

MSU Faculty and Staff:

As our fall semester moves forward, the following are a few announcements and upcoming activities:

Upcoming University Dates/Events:

- September 15 – We will host the McBrayer Presidential Lectureship– at 1 pm in the ADUC ballrooms. This year’s distinguished speaker is the United States NASA administrator who will speak on NASA and space exploration. The event is free and open to the public.
- September 15-16 - This weekend is Family Weekend at MSU. We hope you can enjoy one of the many events offered or spend some time reaching out to a student or student group to make them feel welcome or to simply check on them.
- September 26 – Our Fall semester Campus Livestream to Employees will be at 3:30 pm and detail general Fall semester announcements, enrollment updates, and a presentation of the calendar year 2024 employee health insurance plans. A link to join the livestream will be in your mymoreheadstate portal the day of the event. We will also post the taped version in the portal a few days afterwards.
- October 5 - Fall Break for Students
- October 6 – Fall Break for Employees and Students
- October 30 – November 4 – Homecoming Week

A Thank You to:

- Dr. Sheriff Rashad and Makayla Ray for facilitating the State Academic Leadership Academy on our campus.

Many thanks,

Jay Morgan
President
