Driver Charged After . . .

Rowan Youth Killed In Automobile Accident

A 17-year-old Rowan County youth was killed about 10:45 p.m. Saturday in a single-car accident 5.3 miles north of Morehead on Little Perry Road off U.S. 60. The driver of the vehicle has been charged with involuntary manslaughter.

State Police reported that Vaughn Darwinn Thompson, 17, Rt. 6, Morehead, was dead on arrival at St. Claire Medical Center following the mishap. Charged with involuntary manslaughter was Wayne Mabry, 20, Rt. 3, Morehead.

Two other passengers in the car, Darrel Pelfrey, 16, and Michael Allen Puckett, 16, both of Rt. 3, Morehead, received minor injuries.

State Police at the Morehead Post reported that the vehicle was traveling south on Little Perry when the driver apparently lost control while entering a slight curve. The car ran off the west side of the highway, flipped over and came to rest on its top, officers said.

The investigating officers reported the 1962 Chevrolet was demolished.

A native of Fitch, Thompson was born Oct. 15, 1956, and was the son of Edall Thompson and the late Annary Burton Thompson. He was a member of Pine Grove Primitive Baptist Church, had attended Rowan County High School and resided all of his lifetime in Rowan County.

Surviving, in addition to his father, are a sister, Betty Joe Burton of Flemingsburg, five brothers, Ronnie Thompson of Rt. 2, Morehead; Darrell Thompson with the U.S. Army at Fort Knox, Eugene Thompson of Soldier, Don Thompson of Gary, Ind., and Lester Thompson of Mansfield, Ohio.

Funeral services were conducted at 11 a.m. Wednesday at Pine Grove Primitive Baptist Church by Elder William Littleton. Burial was in Estep Cemetery.

Funeral home was Bobby, Earl and Jimmy Butler, Ernie Stevens, James Dameron and Dale Davis.

Lane Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Burley Market Steady

The Kentucky burley market remained steady as sales were resumed Monday following a three weeks holiday recess.

The picture — The state-wide average Monday was $9.14, about the same as the December average. + The average for area markets Monday was — Morehead $9.58; Maysville $9.24; and Mt. Sterling $9.54.

Veteran warehousemen say that less than 20 percent of the total crop remains to be sold — the poundage not yet auctioned could be less than 15 percent.

Some markets are running out of tobacco and will necessarily curb sales to about two days a week. Many will soon be closing.

Meanwhile, authoritative sources in Washington advised this newspaper that the United States Department of Agriculture will increase 1974 quotas by 15 percent.

Further, any grower who did not market his poundage quota during this selling season will be permitted to increase his marketable burley this year in that amount, plus the 15 percent quota hike.

Due to extremely poor weather conditions most growers did not produce their full poundage quotas in 1973.

Practically no tobacco went to the government pool Monday, the same situation that has existed throughout this 'bullish' selling season.

When all the returns are in late this month with the final sale set at Lexington, the crop is expected to average around $94, about 5 percent more than had been forecast. Growers are obviously satisfied with the price probably buoyed as Japan and West Germany purchased large quantities for export.

Oaths Taken By Rowan Officials

Rowan County Judge Ott Caldwell administered the oaths of office to 11 Rowan elected officials and 14 deputies and/or appointed officials during ceremonies at 10 a.m. Monday in the circuit court room of the courthouse.

Judge Caldwell was sworn in at 11 a.m. last Wednesday by Rowan Circuit Judge Caswell P. Lane of Mt. Sterling. The unannounced ceremony was held in Judge Caldwell's office.

Unlike the City's swearing in ceremony last Wednesday in the court room at City Hall when a capacity crowd was on hand, only a dozen or so persons turned out to witness the county officials taking their oaths.

The officials, repeating the oath after Judge Caldwell, swore to support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and to be faithful and true to the Commonwealth.

They also swore to faithfully execute, to the best of their ability, the offices they serve, according to the law.

The 11 elected officials who took office Monday were Jack Carter, sheriff, Eddie Thomas, coroner, Homer Goodman, deputy sheriff, Earl Withrow, deputy jailer, Lyda Carter, sheriff's office deputy; Darlene Adkins, county attorney's secretary; Pruda Shay, county treasurer; Edsel Anderson, jail master; and Clea Caldwell, county judge's secretary and judge pro tem.

The five deputies in the office of Rowan County Court Clerk Ottis Elam were administered an additional oath by Judge Caldwell about 10:30 a.m. Monday. The oath dealt specifically with the carrying out of the duties of the office of County Court Clerk, such as the recording of wills, deeds and mortgages and the safekeeping of all records.

Anderson, jailer; Ottis Elam, county court clerk; Harvey Pennington, county attorney; Jesse McDaniel, coroner; Bill Porter, property valuation administrator; and Marion "Smitty" Smith, constable.

Deputies and/or appointed officials sworn in were Judy Turner and Rita Porter, deputy property valuation administrators; Jean Bailey, Roberta Earley, Sherry Russell, Beverly Adkins and Ed Elam, deputy county court clerks; Homer Goodman, deputy sheriff; Earl Withrow, deputy jailer; Lyda Carter, sheriff's office deputy; Darlene Adkins, county attorney's secretary; Pruda Shay, county treasurer; Edsel Anderson, jail master; and Clea Caldwell, county judge's secretary and judge pro tem.

The five deputies in the office of Rowan County Court Clerk Ottis Elam were administered an additional oath by Judge Caldwell about 10:30 a.m. Monday. The oath dealt specifically with the carrying out of the duties of the office of County Court Clerk, such as the recording of wills, deeds and mortgages and the safekeeping of all records.

Improvements Planned For Local Airport

Bids for improvements to the Morehead-Rowan County Airport off U.S. 60 west near Farmers will be opened and read at 2 p.m. Friday, Jan. 18, at the Kentucky Division of Aeronautics, 421 Am Street, Frankfort.

The project calls for installation of a medium intensity runway lighting system, threshold lights, taxiway connector lights, control panel, visual approach slope indicators, rotating beacon, and a lighted wind cone.

David Perkins, a member of the Airport Board, said funds are being provided by the State for the improvements at the airport and that work should be underway before spring.

Dave Abern is chairman of the Air Board and other members, in addition to Perkins, are Dr. Bradley Clough, secretary-treasurer, Clifford Rigby, Don Greenhill and Roy Anderson.

Proudfoot Re-Elected School Board Chairman

Dr. Warren Proudfoot and Ben Lowe were unanimously re-elected chairman and vice-chairman, respectively, of the Rowan County Board of Education at its regular monthly meeting held Monday night. Other board members, all in attendance, are Gene White, Davis Kidd and Clyde White.

A lengthy discussion was held among the board and members of the audience concerning the vacant assistant principalship at Rowan County High and the vacant position of supervisor of instructions.

The board asked Supt. Clifford Cassidy to reconsider finding and recommending teachers, but he did not respond to the board's request. It was pointed out during the meeting that the position would be funded through the state's minimum foundation program as filed.

Thelma Kissick, who previously served as supervisor of instructions, retired last year, leaving the vacancy. In that capacity, she served as a consultant to teachers for the entire school system and aided in developing the curriculum for students.

The assistant principalship at Rowan County High became vacant last year when James O. Botts was named principal following the resignation of Principal Buford Risner. The board recommended to Cassidy last fall that the position be filled when the person was found; however, Dr. Proudfoot said the board has not recommended recently that an assistant principal be employed.

The board chairman said the system would not qualify for state funds for that position. He pointed out that operations have been smooth recently and that various teachers who don't have full schedules have been carrying out some of the duties of the assistant principal. Dr. Proudfoot said at present he did not feel the need for employing a person for the post.

The board took final action on a new policy (as recommended by the state) to allow extended employment for principals. The policy will permit principals with 25 or more teachers under their supervision to be employed for 12 months. Previously, the high school principals were employed for 10 months and elementary for 9 1/2 months.

For principals who have from 12 to 24 1/2 teachers under their supervision, the policy will allow them two additional months beyond the school year (9 1/2 months) rather than one additional month. About 56 percent of the funds for the additional employment

COMPLETES REORGANIZATION — Fayette Circuit Judge George E. Barker swears in Elijah M. Hogge of Morehead, left, as secretary of the new state Consumer Protection and Regulation Cabinet and James E. Gray as secretary of the Department of Transportation, the position vacated by Hogge. Governor Wendell H. Ford completed the reorganization of state government into seven program cabinets with the annual session of the new cabinet and its head from his hospital bed at St. Joseph Hospital in Lexington, where he was undergoing examinations for a back ailment. He was released from the hospital Saturday.

Police Court Jurors Named

Names of 27 persons were drawn from the jury pool in open court Monday for service at the Jan. 16 term of Morehead Police Court.

The jurors will serve at the trial of Commonwealth cases beginning at 9 a.m. They are AD Coleman, Walter Carr, Johnnie Coffey, Gladys Cox, Nelson Caudill, Pearl Brown, Earl Maddox, Winford Waltz, Lindsay Smedley, George Hill, Arlen Cox, Asa Stamper, F.M. Justice, John Hargis, Bill Calhoun, Kenneth VonCelle, Robert Fraley, Randy C. Wells, Earcel Barber, Mrs. Thelma Casper, Velva Caskey, Mrs. Homer Gregory, Hildreth Maggard, Warren Cooper, L.G. Bishop, and Lige Jones. Another name drawn was that of J.M. Butcher (deceased).

Most of the cases to be heard are in connection with public drunkenness and traffic violations.

THIEVES ENTER APARTMENT, TAKE TAPE PLAYER, EQUIPMENT.

The apartment of Louis Bailey, 210 Bridge Street, located in a concrete block building, was burglarized sometime over the weekend and the thieves made off with a quantity of goods.

Sgt. Richard Alderman of the Morehead Police Department and Bailey reported the break-in to police Saturday. Stolen from the apartment were a tape player, speaker, turn table, head phones and large amplifier. No arrests have been made.

Claig Sprout . . . . . SEZ

DEAR EDITOR: There are a great many self-acclaimed experts who predict the future. But, through the years I have found the most reliable to be Roger Babson and I was happy that his forecasts for the coming year were printed in the last issue of your good paper.

I believe that Mr. Babson is more accurate because he relies on past history and the Bible. He is also devout and sincere in his lifelong expressed feeling that everything is ruled by our Lord from above; and our destinies are factually decided by Him.

I read Babson's forecasts three times in your paper, and his report was the most heartening thing I have perused during these troubled and uncertain times. Some examples of the Babson report —

+ Inflation will level off for the year at six percent. I had surmised it much higher and I am hopeful that Mr. Babson is correct and I am wrong.

+ Interest rates have peaked and will decline. My comment on that is the money interests, like all big business, went plumb hog wild during the last half of 1973. Interest rates have no way to go but down, and I am hopeful the day will return when a newly married couple can see a way to own their home.

This is very good, and should be heartening news to businesses, especially retail merchants, who charge an honest and fair profit without conning the customer.

And, in the final analysis, dear editor, the people are taking everything the politicians hand out with grains of salt. About the only special interest groups can be stopped is by the people who have lost faith in their government at almost all levels. The politicians are very sensitive to public sentiment, and they are finding out the average wage earner, farmer and small businessman are not so dumb as gullible as they thought we are. The carpetbagger politicians have pulled the wool over our eyes so much that we're starting to awaken. I have written that 1974 will be the "year of decision" in the United States, but only the people have the power to start setting things aright.

It is my conclusion that the average citizen is awaking while other politicians are shaking somewhat in their tarnished boots. Together we can return this nation to government by, for and of the people . . . and, I believe, the average citizen gets the better off we all are.

YOURS TRULY, CLAI GSPROUT

P.S. If Mr. Nixon would permit the Justice Department to start bringing the evidence before federal grand juries about all the violations by big business and special interests of the anti-trust laws, and the guilty, all multimillionaires, placed behind bars where they rightfully belong, then 1974 could be one of the best years in modern history.

First Session Of New M'head Council Brief

With a brisk tap of the gavel on the glass top desk in the court room of Morehead's City Hall, the City's new Mayor, C.B. Cornett, opened his first session of City Council on Monday night.

There was no doubt the briefest Council meeting in the history of Morehead, being adjourned within 10 minutes. The meeting was unusual in another respect — every seat was taken and many persons were standing. Anticipation, enthusiasm and tension might well describe the facial expressions of many of those on hand prior to the start of the session. However, the expressions changed to disbelief and shock when the meeting concluded so quickly. One person commented following the meeting, "I can't believe it, I thought this would be an all-night session." Another said, "Wow, sure was a bugge."

What a number of residents appeared unaware of was that it wasn't a regularly scheduled Council meeting. Setting the regular meeting time was one of two items which comprised the agenda for the session Monday night.

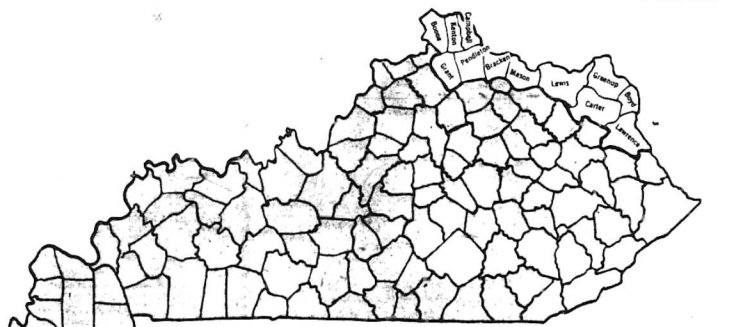

Mayor Cornett announced at the outset of the meeting that an ordinance had been drafted regarding the regular meetings of Council. The ordinance, read by the mayor and adopted unanimously, stated that the regular monthly meeting of City Council will be held at Morehead City Hall at 7:30 p.m. on the second Monday of each month and that no notice be necessary or required to the public.

All But 12 Of Kentucky's 120 Counties On The Same Time

Heretofore Kentucky has been in two time belts with counties east of Louisville and Elizabethtown in the eastern belt, and the western half of the state in the central zone. As the nation adopted year-around daylight time Sunday morning, all of Kentucky with the exception of the 12 counties that are either eastern standard or central daylight. The 12 counties —

Lawrence, Boyd, Carter, Greenup, Boone, Mason, Bracken, Henderson, Grant, Campbell, Kenton and Lewis — will be one hour faster than the rest of the state. Gov. Wendell Ford requested Kentucky be divided this way, following his personal survey. Readers should clip this map as there will necessarily be some confusion over time since some of the 12 counties are in this immediate area.

The board chairman advised that thermostats in the schools have been lowered, in accordance with a recommendation by the state. This was done in lieu of the energy crisis. The board agreed on a policy limiting the number of school buses traveling to athletic events in which the high school participate to one. No buses will be provided for extra-curricular activities. This, too, is being done due to the fuel crisis, according to Dr. Proudfoot.

West Liberty Banks Continue Bitter Competition Status

The financial feud between the Stacy family in Morgan County showed at the end of the year that a new bank founded and headed by Senator Joe Stacy (Bank of the Mountains) is making some inroads into the long established bank (Commercial) headed by his mother, Mrs. Curtis (Maggie) Stacy. The Commercial Bank is still about seven times bigger. The Bank of the Mountains, opened last year, reported assets as of Dec. 31 of $2,234,878.18. The Commercial Bank reported assets of $15,965,038. The Bank of the Mountains was founded

Health Development Association Will Hold Open House

The Health Development Association of Northeastern Kentucky, Inc. (HDA) is holding an Open House on Sunday from 2-5 p.m. at its new office building located at 400 Flemingsburg Road, Morehead. HDA invites and welcomes all interested in health care in Northeastern Kentucky to the Open House. Refreshments will be served. The membership of the non-profit corporation is comprised of local citizens who are interested or involved in health care in 15 counties of Northeastern Kentucky. The Health Development Association works with local planners, the public, providers of health services, hospitals, political representatives and payors of health services to develop and implement innovative programs to improve the health system in the area. By communication with the community and coordination of efforts, the residents of Gateway, Buffalo Trace and Fivco areas can improve the accessibility of health care, recruit needed manpower, contain costs of both services and maintain or improve the quality of health care.

By Senator Stacy and associates after he "split" with his mother and other members of the pioneer Stacy family. Establishment of the new bank created state-wide publicity, and high interest in the West Liberty area.

Two Houses Destroyed By Fire In Week

Two houses in the county have been destroyed by fire since last Tuesday afternoon and Morehead firemen answered three other fire alarms during the week. The Sanford White residence on Island Key was destroyed about 11:45 a.m. Friday. Fire Chief Joe Mauk said six firemen and one unit responded to the alarm. The fire truck broke down en route to the scene and firemen continued on the fire but were unable to control it with a portable pump. At 7:24 p.m. Monday, firemen were summoned to Haldema where the residence of Junior Blevins was reported burning. Before firemen left the station, they were advised by a caller that the house was totally engulfed and there is no need to send fire equipment. A house owned by Billy Dailey and located on Ky. 32 near the R. L. Wells Lumber Company sustained minor damage about 12:30 last Tuesday afternoon. Chief Mauk said the truck left the station, but was called back after the fire was reported under control.

Firemen responded to a car wreck on Little Ferry about 11:30 p.m. Saturday. One of the passengers, Vaughn Thompson, 17, Rt. 1, Morehead, was killed in the mishap. The fire chief said firemen went to the scene "since the car overturned and could possibly have caught fire."

A "bell" reported a store and 100 ft. at 10:30 p.m. Sunday. Blaine on fire about 9:10 p.m. Sunday, however, the call turned out to be a false alarm. Chief Mauk said six men went to the location. The chief pointed out that false alarms carry a $150 fine and that local authorities are attempting to track down such callers. Chief Mauk said, "You may think it's funny, but on the other hand, their own home could catch fire and burn while fire trucks are en route to a false alarm."

Cucumbers
Elijah Cox, local manager for the cucumber station, has been advised that there will be a sizeable increase in cucumber prices this year. He reported the prices as No. 1, $12 per hundred; No. 2, $6 per hundred; No. 3, $4 per hundred; No. 4, $3 per hundred; and No. 5, $1 per hundred. This represents a 35 percent increase over 1973. Also, growers will be using an improved hybrid seed which will contain 85 percent hybrid seed and 15 percent pollinating. In test, we have been informed that a 25 percent increase in yield over the seed used last year will be achieved. Growers are predicting a good year for cucumbers if weather is favorable.

Conservation Essay, Poster Contest Winners Announced

Miss Belinda Barker, a junior at Rowan County High School, has been named winner in the 1973 Conservation Essay Contest. It was announced today by Leland Hall, chairman of the Board of Supervisors of the Rowan County Conservation District. Miss Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Barker of Morehead will receive a $25 savings bond for her entry. Her essay also will be judged in competition with the winners from the other 150 conservation districts in the state of Kentucky. State winners will be eligible for prizes that total $800 in U.S. Savings Bonds.

John Howard, a fifth grade student at University Breckridge School was named winner in the poster contest in the county-wide competition. Students from schools throughout the county participated in the contests through which they presented individual interpretations on the subject "Fish and Wildlife: What Can I Do?" Brian Huang, a sixth grader at University Breckridge, submitted the second-place entry in the county-wide essay contest. He will receive a certificate of merit and $15 from the Rowan Conservation District. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. William Huang of Morehead.

William Michael Littleton, an eighth grade student at Elliottville School, will receive $5 for his essay competition and will receive $5 from the district. William Michael Spurlock, seventh grader at Elliottville School, will receive $5 for having the best entry from the seventh grade.

Prizes to be awarded to poster entries in the county-wide contest include a $25 savings bond to John Howard for his first place entry. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ryan Howard of 15 Ward Oates Drive, Morehead. Nancy Gay Morris, fifth grade pupil at Elliottville School, won second prize in the poster contest and is recipient of a $15 prize. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Morris. For her third place entry in the poster contest, Kimberly Sue Fraley receives a $10 prize.

Chairman Hall expressed appreciation on behalf of the District Supervisors to the school officials, teachers and judges who worked to make the contests successful. Judges were Dan Brewer, manager of Minor Clark Fish Hatchery; Dave Percy of Kentucky Division of Forestry; Ken Wade of Kentucky State University Agriculture Department; Paul Mills and Adrian Razor of the Extension Office; and Doug Hatcher of the Soil Conservation Service. The contests were sponsored jointly by the Louisville Courier-Journal and Times and the Rowan Conservation District.

The ordinance stated that "special meetings of City Council may be called by the mayor, or in the absence of the mayor, by the mayor pro tem, or by any two members of City Council and that all special meetings of City Council shall require written notice of the time and place of said meetings to be mailed to the mayor and all members of Council not calling said meeting not less than five days prior to the date of said meeting, provided, however, that said notice may be waived in writing by the mayor or any member of City Council prior to, at, or after any special meeting and personal notice specifically objects to said meeting and the business transacted at said meeting and files such written objection with the City Clerk."

The only other action taken by Council was to purchase salt for the city streets. Mayor Corbett advised that salt was needed and could be bought for about $15 per ton at the highway department. The mayor recommended that the purchase be approved and Council voted unanimously in favor. Just prior to the conclusion of the meeting, Mayor Corbett said appointments of city officials would be done at a later date. Later date, noting that agreements had not been reached on all of the personnel.

The first regular meeting of Council will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday at City Hall. All members of Council were on hand for Monday's meeting. Les Casper, one of four new members, was sworn in by Mayor Corbett before the meeting was called to order. The other five members were sworn in last Wednesday morning by Rowan Circuit Judge Caswell P. Lane of Mt. Sterling. They are Eleanor Holloway, Marvin Moore and Ray Anderson, the new members, and Dr. John R. Duncan and Philip Lewis who were re-elected for another term.

Rowan County's Junior Miss In State Pageant

Miss Leslie Robin Engelhardt, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Douglas Engelhardt of Morehead is in Louisville today (Thursday) through Saturday competing in the Kentucky Junior Miss Pageant.

A student at University Breckridge, Miss Engelhardt was selected from 42 girls in the local Junior Miss contest to wear the title of Rowan County Junior Miss. While in Louisville, she will reside in a home selected for her by the state pageant personnel. Miss Engelhardt will spend the three days of the pageant competing with girls her own age from all over the state for the coveted title of Kentucky Junior Miss. Judging will be based on scholarship, poise and appearance, creative and performing arts, physical fitness and the judges' conference.

The local pageant was sponsored by the Morehead-Rowan County Jaycees and the Morehead-Rowan County Jayettes who are sponsoring Miss Engelhardt in the state pageant.

ROWAN HEALTH DEPARTMENT AWARDED $31,000 GRANT

The Rowan County Health Department has received a federal grant of $31,000 for a program to provide supplemental foods for infants and children through age four and pregnant women. Local growers interested in participating in the program should meet at the Health Department between 2 and 4 p.m. Monday, Jan. 14. The food will be purchased through local grocery stores.

Morgan Government Being Run Mostly By Young Citizens

Morgan County, a placid area rich in farming, has turned to youth for local governmental leadership. At a recent meeting of the county's young people, officials in the county's more than 100 year history.

15 officials sworn in, seven of them are in their 20s. Those under 30 sworn in were Mrs. Alice Franklin, 28, circuit clerk; Sam Long, 29, county clerk; Rogers Benton, 27, sheriff; Ernest Jenkins, 29, constable; Tom Hill, 28, magistrate in District 2; and Dan Gevedon, 28, magistrate in District 4. Others taking the oath of office were James Phlips, county judge; Curtis Proffit, jailer; William Holbrook, magistrate in District 1; Billy Ray Lewis, magistrate in District 3; Raymond Nickell, magistrate in District 5; Starting Potter, coroner; and Robert S. Hutchinson, commonwealth attorney.

DIVISION OF DRIVER LICENSING
FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY 40601
RENEWAL REMINDER

Dear Driver:

Your birthday is next month, and I remind you that your Kentucky driver's license must be renewed then. Your circuit court clerk's office will be happy to assist you and answer your questions - just follow the instructions printed on this notice and fill out your renewal form. Kentucky's highways have been busy and safe. The privilege of driving on them depends on your carefulness. Congratulations, and happy motoring!

BIRTHDAY CARD . . . Kentucky's licensed drivers will soon be receiving pre-computerized forms, like the one above, in the month prior to their birthmonth. Part of the computerization of the Commonwealth's licensing system, the new forms will give notice that the individual's license is ready to pick up at the office of his circuit clerk or other location marked on the form. The new system will eliminate the "temporary" license Kentuckians have received in the past. Officials caution that not receiving the above form does not relieve the driver's responsibility to renew his license every two years. Director of Driver Licensing F.E. Hodges said the state received the idea of the pre-renewal notices from some circuit clerks who had made them a practice in the past.

Ky. Has New Drivers License Renewal Plan

A computerized system to remind Kentucky drivers to renew their licenses on schedule is now being initiated. Under the new program, drivers will receive a pre-renewal notice from the state

Bureau of Vehicle Regulation's Division of Drivers Licensing during the month before their licenses are due to be renewed.

"It should be clearly understood, however," said Drivers Licensing Director Eugene Hodges, "that non-receipt of the pre-renewal notice will not be an excuse for a driver failing to renew his license during his birthmonth or alternate years as scheduled. An individual driving with an expired license will still be in violation of the law and subject to the same penalties as in the past."

Hodges said that beginning Feb. 1, 1974, new applicants who successfully pass the written and road tests will receive a preprinted permanent license instead of the temporary license issued in the past. Beginning in March 1974, pre-renewal notices will be mailed out to those license holders who have April as their birthmonth. In two year's time everyone in Kentucky will be included in the program because of Kentucky's two-year renewal policy.

The notice will inform the license holder that his license has been pre-printed and will be available upon presentation of the pre-renewal notice at the circuit court clerk's office during his birthmonth.

The new license will no longer have the license holder's address. Addresses on the license forms were often incorrect, said Hodges, because during the two years that the licenses were valid, the holders had moved to different addresses.

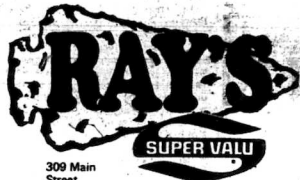

Check cashing using the new driver's license forms were often incorrect, officials say, because cashiers are more interested in the license number than the address. The cashier, by calling the Division of Drivers Licensing in Frankfort and giving the license number, will be able to obtain the needed information if a check is bad.

"The idea for the pre-renewal notice system," said Hodges, "came from several circuit court clerk's throughout the state who have been using it successfully in their counties for the past few years."

Coroner Correctly Forecasts Third Suicide At Maysville

Maysville was beset over the New Year holidays with three suicides, unprecedented in the community on the banks of the Ohio River. The sequence:

• Tammy Ellison, 11, shot herself after her pet cat was killed.

• A boy she played with, Michael LaForge, 13, who lived a block away, talked a great deal about her suicide, and at 11:43 p.m. Monday, or 20 minutes before New Year's eve, shot himself through the right temple with a gun owned by his mother.

• Following the two suicides Mason County Coroner James Brel was quoted in newspapers as saying that "suicides run in threes" and "there'll soon be another one." The Coroner was correct as Robert Leroy Hutchinson, 49, took his life early Wednesday morning by shooting himself with a 410 gauge shotgun. His body was found slumped in his car on Taylor Mill Road.

Young LaForge's father said he did not believe his son committed suicide because of the death of Tammy Ellison. He told authorities that Tammy's death worried the boy and he talked considerably about "how awful it was for Tammy to die that way." The LaForge boy played pool with his brother until an hour before he killed himself, and appeared to be in a normal frame of mind.

Police said the Ellison girl grieved continually after her cat was killed, and believe that this resulted in her suicide. Coroner Brel said that his investigation could fix no apparent reason why Hutchinson shot himself between 5:30 and 8:30 Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Howard Dies Sunday Following Extended Illness

Mrs. Mallie Howard, 89, Green Street, West Morehead, was dead on arrival at St. Claire Medical Center on Sunday. She died following an extended illness.

A native of Elliott County, she was born March 24, 1884, the daughter of the late Daniel and Cride Rose Lewis. She was preceded in death in 1961 by her husband, Dennis Howard. Mrs. Howard had lived all of her life in Elliott and Rowan counties.

Graveside funeral services were held Wednesday at Howard Cemetery, with Rev. Russell Reynolds officiating. Lane Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. Surviving are one daughter, Ruth Howard of Morehead, one son, Clace Howard of Morehead, and three grandchildren.

William McKenzie Claimed At 86; Services Tuesday

William Baldwin McKenzie, 86, Rt. 4, Morehead, died Sunday at St. Claire Medical Center following a long illness.

A native and lifelong resident of Rowan County, he was born June 23, 1887, and was the son of the late A. J. and Frances Cockran McKenzie. A member of the church of God, he was the husband of the late Jessie Alfrey.

Surviving are four sons, William A. McKenzie of Dayton, Ohio, Robert McKenzie of Salt Lick, Haskell McKenzie of Muncie, Ind., and the Rev. James McKenzie of Morehead; four daughters, Mrs. Gladys Walker, Mrs. Aileen Moorefield, Mrs. Luella Hall and Mrs. Betty Busby, all of Morehead; one brother, Hick McKenzie of Clearfield; two sisters, Mrs. Rosie Crosthwaite of Ashland, and Mrs. Daisy Evans of Clearfield; 22 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at Johnson Church of God by Rev. Scott Griffith. Burial was in New Alfrey Cemetery. Stucky Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Palbearers were Terry, Jimmie, Gary and Bobby McKenzie, Frances Hall and Danny McKinney.

Rowan Residents' Relative, Harvey Donahue, Dies

Harvey C. Donahue, 41, Mansfield, Ohio, who has numerous relatives in Rowan County, died in Ohio Sunday at midnight following an extended illness.

He was born May 18, 1932, at Paragon, the son of James M. Donahue of Rt. 1, Clearfield, and the late Jessie A. Donahue.

Surviving, in addition to his father and step-mother, Mrs. Mary Harlan Donahue, are his wife, Vivian Cline Donahue, a daughter, Ramona, and two sons, Harvey Glen and Jackie, all of Mansfield; one brother, Sylvan M. Donahue, and two sisters, Mrs. Lovell Watson and Mrs. Velma Alfrey, all of Mansfield, three half-brothers, Ray Gordon and Gary Donahue, a half-sister, Mrs. Arvilla Myrnhair, all of Rowan County.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the J. H. Fine Frock and Son Funeral Home in Mansfield.

VANCEBURG WOMAN KILLED AS CAR SLIPS, FLIPS

A Lewis County woman was killed on New Year's Day when her car drove off Ky. 10 near Vanceburg, flipped, and landed on top of her.

Mrs. Lois Reeder, 23, of Vanceburg, was pronounced dead on arrival at Scioto Memorial Hospital, Portsmouth, O., State Police dispatcher Dwight Clark said. Thomas Edwin Reeder, 23, husband of the victim, was treated at Mercy Memorial Hospital, Portsmouth, O., for a broken leg and jaw.

Mrs. Reeder was driving the car west on Ky. 10 three miles east of Firebrick, when the car plunged off the road, Clark said. The accident occurred at 6:15 a.m.

Both occupants of the car were thrown from the vehicle.

Mrs. Conley, 59, Taken By Death; Rites Wednesday

Mrs. Marjorie Lillian Conley, 59, Rt. 1, Morehead, died Sunday at St. Claire Medical Center. She suffered a long illness.

Born in Morgan County on Aug. 19, 1914, she was the daughter of Oscar and Lou Creta Bolin of West Liberty. She was a member of the Free Will Baptist Church and had resided in Morgan and Rowan counties all of her lifetime.

Surviving, in addition to her parents, are her husband, John Frank Conley, two sons, Oscar Eugene and Drexel Clay Conley, both of Dayton, Ohio; six daughters, Mrs. Virginia Nell Lambert and Mrs. Ina Cleo Lambert, both of Taylor, Mich.; Mrs. Ina Rose Elam of Springfield, Ohio; Mrs. Patricia Carol Johnson of Miamisboro, Ohio; Mrs. Betty Lou Tackett of Germantown, Ohio; and Mrs. Joyce Ray Willoughby of Jeffersonville, Ky.; two brothers, Ledford Bolin of West Liberty, and Lonnie Bolin of Dayton, Ohio; two sisters, Mrs. Crede Nichols and Mrs. Celia McIntosh, both of Jeffersonville, Ky.; 28 grandchildren, and 4 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the Free Will Baptist Church by Revs. Ted Green and H.G. Pratt. Burial was in Nichols Cemetery in Morgan County.

Palbearers were Asa Lambert, Bobby Johnson, Ray Elam, Ronald and Harvey Conley, and Elvis Tackett. Stucky Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Ann Landers

Copyright - Field Enterprises, Inc.

Dear Ann Landers: My wife and I have been married for 25 years. We slept together in a standard-size bed until five years ago. I moved to the spare room after being badgered with the following complaints: "Turn your head. You are breathing in my face." "Move on your side. Your snoring is keeping me awake." "Your feet are cold. Get them away." "Side one to your side of the bed. I'm about to fall off."

"Give me some covers. Last night I darn near froze to death and woke up with a sore throat."

"Stop moving. You've awakened me twice already."

I must say I have enjoyed sleeping in a bed myself these past five years. Yesterday my wife asked me to return to the old arrangement. What should I say?—New York Reader

Dear New York: Tell her it's a great place to live but you don't want to live there. Then prove it.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a 20-year-old girl who doesn't know how to write. I read those letters from women who are trying to lose weight. I'm 5'5", have weighed 100 pounds for the last four years, and would give anything if I could put on ten pounds. I've gone to three different doctors and they all say I'm in good health and not to worry. One doctor said I'd probably put on weight after I had a few babies. Another said it would surely happen after the menopause. But I don't want to wait that long. I want to look like a woman NOW.

Please check with some authorities and come up with some words of encouragement for this—Ray, Bone And Hank Of Hair

Dear Friend: Sorry, but Dr. Jean Mayer, a Harvard nutritionist and top authority in the field, says most thin people inherit their frames and it's hopeless to try to fatten them. They are simply lack the "storage vaults" for fat. These people often try to stuff themselves and sometimes get ill in the process but it doesn't do any good.

My advice to you, and to others who are fighting the same battle, is to concentrate on good posture, stay away from clinging fabrics and tight-fitting clothes, and don't hesitate to use a little padding here and there—especially there.

Publisher's

Day-by-day statements, and editorial observations of the publisher of this newspaper.

We have just returned from Florida the land of the six S's - sunshine, sand, surf, suds, sin and sex.

This gets around more than you think Publisher wrote about our intention of participating in each insofar as our financial and physical condition permitted.

We didn't lose at the horse races and our funds were ample. But, we're satisfied in a manner of speaking to report to our Minister that our physical properties (due mostly to advancing age) prevented us from fully enjoying all the six S's. But, like the knowledgeable reformed alcoholic we can have a good time without imbibing or becoming involved all the way.

Our desk is piled high and our Secretary must be dreading the forthcoming work load to answer all the mail, plus some contracts and other things that keeps this business going so that we can pay our considerable taxes to the good old U.S.A. where all men are created equal but taxed a danged sight differently and non-proportionately.

We'll be in Frankfort considerably for the next 2 1/2 months. The politicians have pre-filed or plan all kinds of bills that violate the freedoms of the press as supposedly guaranteed by the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

It seems that many government officials elective and appointive, at all levels, want to conduct their business in privacy - executive sessions, caucuses and the like. Even the school teachers have a right to their salaries would not appear in the newspaper.

This Watergate thing has made office holders extremely wary of the press, and many legislators evidently believe the best way to run the government is in secret and without letting you know where your tax dollars are spent.

We, like every newspaperman worth his salt, contend the public has the right to know and, we're fighting for any bill that opens all the news to you, the average citizen and taxpayer, and opposing any that suppresses your right to learn the truth and make your own analysis and conclusions.

As the 1974 President of the Kentucky Press Association, this Publisher will necessarily be cannon fodder, and the target of special interest groups, both governmental and for selfish gain.

During recent months we have been conversant with many people in high places, and are somewhat appalled at their lack of knowledge on how the state legislature operates, the pressures, how bills are passed and killed. Many didn't know whereof we spoke when the comment was "that one has plenty of turkey in it." A turkey bill is one that is backed by special interest groups, and their lobbyists are fortified with plenty of under the table funds.

On our return from Florida we came across an article in Sunday's Lexington Herald Leader authored by adult friend and friend, William Peoples. The actions of the 1974 legislature will govern your everyday life, and we pass this along to you because you should know something of the procedures and probabilities. Peoples writes:

The 1974 session of the Kentucky General Assembly, opening in Frankfort Tuesday, might turn out to be a more unpredictable affair than it seemed it would be a few months ago.

The energy shortage and the unsettled economic outlook caused by it have changed things.

And the unsettled political situation in Kentucky also has individuals on edge.

The turnaround in the economic climate is causing budget problems for Governor Ford and his administrators. It is inevitable that immediately presenting his budget, it now appears that the executive budget will not be submitted to the legislature until near Feb. 1.

Uncertainties

Because of uncertainties about the economy and revenue forecasts, the governor is expected to ask the General Assembly for extraordinary authority to alter the budget over the next two years.

And the legislature might balk at giving him this authority.

The confused political prospect, especially in the ranks of the dominant Democrats, could cause waws during the legislative session.

No one knows who the Democratic nominee for the U.S. Senate will be in 1974.

And the cold war between Governor Ford's forces and Lt. Gov. Julian Carroll, who will preside over the Senate, continues unabated.

Governor Ford leaves no doubt that he is opposed to Carroll running for governor in 1975. But Carroll, though he has made no formal declaration, is determined to seek the governorship.

So, political observers expect the administration to seize upon any opportunity that presents itself to embarrass the lieutenant governor during the legislative session.

And Carroll would not mind seeing the administration take a few during the session, but he will be loath to let himself be cast in the role of an anti-administration plotter.

Despite all of this, on the surface the Ford administration appears to be in a good position to work its will with the 1974 session.

Key Leadership

The governor has his coteries in key leadership posts in the House, and Senate.

He is mainly interested in getting his budget approved and in legislative sanction for his reorganization of state government, the first thoroughgoing reorganization since the mid-1930's.

From all indications, Ford will get both approved without too much trouble, although, as previously noted, he might encounter resistance to giving him authority to play around with the budget pretty much as he pleases over the next two years.

Look for some questioning of the reorganization.

There are those who are critical of it on the ground that it creates another layer of bureaucracy between the operating department heads and the governor's office.

And there are special interest groups, in and out of state government, that are unhappy about what has happened to this department or that agency.

But in the end, the reorganization is likely to win legislative approval.

Emotional Issues

The 1974 session will not lack emotional issues. Ironically, the two that promise to cause the most sound and fury - abortion and restoration of the death penalty - are of little substance.

The abortion matter involves getting state law in conformance with a U.S. Supreme Court decision. Thus, the legislature is quite restricted in what it can do in this respect.

The same thing is true of the death-penalty issue. The legislature is restricted by a Supreme Court decision. Here the fight apparently will be over how far the legislature should go in restoring the death penalty without running afoul of the Supreme Court.

The daylight-time issue, a hardy perennial, is sure to crop up again. It seems, however, that it will boil down to whether to exempt the eastern time zone from daylight time for just the winter months or year-around.

Other Proposals

Some other proposals that will occupy the legislators include:

NO FAULT INSURANCE - The chances are good that some form of no-fault insurance bill will pass this time. The latest proposal is an optional form of no-fault, in which motorists retain the right to sue for damages. This would get around the constitutional problem. The question is how effective it would be in lowering premium costs.

CAMPAIGN FINANCING - No dramatic reforms are apt to emerge from the session. The pre-filed bill that would provide partial public financing of campaigns for governor and lieutenant governor is not given much chance of success. The question is whether the prospects are better for approval of a measure that would give the Kentucky Registry of Election Finance added enforcement and investigative powers and would lower reportable contributions from $500 to $100.

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE - The 1972 law requiring financial disclosures by public officials and candidates, including the legislature, is weak and ineffective. There is no real impetus visible for strengthening it. An interim legislative committee which took up the subject showed no inclination to make the law more meaningful. So don't expect anything important to be done in this area at the 1974 session.

BLACK LUNG COMPENSATION - The session is expected to make a stab at dealing with some of the complex issues surrounding this program for Kentucky coal miners. It might explore the question of how much of the cost of state black lung payments should be borne by coal miners, of placing limits on fees collected by attorneys for handling black lung claims and conflicting federal and state eligibility standards.

This by no means exhausts the list of issues that will come before the legislature. Some bills calling for legislative and congressional reapportionment will be dropped in the hopper, and they could cause problems.

New approaches to financing education and proposals involving educational organization in Kentucky are likely to be debated.

Don't be surprised if there are moves to further restrict strip-mining - and counter-moves to relax some existing restrictions. Moreover, it is quite possible that thunder will be generated in the legislative chambers over something that no one has yet anticipated.

Legislatures, like other institutions, can be overtaken by events.

Thirty-two years ago this week there was quite a ceremony in the courthouse at Morehead, and the author of this column was the emcee.

Bill Carter had been elected Sheriff, and some of his friends chipped in to buy him an expensive Sheriff's badge. The job of selecting the badge fell on this Publisher.

We searched policeman's supply catalogs and came up with the most expensive, a gold plated one, with the wording: "Sheriff, Rowan County Kentucky" underscored with an eagle's beak, and the inscription: "Bill Carter."

Bill's friends gathered at a local dispensary of beverages before the formal ceremony (Morehead was then wet) and we were all in a mellow mood.

The presentation speech had such phrases as, "a lifingon democrat" . . . "this man will make the best Sheriff-in-history" . . . "a friend to everybody" . . . "feared by criminals and gangsters and loved by dogs, women and children."

We then pinned the badge on the newly elected Sheriff. It weighed about a half-pound, and Bill's shirt sagged like a soiled diaper.

Sheriff (Bill) Carter wore the badge, proudly so, for about a week. Then, he was elected a smaller one, and traded the big badge for his office. We think he still has it.

At 10:15 Monday morning, Sheriff Bill Carter's son, Jack, was sworn in as the new high Sheriff of Rowan County, succeeding his father by 32 years. But, Sheriff Jack Carter didn't receive a big gold-plated badge like his father did.

The gasoline shortage may have revived an old play.

Two sheriff's deputies at Phoenix, Ariz said they spotted a car parked in an isolated area. A young couple sat inside, startled by the officer's flashlight.

"We ran out of gas," the deputies quoted the young man as saying.

"Do you believe him?" one officer asked the girl.

When she said yes, the deputies left.

Gov. Christopher S. Bond of Missouri, was asked how deep the snow was at the governor's mansion.

"One basset deep," he said.

Bond explained Monday that he put his year-old basset hound down, and the dog promptly disappeared under the snow.

"Maybe I ought to put a red flag on his tail," Bond said. Snowfall in central Missouri was listed Monday at 11.2 inches over a 24-hour period.

More than 6000 policemen in Bradford, Eng. were involved in an eight-week search for Edward Davis, an escaped convict. Davis was found in the public gallery of a local court listening to the trial of his grandmother - accused of drunken driving. He was disguised as a woman.

Even the dark cloud of the gasoline shortage has its silver lining, at least for Thelma Ruiz. The thief who stole her car in Arizona got only 75 miles before it ran out of gas and he had to leave it.

Portable outhouses used at construction sites have become victims of the energy shortage.

The Industrial Plastics Co. says it has stopped making the privies because styrene plastic used in their construction is hard to get.

George Mackie Jr., president of the company, says several other manufacturers have told him they have also stopped making them.

The keys to an old filing cabinet at the state reformatory in Oklahoma were lost and the warden, John Grider, had to open it. He decided to call on "local talent."

Billy Bouska, serving 10 years for burglary, was summoned to the warden's office. When the problem was explained, Bouska boasted: "I can open it with a hairpin."

But after 30 minutes of struggling, Bouska began to wonder. So did the warden.

"Aren't you a midnight burglar?" asked the warden. Bouska admitted he was. The warden snatched the keys. In seconds he slid the drawer open.

Motel manager Virgil Hunter of San Francisco was faced with a delicate problem because he found a $200 check in one of his rooms. Hunter said a couple checked into the room and stayed for three hours in the afternoon.

Later he found the check in the room with an accompanying letter from the Citizen's Life and Casualty Insurance Co. The letter said the payment was for the death of the woman's husband.

Hunter checked the register and the names did not jibe. He checked the address the couple used to register. It proved to be private. The manager said he would return the check when claimed by the woman. "I'm certain she'll know who she is," he said.

Charles Cavalier's parents must feel pretty young.

When a magazine for retired persons referred to those over 62 as "aged," Cavalier of Lake Tahoe, Calif. took pen in hand. He told the editor:

"I resent, and I'm sure others do, being classified as 'aged' just because I am over 62. I am 67 years old, run a $2 million business with 30 employees. I work seven days a week and average 10 hours a day."

"If you are not careful, my 82-year old dad or 91-year old mother will kick the hell out of you."

You can fiddle around with a lot of things with the American voter. But three things you can't fiddle around with his or her spouse, his beefsteak and the free use of his car. President Nixon has fiddled around with two of the three.

Our good housekeeper Katherine Fisher is in something of a dither over this time change. Katherine's home is located where Carter and Rowan Counties meet at U.S. 50. Her residence is in Rowan County, but her garden is in Carter. Rowan is on eastern standard time, Carter on eastern daylight. Katherine is keeping her docks on the slower (Rowan) time . . . We have read much about this time change and can't find anyone, anyhow or anywhere how it will conserve fuel or accomplish a hell in the conversation. In other words, this anything beneficial. In other words, this Publisher is again it . . . It's a sad world. Honeymoons have a way of ending, even for a Princess; and vacations are all too short even for a learned hard working newspaperman. Honesty is the best policy but a deplorably large number of people don't believe it's the best politics . . . During a lull in the conversation, which sometimes happens when no women are present, you might brightly remark that it takes 10 million honeypotes to weigh a ton . . . Whether you consider prices too low or too high depends on which side of the counter you're standing . . . Hypochondriacs have a longer life span than average. They are never well and rarely sick . . . Now that this Publisher is back to the salt mines we promise to dig out some good, juicy local incidents for this column. The big problem is that the best ones, mostly about sex, are just a little too much off color for even a liberal nudist . . . Our feet have been cold ever since we returned from Florida.

LITTLE HELPER . . . Mrs. Carolyn Pennington, Morehead senior at Morehead State University, gets help from her five-year-old daughter, Melody, as they registers for spring semester classes at MSU. The new term opened this week.

Revenue Sharing Checks Received By City, County

The City and County received federal revenue sharing checks Monday in a total sum of $77,016.

City Clerk Corene Castle said the city's check was for $23,825 and has been deposited in the special revenue sharing account.

The county check was in the amount of $53,191, according to County Treasurer Prada Shay who said that check has been deposited in the county's special account.

The total received by the municipality thus far through the federal revenue sharing program, which began in 1972, is $139,300. Of that amount, $40,900 has been donated to the Morehead-Rowan County Industrial Foundation, Inc. and $700 to the Morehead Child Care Center. The remainder of the city's funds has not been spent.

To date, the county has received about $25,000. Another $16,278 has been set aside for purchase of white gravel in the near future. Also budgeted is $48,444 for renovation and repair of county buildings.

Capping Ceremony For Nurses Slated

A capping ceremony for the Morehead State University nursing class of 1973 is set Sunday, Jan. 13, at 2 p.m. in the auditorium of B.F. Reed Hall.

MSU student nurse caps will be presented to 24 first-year students at the annual event sponsored by MSU's Department of Nursing and Allied Health.

Nursing faculty members will participate in the ceremony and the class of 1974 will assist at a reception for the new students. The ceremony is open to the public.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOL OFFERS TWO COURSES AT NIGHT

Evening classes in typing and shorthand will begin Jan. 15 at the Rowan County Area Vocational School in Morehead.

Classes will be held from 5:30 to 9:30 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday nights. The students must furnish their own texts and materials.

Courses run for 10 weeks for a total of 60 hours, and students will receive a certificate for completing a minimum of 48 hours of training.

That's using their heads. People in remote European villages have been known to sleep with their pillows under their feet instead of their heads, as the feet did more work.

Ford Approves NYC Project In 6 Area Counties

Governor Wendell H. Ford approved today the U.S. Department of Labor's approval of the extension of an out-of-school Neighborhood Youth Corps (NYC) project in Lewis, Greenup, Carter, Morgan and Elliott Counties, to provide work opportunities for 121 boys and girls from poverty level families.

Assistant Regional Director for Manpower William U. Norwood, Atlanta, said federal funds in the amount of $193,510 have been approved for the program.

Funded through June 30, 1974, the project is sponsored by the Northeast Kentucky Area Development Council, Olive Hill.

The Neighborhood Youth Corps, established in 1964 under the Economic Opportunity Act, is administered by the Kentucky Department for Human Resources. It has three main components: An in-school, a summer, and an out-of-school program. The in-school and summer programs provide youths with paid jobs and encourage them to continue their school enrollment. The out-of-school program offers remedial education, work experience and in army industries, skill training.

Music was presented by Mrs. Hedy Caldwell and Miss Teresa Brown, Mr. H.G. Pratt sang the "Lord's Prayer" and Miss Susan Abern and Miss Janie Stutz also sang. Miss Kathy Caudill kept the guest book. The bride is a graduate of Rowan County High and is employed at Citizens Bank. Mr. Alderman is attending Morehead State University and is employed at the Utility Plant Board.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Outsiders In Schoolyard

Fiddle, a high school dropout, liked to hang around his old alma mater, getting into various kinds of mischief. One day he was picked up by police on a charge of "loitering on school grounds." To Ed's surprise, he was let off. After all, wasn't the schoolyard a public place—free for all? But the court found him guilty as charged. As one judge put it: "Public school premises are not free for any and everyone, like a public street or public park. Public school premises are dedicated to the use of persons eligible to attend the schools, their officers, teachers, and employees. The presence of non-students, especially of troublemakers, have proved a serious hindrance to the proper functioning of the schools. The fact that the school is a public place does not alter the fact that the school is a place where the public has no right to be. The fact that the school is a public place does not alter the fact that the school is a place where the public has no right to be."

Man Burns To Death Thinking Wife In Bldg.

A 70 year old Hillsboro man, evidently thinking his wife was inside a burning nursing home, rushed inside the flaming building and was burned to death Friday.

The fire was in an 11 room frame farm home converted to a convalescent home about a year ago. The fire was detected at 1 a.m. and two persons were slightly injured.

George Graves Sr., 70, was burned to death after he entered the home, Fire Chief Robert Sowder said. His wife, One had been led to safety by Graves' son, operator of the home.

The elder Graves lived in a trailer at the rear of the home, Sowder said, and was awakened by his son Carl when the fire was discovered.

'Carl Graves' wife suffered a broken leg in a fall down some stairs and one of the patients at the home, Goble Graham, about 80, was cut when he jumped through a window, Sowder said.

Others escaping the blaze unharmed included a patient, Nellie Ishmael, about 81, and Faye Spurlock, an employee of the home, and Carl Graves' two children, Jimmy and Tommy, ages about 6 and 8.

The Hillsboro Fire Department and that of Flemingsburg, about 14 miles west of here, fought the fire for about four hours.

Flemingsburg Fire Chief Ernest Henderson said he felt the elder Graves "just got confused and went back into the building."

University Hosting Jazz Clinics For High School Groups

Thirty-five high school jazz groups are expected to participate Jan. 24 and 25 in a jazz clinic at Morehead State University.

The Cannonball Adderley Quintet will present a concert and serve as clinicians and adjudicators. The 8 p.m. concert at Wetherby Gymnasium on Jan. 24 is sponsored by the MSU Concert and Lecture Series. Tickets will be available at the door.

The clinic opens Thursday, Jan. 24 with registration at 7 a.m. in Baird Recital Hall. Performances by 20 high school jazz ensembles and a performance by the MSU Jazz Ensemble are on Thursday's schedule.

Performances by 15 other high school groups and the MSU Jazz Ensemble are on the agenda for Jan. 25. Clinic time with the members of the Adderley Quintet is slated that afternoon. An awards and honors concert is set for 4 p.m. in Baird Music Hall.

Members of the famed quintet are Julian Cannonball Adderley, alto saxophone, Nat Adderley, trumpet, Walter Booker, bass, Roy McCurdy, drums, and Hal Galper, electric piano.

Information about the clinic may be obtained from Walter Barr, MSU Department of Music, Morehead, Ky. 40351.

NEW AUTOMOBILE STOLEN WHILE PARKED AT COURTHOUSE

A 1974 Chevelle was stolen last Wednesday shortly after noon from in front of the Rowan County courthouse and still has not been recovered, according to Sgt. Richard Alderman of the Police Department.

Sgt. Alderman said the driver, Jim Nickell of Morehead, left the vehicle running while he went inside the courthouse to have it licensed. When he returned, the car was gone. Police said Nickell was in the process of purchasing the vehicle from Larry Fannin Chevrolet.

Thought For Food

Stuffed Peppers Originals
Cut a thin slice from the stem end of each of 6 large green peppers. Discard stem and finely chop trimmings (makes about 1/2 cup). Remove and discard seeds and membranes. In a large skillet heat 2 tablespoons oil. Add 1/2 cup chopped onion and chopped green pepper; saute 5 minutes. Add 1 pound ground lean beef, cook and stir until light brown. Remove from heat. Stir in 1/2 cup cooked long grain rice, 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese, 4 tea spoons of Worcestershire sauce and 1 1/2 teaspoons salt. Spoon mixture into peppers. Place 10 peppers in a buttered baking dish. Set aside. Combine baking dish, tomato sauce, 1/2 cup water and 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce. Pour around peppers. Bake, uncovered, in a preheated moderate oven (350° F.) 40 minutes or until peppers are tender. Bake or caramelize with tomato sauce in baking dish adding more water if necessary. Yields 6 portions.

After Three Wins . . . Brekinridge In First Place In Conference

The University Brekinridge Eagles have won three games in a row, taking over first place in the Eastern Kentucky Conference. Their record now stands at 6-4 overall, with an E.K.C. slate of 5-0.

Elliott County was the first to fall by a score of 70-61, as Bud Lucke and John Back scored 19 and 18 points. Two sophomores guards, Skipper Holley and Jimmy Morrison, added 11 and 10 points respectively. Louie Magda barely missed double figures by tossing in 9 points, while Keith Raines rounded out the scoring with 3.

Lucke also snarled 18 rebounds with Magda and Back collecting 10 and 9. The Eagles outshot the Lions 47 percent to 34 percent from the floor and 67 percent to 62 percent from the foul lines. The local boys also held the edge in rebounding 44 to 36.

West Carter proved to be more than their record indicated as they forced the game into overtime before the Eagles finally came away a 57-54 winner. John Back had one of his best efforts as he poured through 28 points and grabbed 13 rebounds for game honors in both categories. Jimmy Morrison was the only other Eagle in double figures with 14. Lucke 8, Holley 4, Raines 2, and Alfrey 1, rounded out the offensive parade.

On Friday night the Hornets of Salversville came to town sporting the area's top scorer in Jim Miles with a 25-plus point per game average. When the final horn sounded, Jimmy Morrison had held this leader to just 10 points, 15 below his average. Morrison also added 8 points of his own to go along with his superb defensive effort. Bud Lucke held his man Tony's points while he was contributing 16 points and 18 rebounds.

Holley played an outstanding game, handed out 5 assists, and scored 14 points. John Back also pitched in 14 points while Magda manged 4 points. Although the Eagles were outscored 40 to 39, the Hornets made 22 turnovers to only 8 for Breck. The final score of 66-46 indicated the defensive battle that took place.

Bud Lucke is currently shooting 90 percent from the foul line to put him in the top of the state in that category. He has a string of 21 straight and has not missed one in the last seven games.

The Eagles go on the road for games at Ezel on Thursday (tonight) and Raceland on Friday. The next home game is Tuesday with the reigning 16th region champ Boyd County. The game will start at 8 p.m.

LEADS CHEERS . . . Anxiously waiting for the shot to drop is Margie Cornett, this week's Cheerleader of the Week at University Brekinridge. Margie, a sophomore, is a first year varsity cheerleader. Key Club Sweetheart, and a member of the Beta Club. She is the daughter of Mayor and Mrs. C.B. Cornett.

PLAYER OF WEEK . . . Louis Magda, 6'5" junior center at University Brekinridge, who earned a starting position after the sixth game of the 1973-74 season, has been named Player of the Week at the school. Magda has a season high 22 rebounds against Fleming County. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Louis Magda. Coach Dennis rates him a potential Eagle great with his soft touch and rebounding skill.

M'head Romps Louisiana 96-70

With the final pre-conference warm-up behind them, the Morehead State University Eagles set their sights on the Ohio Valley Conference opener Saturday.

The Eagles, fresh off a 96-70 romp of Louisiana Tech, enter conference play with a four-game win streak and a 5-4 record.

"We showed signs of improvement in the win over Louisiana Tech," said MSU Head Coach Bill Harrell. "I was very pleased with our defensive showing and the play of our starters."

The Eagles led Tech 53-39 at halftime before shutting out the Bulldogs for the first six minutes of the second half to decide the issue. Senior forward Leonard Coulter led the Eagles in scoring with 24 points and grabbed 16 rebounds.

Senior guard-forward Eugene Lyons and junior forward Arch Johnson each contributed 21 points. Lyons became the 12th player in MSU history to score 1,000 points in a career when he copped a jump shot with 4:57 to go. Guard Howard Wallen and center Ted Hundley each had eight points.

MSU opens the OVC title race this weekend with games at defending champion Austin Peay on Saturday and at Murray State on Monday.

"It's a whole new season now," said Harrell. "What we did before doesn't matter. It's what we do in the next 14 games that will decide how successful our season will be."

The Eagles return home Jan. 19 to play Middle Tennessee in Wetherby Gymnasium.

MSU Jayvees Take 47-Point Win Over SCC

Larry Hudson, a 6-5 freshman forward from Carr Creek, scored 20 points Monday night to lead Morehead State University's junior varsity to a 47-70 basketball win over Southeastern Community College.

Five other MSU players hit in double figures — Mike Kelley, 16; David Glascock, 15; Winnie Hughes, 14; Ron Frederick, 13; and Stan Dixon, 13.

The Young Eagles took a 68-24 halftime lead and coasted for the victory. The team raised their record to 3-1.

MSU's Jayvees host Georgetown College's junior varsity team Jan. 19 at 5:30 p.m. in Wetherby Gymnasium.

Licenses Revoked From 2 In Area

Drivers licenses were revoked from two area drivers during the past two weeks according to the Traffic Safety Coordinating Committee in Frankfort that compiles the list of suspensions and revocations.

Those losing their licenses, the reason for suspension and the date through which it is effective were:

Carter County Huey Wayne Whotton, 21, Rt. 1, Olive Hill, false application other than court, July 5, 1974.

Lewis County Jeffery Clay Blevis, 19, Vanceburg, driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants, June 11, 1974.

How to buy a $439.95 refrigerator - and save $410 in the bargain

JOINS 1,000-POINT CLUB . . . Morehead State University guard-forward Eugene Lyons became the 12th member of MSU's 1,000-point club in the 96-70 win over Louisiana Tech Monday night.

Lyons, a senior from Pikeville, is tied for the 11th spot on the list with 1,001 points. Hecky Thompson also scored 1,001 points during his career from 1958 to 1961.

Rowan Vikings Bow To Montgomery 80-49

Rowan County High School's basketball Vikings didn't take long to show how much they miss the presence of injured Jerry Havenscraft as they returned to Morehead last Friday evening suffering from an 80-49 drubbing by Montgomery County.

The Vikings' tenacious defense and disciplined offense, which had carried Coach Zane Collins' team to an 8-2 pre-Christmas record, fell apart after the first half. Rowan County trailed their hosts by only 36-28 at intermission. But 25 second-half turnovers gave the fast-breaking Indians many easy baskets, and ineffective shooting. 18 to 26 added only 21 points to the Viking side of the scoreboard after halftime.

The Vikings' 6-4 junior Daryl Thompson, moved to the pivot position to replace Havenscraft, scored only 8 points, had 3 rebounds, and was in foul trouble most of the game. Randy Barker, also a 6-4 junior, took over Thompson's forward position and failed to produce, missing all five field goal attempts and grabbing 3 rebounds. Two 5-9 guards, Steve Hodges and Doug Phillips, led the Vikings in scoring with 13 points each. Hodges also led the team in rebounds with 7 and in turnovers with 8. The 6-0 sophomore reserve forward, Chuck Silvey, turned in his second straight impressive game, scoring 9 points.

The Indians placed four players in double figures. Guard Mike Gibbs had 23, center Tommie L. Salmon, 17, forward Greg Rogers, 16, and reserve forward Charles Oakley, 11. The 80 points total by Montgomery County is the highest registered against the Vikings in this season.

The local five plays a conference game with Menifee County here Friday, a team they defeated earlier in the season 91-27. The Vikings journey to Greenup County Saturday night to tackle the powerful Masters of Ramey Fletcher and play EKC opponent West Carter at Olive Hill next Tuesday.

LOWER SPEED LIMITS — The 1974 General Assembly is expected to pass a statute in compliance with the new federal law requiring 55 m.p.h. speed limits on all roads that now have higher limits. Gov. Wendell Ford has requested that the Bureau of Highways initiate "innovative ideas" for keeping the cost of new highway signs to a minimum.

your week ahead by DR. A.W. DAMIS

Forecast Period: January 13 to January 19

ARIES Mar. 21-Apr. 19
According to stellar patterns, most members of your sign will face problems with the opposite sex because of, or during, travel. The solution? Stick close to home base.

Taurus Apr. 20-May 20
A rather strange, hard to explain, portent shows in your chart. The color, red, in one form or another, will play an important role in this week's events.

GEMINI May 21-June 20
Too much self-analysis, lying to yourself in order to justify your motives, shows in this week's chart. Let the opposite sex make the first move.

MOONCHILD June 21-July 22
Given a fair set of circumstances, most members of your sign should tear off huge chunks of good luck. A calculated financial risk is recommended.

LEO July 23-Aug. 22
Someone who believes that a lie functions as well as the truth will attempt to deceive you. Remember, there's no protection or rules against treacherous "friends."

VIRGO Aug. 23-Sept. 22
Meet all appointments, scheduled. Any delay of your obligations might provoke stinging reprimands. Stay on top of the ball this week could be rewarding or disastrous.

LIBRA Sept. 23-Oct. 22
A member of the opposite sex, whose actions seem singularly pointless, should be studied. Why? Apparently, there are questionable motives beneath the veneer.

SCORPIO Oct. 23-Nov. 21
Checking into the incompetence that now exists among your associates, most assuredly will bring no disappointments this week. It's time to check your own shortcomings.

SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22-Dec. 21
There's excellent advice coming, by way of a letter, a phone call, through a casual conversation. It's a good time to listen intently, even, to gossip.

CAPRICORN Dec. 22-Jan. 19
A subtle chain of events, during this coming cycle, will stir new and daring ambitions in what department of life? Probably, romance or career.

AQUARIUS Jan. 20-Feb. 18
This week associates see you as being about as lameable as a fly. Try to be communicative with those who surround you, especially, your co-workers.

PISCES Feb. 19-Mar. 20
According to your chart, this week could be a replay of last week. It's highly probable, nonetheless, beyond your control will change your plans, radically.

SUPERMARKET DAMAGED... The Allen's IGA store on West Main Street was damaged about 3:15 p.m. Monday when a car driven by Nancy Baldrige of the CCC Trail struck the front of the building. On impact, two large sections of plate glass were shattered and a portion of the lower block wall caved in. Store owners Hubert and Bobby Allen said glass came flying into the building, but no one was injured. Ms. Baldrige told the owners that the accident occurred when the brakes on her car failed. She was not hurt.

Finding Security In Retirement

Now is the time for women to start thinking about retirement just happen. It requires meaning. For some it is past time. About 380,000 working women will retire in 1974. But are they prepared for it?

They can face the golden years happily if they have prepared well. Working women are supposed to be good savers and must be saving for retirement. But are women saving enough for their golden years?

Creeping inflation, with its devastating effect on low and lower middle income people - has a near fatal effect on fixed retirement incomes. And unless the time has saved and invested properly, she could be in for some sad days ahead.

Successful retirement - for both men and women, does not just happen. It requires meaning. The earlier working women start the better. The first step might be to seek counsel. For far too many women simply have not been taught or have not learned how to develop a wise program of saving and investing calculated to serve their own interests.

A recent survey of the savings and investment habits of working women in one area of the country showed that working women are not even keeping up with inflation in their savings and investments. For those working women who are years from retirement and now is the time to start planning.

Letters . . . to the editor

This newspaper welcomes letters, particularly on subjects of general, local, or area interest. Right is reserved to condense. No letters will be printed without author's signature and address.

The Editor

During the past several years we have had many highly qualified, honest and efficient Mayors for the City of Morehead - men who placed the welfare of the City above partisan politics. Among those I recall are Dr. H.L. Wilson, Harlan Blair, C.B. Daugherty, Warren Lappin, Eldon Evans, Noah Kennard, Watt Pritchard Sr., Clarence Allen and William H. Layne.

William H. Layne served longer as Mayor of Morehead than any other person within my knowledge. I have not always agreed with Bill Layne on many matters, but I do believe that he has been a good and outstanding Mayor for Morehead. I am sure that he has given more of his time and money to the benefit of all the citizens of Morehead than he has been compensated for either in the way of praise or credit for a job well done or a reasonable salary and full reimbursement of expenses incurred in the performance of his duties as Mayor.

I admire Bill Layne for having the courage to always place his candidacy for Mayor on a non-partisan basis. All citizens of Morehead should be much more interested in the ability and integrity of a candidate than in his or her partisan politics.

It seems a little peculiar that no group of citizens or civic organizations of the City of Morehead in recognition of Bill Layne's long and outstanding service to the citizens of Morehead have come forward with any testimonial dinners, awards, a new car (not a Cadillac) or some other method of showing appreciation for his long and honorable service to the citizens of Morehead.

We should be fair in our praise and recognition of good service rendered by our public servants. Everyone who is drawing a salary from public funds is a public servant and is subject to praise and criticism as justified by their deeds and acts.

I sincerely hope that our new Mayor will establish and maintain as good a record as Mayor as the former Mayors above mentioned. As a resident of the newly annexed area to the City of Morehead I shall most certainly be quite interested in when he will provide us with street lights, a sewer system and all the other benefits and advantages that other citizens of the former Morehead boundary enjoy.

DELTA GAS CLARIFIES INDUSTRY PROCEDURES

The Editor

We have published a legal notice regarding our natural gas service policy in your newspaper for three issues. We wish to call your attention to the fact that although we are not accepting applications from industries in the Columbia supplied areas, we have not placed such restrictions in the areas supplied by the Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company. We are still accepting applications from industries in any area supplied by Tennessee. These customers are being accepted if they have equipment rating in excess of 1,000,000 B.T.U. input provided that they accept service on an interruptible basis. In essence, this means that they must provide an alternate standby fuel to protect their best interests on very cold days.

We trust that this will clarify any misunderstanding, and if your readers should have any further questions, they should please contact us at their convenience.

THIS WEEK'S LETTER: Please help me with this problem I have. I'm 16 and I went out with this guy for a couple of months. He is very nice and I really like him. But we broke up for this reason: whenever we were together he would let him touch me and kiss me a lot. He says I do this because I don't like him, but that's not the reason. We haven't talked to each other in several months and I really miss him. Do you think I was wrong?

OUR REPLY: No, we think you were correct. As we said before, you have the right to set the limits. And that line this guy was giving you about "really not liking him" is just a line. You are lucky you didn't fall for it. If this is the reason he broke up with you, he had little respect for you and even less respect for himself. We suggest you forget about this guy and look for someone else.

Child Care Center Opens Jan. 21; Open House Set

The Morehead Child Care Center, Inc. will begin classes Monday, Jan. 21, offering non-profit community child care for all area preschool children over the age of three.

The center, located in Faith Presbyterian Church, has been organized by a group of local mothers with professional training in child care or related fields. It is governed by a Board of Directors elected from an associate membership. All parents of enrolled children and other interested persons will be encouraged to become associate members and share in the government of the center.

currently is provided for 20 children. Arrangements can be made for children to share one space with each during a few days a week instead of every day.

Open House Set

The center will have open house Saturday, Jan. 12, from 9 to 11 a.m. and from 1 to 2 p.m. for parents. All other interested persons are invited between 3 and 4 p.m.

Mrs. Ed Roby, a trained nursery school teacher, will serve as head teacher at the center. The assistant teacher will be Mrs. Andrew Martin.

Telephone enrollment on a first come, first serve basis will begin Friday (tomorrow). Interested parents should call Mrs. Roby between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m. After Jan. 21, applicants will be taken between 7 and 9 p.m. A child is eligible for enrollment after his sixth birthday and a waiting list will be maintained for those who have late birthdays. Car pools will be encouraged and transportation problems should be indicated when registering a child.

Initially, the center will offer half day care only due to the limitations of the location. It will have a three hour morning program from 8:30 to 11:30, offering planned activities and supervised play.

The center board proposes to open an additional center in the future which will offer all-day care and after-school care for approximately 20 children. Rental property along walking distance of Main Street, being sought by the board for this purpose. Parents who desire all-day care are encouraged to have their child's name recorded also so that demand can be measured and definite plans made.

Since the center seeks to serve the total community, it fosters understanding between various segments of the area. Several spaces have been reserved for children of working or student parents who can not afford to pay the fee. Parental fees will finance the center since no federal or state funds support the effort.

Morehead Child Care Center, Inc. has been organized to promote child care for the Morehead area. It encourages local citizens to support the construction of a community child care center designed for 44 children and located in the 52-unit housing project recently advertised for bids.

He is a proponent for more blacks specializing in fields of recreation to assist the ill and handicapped.

Rowan Soil Conservation

By Doug Hatchett, District Conservationist

"To meet the tremendous demand for food, Kentucky farmers are turning to the scientific soil survey to get the most production from their cropland," Glen Murray, State Conservationist for the U.S. Soil Conservation Service (SCS), said in Lexington today.

Murray said over one-half of the commonwealth has been surveyed. He said soil survey field work has been completed in 20 counties, underway in 13 additional counties, plus numerous local surveys.

Murray said a soil survey map lets the farmer read the land like a book. He said "some soils are ideal for one certain crop. Others are better left in grass or as a wetland. Some soils let the owner choose whether he wants pasture, trees, or crops."

Murray said there's a lot of soil information available to farmers and other land users. "Even where surveys are not yet completed, SCS — working through local conservation districts — often can provide soils data to anyone considering a change in land use," Murray said.

Murray said that even though farmers are the biggest group of users, soil surveys help engineers and urban land use planners determine proper drainage and locate the right site for buildings, highways, or other facility. A number of community developers in Kentucky have saved themselves considerable amounts of money in construction costs by using soils information.

The local District Conservationist, Doug Hatchett, reports that land users in Rowan County can obtain soil surveys and interpretations for any land area upon request to the Rowan County Conservation District. Hatchett stated that all field

Two Carter Brothers Found Dead; Woman Is Serious

Two Carter County brothers were killed and a rural Boyd County woman is in serious condition at King's Daughters' Hospital in Ashland as the result of carbon monoxide poisoning Sunday morning.

Yvonnah Jackson, 21, Rush, and Bobby Ray Evans, 28, and his brother, Eddie Gene Evans, 27, both of 2, Grayson were found dead at 11:50 a.m. Sunday in a far parked beside Mile Branch Road near Coalton in Boyd County. The brothers were reported dead at the scene, and Ms. Jackson was rushed to the Ashland hospital.

According to a spokesman for the Ashland Post of Kentucky State Police, a woman called to report the incident and requested an ambulance. Police said a residence was "evidently" nearby.

Boyd County Coroner Russell Compton said the deaths appeared to be accidental but a formal ruling would be made later this week.

Sgt. J.D. Boyle and Det. Sgt. E. W. Wilcox are conducting the investigation.

The Evans brothers were born in Carter County, sons of Mrs. Maggie Evans of Rt. 2, Grayson, and the late John Evans. Bobby Ray was born Jan. 2, 1945, and Eddie Gene on Dec. 18, 1946.

Surviving Bobby Ray, in addition to his mother, are his wife, Mrs. Wanda Evans, a son, Bobby Wayne Evans, at home, a daughter, Angela Rae Evans, at home, four brothers, Oran Evans of Mansfield, Ohio, Clayton Evans of Ashland, John Evans Jr. of Rt. 1, Grayson, and Wade Evans of Hitches; two sisters, Mrs. Deloris Davis of Grayson, and Mrs. Oakley Caudill of Mansfield.

Surviving Eddie Gene, in addition to his mother, brothers, and sisters, are his wife, Mrs. Bertha Evans, a son, Eddie Evans Jr.,

SUNDAY'S SERMON

Our Energy Crisis

We have had a sharp awakening during the past few months in this nation when we realized we, the wealthiest nation in the history of the world, are experiencing an energy crisis. Up until this time many of us never worried about where all the energy and power was coming from that runs this nation of ours. Many thought we were independent of the rest of the world, and some felt we could even be independent of God.

Our energy crisis might be just one way God is showing us that we must get back on the right track. He is making us aware of how really dependent we are on Him as our Provider. Too many people in the past have felt that our technology could solve any thing - that no matter what happened, we could solve it. Any thing, that is, except something we base to our existence that we don't usually give it a second thought - energy.

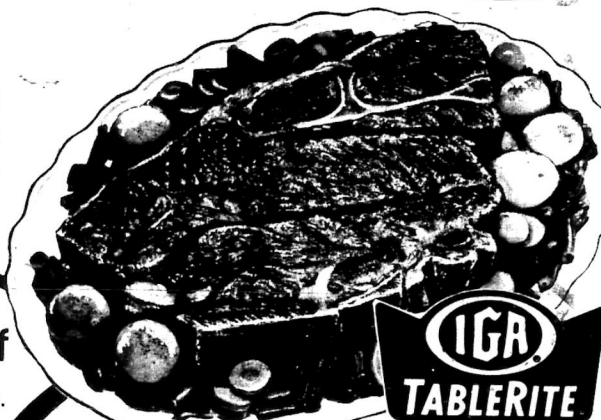

But now is a good time to think about it. Our greatness as a nation has come from the many blessings God has given us. But many have forgot about God and decided to "do their thing" with out giving God a second thought. God, however, has let us know it's time to get back to Him - the source of life and energy.
