Breck Failed In Tournament Play, But Team Gets Plaudits Of Louisville Hotel, Police

The Breckinridge Training School basketball team, rated as one of Kentucky's outstanding clubs this year, didn't win the state tournament at Louisville last week—in fact, they were grossly upset in the finals of the regional—but the Eagles may be well proud of one thing. They were one of the few teams at the state tournament which did not damage hotel rooms or commit the thousands and one misdemeanors which caused hoteliers, restaurants and the Louisville police department to wring their hands in desperation and want to ring the necks of some few thousand people-most of them "youngsters" who returned Kentucky's number 1 metropolis upside down.

The Breck team attended the state tournament with the expenses paid by a number of their local well-wishers. They were quartered at the Seebach Hotel, which appeared to be the hot-spot for noise, water fights and particularly, the Louisville police department. Those who pitched in to send the Breck lads to the state meet included Walter Carr, W. J. Sample, W. C. Crutcher, Jack West, C. B. Lane, Frank Laughlin, Otto Carter, Warren Shafer, Jack Helwig, Parnell Martindale, Hartley Hatton, Satch Meador, Ed Hays, Edna Thompson, Richard Montjoy, Noah Kennard, Bob Bishop and Bernie Elam.

Grand Jury Report

TO HON. W. BRIDGES WHITE, Judge of the Rowan Circuit Court, the Grand Jury reports for the March term of the Rowan Circuit Court as follows:

That we have investigated the conditions of the county with respect to any lawlessness that may exist and have had before our body one hundred and thirty-five witnesses. These witnesses have come from all parts of the county and we have returned indictments which set out circumstances and the evidence in each case. Violations of the law have been committed. We further report that we have returned for summons to issue for witnesses who should be called to appear. Whether or not they have been summoned, we do not have the records before us to indicate.

We have returned 26 indictments when these cases have been tried and adjudge in the Circuit Court that conditions in the county will be much improved. We have visited all of the county's places and we have found that they are in good condition. The officers seem to be doing their duty. We find the jail to be in good condition. We recommend that it have a coat of paint on the inside and there should be a storage room back of the jail to be used for storage of supplies and bed clothing for the jail.

We notice that there is improvement now being made on the plastering of the courthouse and the facilities are being improved and rearranged. We recommend in addition to this work that the plastering of the courthouse upstairs and in the County Attorney's office be repaired and that the woodwork as well as the papering be varnished and painted in both of these rooms.

The officers of the county have been very helpful and cooperative with us and we thank them for their assistance. We particularly thank the Circuit Judge for his instructions were very helpful to us and we commend him for his fairness and in his diligent effort to enforce the law.

Fyffe Takes Sland; Denies Girl's Murder

Case Goes To Jury Today; Many Witnesses Are Heard

Matthew Fyffe was convicted this morning and given a life sentence by a jury that deliberated only two hours.

Fyffe, prominent Elliott Courtian, told the court that he had not seen Miss Mason at any time since January, 1943, and that he did not know who was slayed, where he was employed, on the day of her death. He told the court that he had two insurance policies, totaling $15,000, and that Miss Mason said she made him her beneficiary "because you are the best friend I have."

The $15,000 insurance was purchased from Roy Patrick, of the Commonwealth Life Insurance Company, and from the Covington offices of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. The Commonwealth Life Insurance Company agent, Clyde Smith, Morehead, agent for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, stated that his company rejected her for a $5,000 policy.

Prospects for a good team are high as Breck has all nine men left from last year's squad that was in a six-team league competition of the State of Kentucky at Morehead College campus. The Eagles won the league title with ten victories and three defeats.

Games are being arranged with the Hill, West Liberty, Flemingsburg, Maysville, Millsburg, Military Institute, Mt. Sterling, Owingsville, Morehead High and Ashland.

Ernest Binion has purchased a half interest in the general merchandise store of W. F. Kegley at Haldeman. The firm name will be Kegley-Binion Store hereafter.

Clearfield Sells Pace In R. Cross Drive

John Francis Head Campaign Group Raises Over $1,150

Clearfield has taken an active interest in the Red Cross war fund drive. Mr. John Francis Head, Clearfield peace officer, has been solicited in that community.

Of the 124 individual donors, 101 gave $5.00 or more. Twenty-eight Clearfield people gave at least $6.33. The amount needed to provide one year's Red Cross service to an Essex County soldier or sailor. By a little arithmetic, it appears that these 28 have provided for 42 boys in uniform. All individual donors in Clearfield together have taken care of 103 and adding the company donation, the Clearfield community has "kept the Red Cross" for a total of 182 service men. This is more than 15 percent of the county's 1,200 fighters, and represents a fine spirit in the community.

In releasing these figures to The News, Mr. Chiles VanAntwerp, war fund chairman, stated "Mr. Francis is to be congratulated on an excellent showing and the Clearfield neighborhood is entitled to the thanks of the Red Cross chapters of individual contributors will be published later."

Christian Church Meets Stalemate In Organ Purchase

The campaign of the Christian Church to secure a Hammond organ for the church encountered a temporary stalemate this week as the manufacturer reported that they were on war work and had been prohibited from making new organs. The Morehead church was promised early delivery as soon as manufacturers resumed making organs for civilian use.

Following Mr. Stevens, each evening, other speakers of notes will bring messages. Dr. Sam S. Hill, President of Georgetown College, will speak Monday evening, the 26th, and Tuesday evening, the 27th. More Than Thousand People Expected To Attend Youth Rally In Morehead April 6th

What will probably be one of the greatest gatherings of young people ever held in Morehead is scheduled for Friday, April 6th in the auditorium of the Morehead State Teachers College. This is an annual affair held in conjunction with the gospel work being conducted by Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Leeper. A great and enthusiastic crowd gathered last year numbering around one thousand. Great plans are being made for the meeting this year and a much greater crowd is expected.

A chorus of some two hundred voices of students from Morehead will sing, the three trumpets will play, the trombones will be heard from. There will be numbers on the marimba, Bible drills and many other features. Pictures will be flashed on the screen showing some of our best soldiers who have been useful and some of our soldiers whom we will never forget.

SUNSHINE SKETCHES

By REX HOKE

A man with a highpowered car can stay out of the way of cops, but a walker inevitably gets the lasso, and loses his liberty—unless there happens already to be a full house. By full house is meant a great cooling for processing next Court.

HOKE

I try to lend my presence to these sessions, in which the Judge, sitting in command overall, guides with trained eye and deft hand through the chores his helpers—turnkeys, counselors, and what not, granting out justice exceeding fine.

Glancing about the court, I look for my neighbors. Why are they not here? Home duties? No. Do they not know as good citizens, they should be in their places, upholding the Judge, the law, and public decency? They know all that. They—why not here?

The answer is: They find it difficult to sit in court and see penalty dished up to another for offense no greater than their own.

A culprit, I see, has just had his turn, or "day," and His Honor announces, "Sherrif, take him away."

"There," you tell yourself, "but for the grace of God, my money, and a highpowered car, go I. That's why they're not here."

(I'm dropping out presently myself.)

Now I find the Judge and his helpers, psychologically, the same mental frame—their hearts not in it. I catch them secretly pondering their sins. They know it. God sees Judge He would find them guilty like "accused," just as he would you or me—on the same or another "count."

But these are men experienced in their work—minds of the Bar. They know the cards are stacked against a prisoner (there comes one to bat now—a walker, exploited); they know his guilt—no question—as they know their own, as you and I know ours—and they know "exploiter's" character as good as set out in the law. But it is now your chance or mine, your sin, you can't run fast enough.

As a good citizen I try to lend my presence to these sessions, in which the Judge, sitting in command overall, guides with trained eye and deft hand through the chores his helpers—turnkeys, counselors, and what not, granting out justice exceeding fine.

Glancing about the court, I look for my neighbors. Why are they not here? Home duties? No. Do they not know as good citizens, they should be in their places, upholding the Judge, the law, and public decency? They know all that. They—why not here?

Does your school have a good library? If the answer to this question is "No," then you should be doing something about it. In every study, with which the teacher is familiar, that has been made of the comparative reading ability of city and rural children, the latter have been found to be deficient. There are several factors which contribute to this result but certainly one major reason for the condition is that rural children do not have enough reading material at their disposal. This cannot be done if books are not available.

Some rural areas have solved the problem through cooperative effort. Several schools, perhaps all in a given county, have pooled their resources. In this way a considerable number of books can be secured and these may be circulated between the various schools. By this plan, although a large number of books may not be in a school at a given time, the books are changed frequently and the boys and girls have an opportunity to read a wide variety of books.

Other possibilities for securing good reading material are through the facilities of the State Library and also through other libraries in the area. See if these organizations will not loan books to your school. You will probably find that they will glad to do so.

One of the best leisure time activities is reading. Don't miss it simply because someone does not make the necessary effort to obtain the needed books.

John Petro Is Awarded The Silver Star

John T. Petro (ASN 35130853) of Mt. Sterling, recently was awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in action on the Fifth Army front in northern Italy, and at the same time was promoted from sergeant to staff sergeant. He was awarded by Maj. Gen. Paul W. Kendall, commanding general of the 88th "Blue Devil" Infantry Division in which Petro serves as a member of the 31st "Speartop" Regiment. A combat patrol, which had captured a German, was withdrawing after a brisk firefight and Petro, secretary in command, was covering the withdrawal when he stepped on a mine. Although in great pain and crippled, he called to the patrol to continue the withdrawal as he engaged the Germans with his rifle. Despite machine gun and mortar fire, he crawled to a place of safety, where his wound was treated, after which he was carried to an aid station for evacuation.

Petro received the Good Conduct Medal, the Combat Infantryman Badge, the Purple Heart and the European Theater Ribbon.

Petro is a former student at the Morehead State Teachers College.

Flemings Faces Meatless Days As Slaughtering Stops

Many residents of Flemingsburg are facing a meatless week as a result of OPA action Monday. The Lexington office ruled that the City Slaughter House operated by W. C. Borders there could not slaughter meat for a commercial concern under the present set-up. This action effected the W. P. Doyle stores which for many years have featured home-killed meat purchased at the Farmers Stockyards, butchered at the Slaughter house and sold directly through their stores.

MUGH JAP EQUIPMENT SHIPPED TO STATES

One hundred and fifty tons of Japanese equipment, captured in the Philippines, were shipped to the United States and are now being examined and tested at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Maryland.

This enemy material was collected at Philippine battlefields by Army Ordnance members of the Army Service Forces Equipment Service team attached to the American Sixth Army.

Major James C. Vicker's commanding officer of Buckeye Ordnance Works, said today that a report received from Ordnance Headquarters in Washington showed that the American landing on Leyte caught the enemy off guard and resulted in an unusual collection of Japanese weapons and equipment, some of it in original containers and in perfect condition.

This enemy material is now being carefully analyzed and tested by Ordnance technicians at Aberdeen in order to find out possible Japanese manufacturing improvements and to keep the quality of our own equipment well out in front of the best that the Nips can produce.

Ordnance members of the Service team reported that Army Ordnance carbines were landed by submarines on Mindoro many months prior to the Philippine invasion. When the American task force passed near Mindoro on its way to Leyte, fierce Moro guerrilla fighters swarmed down from the hills and kept the Japanese on the island fully occupied until the task force had passed safely by.

High grade was also given the "Wessel," which proved invaluable on Leyte where, beyond the beach, many swamp areas were encountered.

Ordnancemen landed on Leyte close behind the first attacking waves of infantry and while collecting Japanese equipment, were in constant danger of sniper fire.

The utmost co-operation prevailed in the handling of the Intelligence Service Team. Ordnancemen, for example, helped to round up enemy Signal Corps equipment, while United States Signal Corps soldiers aided Ordnancemen in collecting enemy weapons.

Civilian Farm Population Has Five-Million Drop

The civilian population living on farms decreased from about 1-2 million in April, 1940, to less than 26 million in April, 1944, according to estimates prepared jointly by the Bureau of the Census and the Bureau of Agricultural Economics. This decrease of nearly five million, or 15 percent, was caused partly by the movement of people from farms to centers of war industry and partly by the induction of young men into the armed forces, a factor which has reduced the total population living exclusively on farms.

Marked changes in the sex and age composition of the farm population, and in its occupational characteristics, accompanied the decrease in numbers. The number of farm families also decreased, but by a smaller percentage. The estimated number of farm families living on farms in April, 1944, was about 6 and 1-2 million, or 9 percent fewer than the number living on farms in 1940. The great increase in total farm income despite the loss in population, shows that the average farm's income has risen even more than preliminary figures indicated.

309-Acre Tract Purchased For Boy Scouts

At the meeting of the Mt. Sterling Rotary Club Tuesday, Clarence Weldon, of Winchester, field scout executive of the Gateway District of Boy Scouts, announced that a 309-acre tract of land situated nine miles south of Mt. Sterling, a short distance beyond Levee, had been donated to the Boy Scouts by P. L. McKee, of Pana, Illinois.

Mr. Weldon stated the tract offered the most ideal site for a Boy Scout camp he had ever seen and it is planned to develop it to the fullest extent just as soon as conditions will permit. To start with, it is to be used to erect a central building, six troop camps, a trading post and two winter camps. A great deal of the timber to be used in the construction of the buildings is to be cut from the splendid forests, and it is believed this will eventually be headquarters for all camping activities in the Blue Grass area.

LEO PE/ THER AT REST CAMP IN FRANCE

Somewhere in France, February 27, 1945. Dear Mr. Crutcher: This morning I received a copy of The Rowan County News, the first for quite some time and I was really glad to get it. After being away from Morehead twenty-five months, the paper is really valuable and always appreciated. I get letters from my friends there, but they don't give the news as The Rowan County News does.

I really like to read the Americans All column as I know most of the boys, and it is good to know where they are. I have seen Germany, but at the present I am in France at a rest center and I do mean rest. We have French girls for waitresses and they do I have a time, although I can't speak a word of their lingo.

I would like to be back in good old Morehead and see all of my pals, but I am afraid that is impossible for awhile yet for our job isn't quite completed with the "kraut's".

Again, I wish to thank you for the paper and may the "Americans All" column continue.

Your friend, Sgt. Leo H. Prather

GLENDON STANLEY GETS WINGS, COMMAND

Among those who graduated from Selman Field, Monroe, Louisiana, recently was Glendon Stanley, the husband of Mrs. Beulah Parker Stanley.

The class included representatives of forty-five states and the districts of Columbia, who received wings and commissions as aerial navigators when the AAF Training Command graduated Class 45-7 in ceremonies at the post here.

Completing an intensive course of all kinds of aerial navigation, the graduates, trained directly under AAF Central Flying Training Command direction, will shortly be putting their knowledge to use in every theater of the war.

FAST DAVIS ON "DASH INTO GERMANY"

The following article was sent us by Mrs. Ethel Davis, of Route 1. The article concerns her son, Pvt. Homer Davis.

By FRANK CONNIFF WITH THE U. S. INF. ARMY, THIRD ARMORED DIVISION, INADEQ. MARCH 6 1945 — A crew that admittedly was "scared to death" spearheaded this division into Cologne this morning. By tonight the boys were taking their victory with cognac.

About the hardest fight the tankmen had was to get out of the Nazis attempted to block their path into Germany's fourth city with pointblank fire from several streets transformed in a roadblock at a railroad underpass. The streets were blasted apart in short order.

"We were pretty lucky," said Sgt. Robert Earley 29, of Fountain, Minn., commander of the tank.

"We thought for sure the Jerries would open up on us when we rolled under the railroad pass, but nothing happened."

Two of his companions, Pvt. Homer Davis, of Route 1, Morehead, Kentucky, and Pvt. John Derigg, of Seranton, Pennsylvania, agreed with Earley that the final dash into the city was a nerve-jangling experience.

"We can't understand it," said Derigg. "We thought we were in for a hell of a scrap. Instead, we kept going right in and now we are waiting to start again."

LOCAL MAN ASSIGNED TRANSPORTATION SECTION

A U. S. TRUCK CARRIER BASE EUROPEAN THEATER OF OPERATIONS — A Morehead, Kentucky, man, Sergeant David A. Wilson, of the 442nd Troop Carrier Group now in the European Theater of Operations, is assigned to the transportation section of his squadron. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Green Wilson of Morehead. His wife, Mrs. Erila Wilson and small daughter, Ev-angelina, are residing for the duration with his parents, although their establishments are at 234 West High Street, Springfield, Ohio.

Sergeant Wilson's assignment with his squadron is that of a driver and mechanic and an easy job to keep his vehicles, whether it be "jeep" or "six-by-six," up to maximum operating efficiency the going of the day.

There is axle - deep mud, and many rough bumpy roads in the ETO. Since arriving overseas the sergeant has pleased three battalions on his European Theater of Operations ribbon and also wears over his right breast pocket the sergeant's badge.

Presidential Unit Citation ribbon which was awarded his squadron for their unified effort in the Normandy invasion.

The 442nd is one of the Troop Carrier groups which are highly specialized, extremely mobile organizations trained for months a year to drop paratroopers and para-supplies or release gliders within enemy territories. T/SGT. SPARKS HOME FROM 38 MONTHS OVERSEAS

T/SGT. Willie Sparks, 25, of Morehead, Kentucky, has returned from service in the continental United States and is now being processed through the Army Ground and Service Forces Redistribution Station, Ft. Belvoir, Florida, where his next assignment will be determined.

Corporal Sparks served 38 months as a truck driver in the Southwest Pacific theater of operations. While there he was awarded the Asiatic-Pacific campaign ribbon with four battle stars and the Combat Infantryman badge.

Army Ground and Service Forces Redistribution Stations are located in various parts of the United States. Military personnel returning from overseas are processed through these centers before assignment to military organizations and installations within the United States.

During the period that returnees stay at the Army Ground and Service Forces Redistribution Station, they are given a painstaking occupational and physical classification as well as physical and dental reconditioning together with various lectures designed to reorient men recently returned from combat areas.

Sparks was carried on without haste in pleasant surroundings conducive to mental and physical relaxation.

Before entering the service, Corporal Sparks was employed as a truck driver. He became a member of the Armed Forces on September 10, 1941.

HERBERT McBRAYER GRADUATES IN INDIA

Private First Class Herbert J. McBrayer was recently graduated as a radio mechanic from a school somewhere in India, where he has been trained to work on the highly specialized radio equipment used by the India China division of the Air Transport Command in fulfilling their mission of carrying vitally needed military supplies "over the hump."

Pfc. McBrayer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McBrayer of Ellettsville, Kentucky. Before entering the service, McBrayer was employed by his brother, at the Joseph E. McBrayer Furniture Company. McBrayer has been in service since October, 1943, coming overseas in December of 1944.

PFC. LUSTER WALTZ WITH ENGINEERS

Mrs. Thelma Estep of Route 2 has sent us a letter from her brother, Pfc. Luster Waltz. Luster is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Waltz of Cranston. He has been in the army since June 2, 1942, and has never had a furlough. He has been overseas over two years and has served in Africa, Sicily, Italy, and in Anzio Beachhead, and in France. His present whereabouts are not known. He is with the 548th Engineers. He writes:

Dear Thelma: I received your letter today and was glad to hear from you as again and to know that you were all well. I am getting along fine, but I'd feel much better if I could be home with you. But I'm living in hopes that it won't be too long before I see you.

Thelma, I know how that boy in the Pacific felt when he was attacked. I know from experience. It's wonderful what the good Lord can and will do when you call on Him. There are lots of prayers being said now, by people who never prayed before. He has brought some of us thru safe and I thank God that I'm one of them. I must close, Thelma, for I don't know anything to write. Answer soon. Love, Your brother, Luster.

CLA SLUSHER GETS LETTER IN ELEVEN DAYS

Cla Slusher has written his father, Henry Slusher of Hamm, Kentucky, that he received a letter in eleven days. Cla was somewhere in Germany when he wrote. He has been in the service since June 24, 1942, and has been overseas since November 14, 1944. He is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Slusher. He writes:

Dear Dad: Well, here I go from beautiful Germany once again, in answer to your letter written February 13th. This letter really got moving, just eleven days to get here and I'm really glad to be on the receiving end of such news.

I am fine, getting plenty to eat, and am putting on plenty of weight, still adding to my 180 pounds. While I was in the hospital I lost a little — they can't read and listen to the guns — one good thing, they are ours now. I can't see how the Jerry's can take it 24 hours and along with that goes the bombings, day and night. I don't believe they can last much longer — they can't and take all we're giving them.

Yes, I really have been lucky — a lot of us were Bill and Vernon Hargis are in Patton's Army — so am I. It's really a fighting army. Some really good outfits.

Well, this will be all for this time, as I've run out of anything to say. Write soon and tell me all the news.

Your son, Cla.

PVT. STONE WRITES COUSIN FROM PACIFIC AREA

Pvt. Carl Stone, who has been in the service of his country for eighteen months, has spent twelve months overseas, in the Pacific I will try and write you a few lines this evening. Well, I am in the Philippines now I like the country some better than where I was, but of course I have never found any place like home, although they are more civilized here and more like the states.

I got a letter from Lester the other day and he is in the far end of New Guinea. He told me what a long time he spent on the water — sixty-four days. I'll bet he was really tired. I nearly went nuts and I was only twenty-six days crossing. I sure hope we will get to see each other in this country. There isn't much space in a V-mail letter, and there really isn't much I can say. The news sounds area. We publish a letter that he Dear Cousin (Continued on Page Seven)

ASK YOUR GROCER!

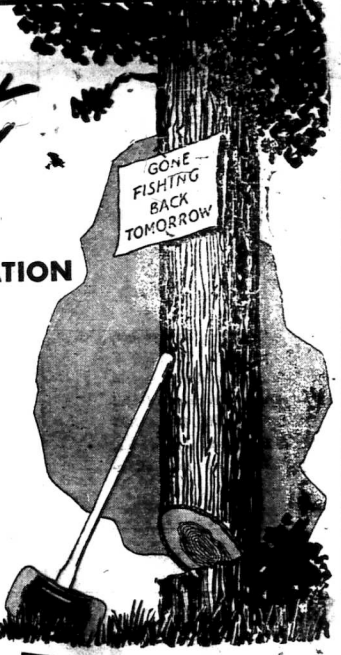

ASK YOUR GROCER!

Draft Deferment CARRIES A SOLEMN OBLIGATION

WHEN YOU ASK your draft board for deferment, you are asking them to send another man in your place. Some other man will have to endure the hardships of army life; to risk his life instead of yours; to live in a foxhole at army pay so you can continue to enjoy the comforts of home and a well-paid job.

That's a good deal to ask, isn't it? The draft board gives you deferment only if they think you are doing a more important job than the man they send in your place.

A man who is engaged in critical work such as pulpwood production has a perfect right to ask for deferment. But having been given deferment, he has no more right to go AWOL from his job than the man who is serving in his place would have to desert in the face of the enemy. His deferment carries the obligation to serve his country as faithfully at home as the other man serves it at the front.

INFORMATION ON G-I MATTERS

Below are Questions and Answers on G-I Matters furnishing such information many desire.

Question: Is it possible for my husband to get a dependency discharge? We have a 3-acre farm and I can't manage the work alone.

Answer: Your husband can apply for a dependency discharge through his commanding officer. He must show proof that destitution has arisen since his entrance into the service due to death or disability in the family. The Red Cross chapter will help you get the necessary affidavits to send to your husband.

Question: I received my husband's A70 number some weeks ago and haven't heard from him since. Do they not know they have left the states until they have landed overseas?

Answer: You will not hear from your husband until he reaches his destination. Security reasons prevent the giving out of such information before men leave the states.

Question: Does V-Mail travel faster than regular air-mail letters?

Answer: It is much quicker and much safer form of transmitting messages since in the event it is lost the original can be photographed again and dispatched immediately.

Question: My niece is an unwed mother. Her child's father is in the navy, but refuses to acknowledge paternity of the child. How can she get a family allowance for the child?

Answer: Your niece will have to get a court decree certified by the clerk of the court declaring the serviceman to be the father of the child or ordering him to contribute to the child's support. To do so, she will have to present evidence that will satisfy the court as to the paternity. If such court decree is obtained, a copy should be filed with the application for family allowance.

Question: Can a nurse overseas get a divorce from her husband who is a civilian in the states, if she has ample grounds for suit? Answer: The nurse should get legal advice from the legal assistance officer of her post or command or the judge advocate officer attached to the headquarters of her command. They can help to make the necessary arrangements to engage a civilian lawyer to file suit for divorce.

Question: May a son-in-law make an allotment to his mother-in-law? Answer: The service man may make an allotment of pay to his mother-in-law if he desires.

Question: If a boy is in the navy and his father dies, will the mother of the boy and his young brother be eligible for an allowance? If so, how?

Answer: If there is little, if any, income the service man may consent to a deduction of $22 from his service pay each month, and the mother and brother may be eligible if they are dependent upon the service man for chief support, they would receive a family allowance of $68 per month, but if they were dependent upon the serviceman only for substantial support the family allowance would be only $37 per month.

Question: I am a boy 17 and like other boys would like to be in the service. But I have a bad leg out of which I cannot see. There is nothing else the matter with me. What I would like to know is could I join the Merchant Marine?

Answer: We doubt it, since you must pass a very strict physical examination in order to be accepted for service. However, you could apply at the nearest enrolling center and see what they have to say.

Question: You tell me what the monthly payments would be on a $10,000 National Service Life Insurance policy if the beneficiary is 40 years old? Answer: The monthly payments would be $45 under the old method, and $42.60 under the Refund Life Income method. Information on this new method may be obtained from your nearest Veteran's Administration office.

Question: Is it true that if the army officers think the soldiers are receiving too much mail they hold it back? Answer: It absolutely is not so.

Question: Is there any way in which I can be sent for induction again? I have applied to my draft board but they refuse to reclassify me so that I may be inducted again. I am not in essential industry and would like very much to get in the service of my country.

Answer: You may appeal your classification to your local appeal board if you wish. If they do not reclassify you there is nothing that can be done.

Question: I was honorably discharged from the army after ten months service as being over 38 years old. I received a new classification I-C (Disc.). Will you please tell me what that means? Answer: That classification refers to all those men honorably discharged or released, or those men discharged or released under honorable conditions from the armed forces.

Question: My neighbor lost her son in Belgium during December, but has learned no details about his death. Where can she find out something? Are they buried with suitable identification?

Answer: The Casualty Division of the War Department, Washington, D. C. will send her details as soon as they receive them. In some cases the chaplain of the outfit will write to the mother and tell her all that is known. All the known dead are properly identified when buried.

Question: When a service man receives a medical discharge, does his wife receive the family allowance after his discharge? Answer: Payments cease when the Office of Dependency Benefits receives notice that the enlisted man has been discharged. Entitlement for family allowances ceases at the end of the month and any back check received after the period of entitlement is an overpayment and may be recovered by the government.

Question: If my husband in the army goes AWOL, would my family allowance for myself and children be discontinued? Answer: Payment will terminate at the end of the month in which notice is received of the service man's conviction of desertion, or notice that he has been absent in desertion for three months, whichever occurs first. If he is later restored to duty, the family allowance may be reinstated, as of the first of the month in which such restoration occurs. If June 2.

a court-martial sentence includes dishonorable discharge, the family allowance will be discontinued.

Question: Does a First Lieutenant in the Air Force have to pay income tax while in the service? Answer: The first $1,500 of his service pay is tax-exempt, and he is eligible for exemption of $500 for himself and any other dependents. If the Lieutenant is stationed here on March 15, he must file a return.

Question: How many missions must a bombardier make before he is entitled to a furlough to the States? Answer: Bombardiers are not being furloughed to the States after a certain number of missions. Whether or not a man receives a furlough depends upon the decision of his Commanding Officer and whether an adequately trained replacement is available.

"Our boy a prisoner of war"

...and the far-reaching arm of the RED CROSS brought him help"

Keep your RED CROSS at his side

THERE isn't much you can do when you hear your boy is a prisoner. Parcels are restricted, mail from him is limited. Like him, you must wait, patiently, until the war is over.

Yet you do have one consolation. The far-reaching arm of the Red Cross gets supplementary food parcels to our prisoners regularly wherever possible. It brings extra clothing, cigarettes and medicines to the lonely boys "out there." It relays emergency messages to and from anxious families.

This is all part of the stupendous job the Red Cross is doing for our fighting men all over the world... and for their families at home. But it cannot be done without your support. Without your help the Red Cross could not continue to collect life-saving blood for the wounded... to send essential supplies to the prisoners of war... to give the countless other friendly services that make a soldier's life a little easier.

These men have given a lot for you. Won't you give a few extra dollars for them?

Americans All

all at once instead of one place at a time. Well, Beulah, I'll close, but write often. As Ever, Your Cousin Carl! UNCLE, NEPHEW SERVE TOGETHER IN PACIFIC We received a picture last week of Walter J. Miller, and James Hollan, on the bridge of their ship, which put into port at Treasure Island, San Francisco, California, for repairs. Mr. Miller, who is a cook, third class is an uncle of Hollan's. Hollan has a rating of motor machinist's mate, third class. Both are from Route 1, Morehead; both grew up here. They met in the South Pacific and have been together many months.

LOCAL MAN FIGHTS AGAINST GREAT ODDS

WITH THE 24TH INFANTRY (VICTORY) DIVISION IN THE PHILIPPINES - Pvt. First Class Burnie Fultz, of Elliottville, Kentucky and his buddies in the First Battalion of this Victory Division's crack 34th Infantry Regiment have helped write another stirring page in American military history in one of the most bitter offensive actions in the campaign to free the Philippines. With their battalion far below strength after 21 days of hard fighting, they drove deep behind enemy lines, over back breaking, muddy mountain trails to seize and hold a ridge to deny the Japanese commanding positions facing our main forces in a crucial valley.

For more than three weeks they clung to the ridge, against great odds. They beat off 27 savage attacks, many by superior enemy forces, some in darkness of night during torrential rains.

They killed 825 Japs, more than one per man for the battalion. Ammunition and food supplies often were delayed when carrying parties had to fight off the enemy to reach the ridge. Muddy, slime coated weapons frequently failed to function.

At times they met the attacks head-on in furious hand to hand combat to save dwindling ammunition supplies. Acts of individual heroism became commonplace.

Many men of the battalion became ill with colds, dysentery, foot ulcers, fever, but they continued to fight. They knew not a man could be spared who could carry on.

When a relief unit was sent to the ridge, they closed their part of the mission by leading an attack to drive the Japs from strong positions near the perimeter.

LEO NICKELL FIGHTS IN FRANCE

According to word received from Capt. C. E. Nickell, her son, Corporal Leo Nickell is now in France. Mr. and Mrs. Nickell are now in Baltimore. The following clipping was taken from The Paintsville Herald:

A Ninth Air Force Service Command Base, France: When the German coined a new word to mean "fighter-bomber" and recoiled under a pile of armored wreckage which has once been a highly mechanized army, he called the Allied weapon "Jabo." Now, in the first few grey days of winter on the western front, men like Corporal Leo C. Nickell of Paintsville, Kentucky, are sending a new "Jabo" against von Rudstedt's battered armies west and east of the German border.

Flying close support missions against troop and vehicle concentrations, shooting up defended villages and ripping away bridges across vital waterways, the new A-26 Invader medium bomber, built by Douglas and mounting more guns per crew member than any other American aircraft, is being serviced and maintained in combat condition by men of the Ninth Air Force Service Command.

Corporal Nickell has spent a year in the theater and is wise to the ways of technical service and maintenance.

This A-26 Invader mechanic is the husband of the former Kathleen Williams, 307-3rd Street, Paintsville, Kentucky.

Pfc. Paul H. Terry, whose wife Mrs. Grace Terry, reside at 624 Kirby Avenue, Muncie, Indiana, now is participating in the Luzon campaign as chauffeur in the service company of a combat infantry regiment.

Pfc. Terry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Terry, of Salt Lick, Kentucky. He formerly attended the Morehead Consolidated High School and was later employed as his father on the farm. He entered the service April 10, 1941 at Fort Thomas and for the past thirteen months has been overseas, stationed in Hawaii and New Guinea prior to his present participation in the Philippine Campaign. He has been awarded the American Defense Medal, Asiatic-Pacific Theater Ribbon, Expert Infantry Badge and now is eligible for the Philippines Liberation Ribbon.

118 Donations Received By Farmers Group

In the Red Cross campaign in the Farmers community, solicitation has been directed by Mrs. W. H. Johnson, assisted by Mrs. Dana

B. May, Mrs. Jack Parker, Mr. Fred Calvert, and Mr. Deward Evans. Up to Saturday their collection reports show a total of $218.50 contributed by 118 different persons, 18 of whom gave $5.00 or more.

The Farmers Christian Church gave $15.00, the second church in the county to report a special Red Cross offering.

While the average contribution in Farmers is smaller than in some other parts of the county, the total number of givers for that community is very much larger than last year. Names of contributors will be published later.

Elliott Man Is Charged With 1924 Slaying

Walter Jones of Sideway was named in an indictment returned last week by the Elliott County grand jury charging him with murder in connection with the 24-year-old ambush slaying of Deputy Sheriff John Henry Binion in 1924. Deputy Binion, it was remembered, had raided a number of moonshine stills shortly before he was shot from ambush in a remote part of Elliott County. The March term of Elliott Circuit Court was adjourned after a three-day session. Only two felony cases were tried. Sentences of five years each meted Chester White and Elmer E. Fraley for child desertion were probated by Judge Littleton on condition that each would support their children.

AMERICAN Hands down DAILY His "FOTO FINISH" is a Full Report On Kentucky Sports BUCK WEAVER... The Louisville Times ace Sports Reporter, is not likely to let you forget the horses, simply because there's a wartime ban on racing. This superb raconteur of the sport of kings can reminisce indefinitely from his boundless fund of knowledge of turf and paddock, and an acquaintanceship among horsemen unmatched in Kentucky. Long before he bounced the scales above 200 pounds, Buck was carrying weight in sports circles. Born in Louisville, he managed ball clubs while still at Male High, circulated semi-pro cage leagues, and worked his way up on the links, caddyding to golf champs during matches. But a glance at the walls around his desk proves that his first love is horses. "Paddock Palaver" was his initial turf column, back in 1926... and he's been writing "Foto Finish" since 1936. Weaver's Selections have been carried by Associated Press in papers from coast to coast since 1931. Vice president of the Kentucky Turf Writers' Association, he has long been a member of the committee of Turf and Sports Digest's "Horse of the Year" poll. Buck's favorite horses for all time are 1918 Derby winner Exterminator; Equipose, entered in 1931, but didn't run, and Whirlaway, winner of the Kentucky Derby in 1941. The lives and times of these and many other horses are an open American Racing Manual to Weaver. Follow your favorite sport with wonder boy Weaver in THE LOUISVILLE TIMES
