage that's always popular with men. Keep only a few bottles in the refrigerator for immediate use, and store the rest under the sink as far out of the light as possible or down in the cellar. And remember, put the caps back on the bottles before you return them to the Matter of Life or Death

Thousands of men will come back from this war who would have died in any other. In this war 97.5% of the wounded live. The difference is magical—such magics as the sulfa drugs and blood plasma.

But these materials cannot work their magic till they get where they are needed. The bottleneck today is paperboard containers made from pulpwood. We thought we had plenty of pulpwood. But our vast supplies quickly vanished down the hungry throat of war, and now we are faced with a dangerous shortage.

Maximum production from pulp mills require more wood.

If you can cut more pulpwood, do it now.
