Swimming Pool Opening Official

The opening of the swimming pool in the Morehead Recreation Park has been announced officially by Recreation Chairman John H. Duncan and Mayor C. B. Cornell. The pool will open at 12 noon today (Thursday) and remain open until 7 p.m.

A decision on the pool opening had been delayed until last Thursday night when the City entered into a new contract with Surf Pools, Inc. of Lexington. The firm, represented at the special Council meeting last week by Bill Isaacs, has agreed to work with Lexington in erecting and replacing several sections of faulty concrete deck at the pool.

Lexington Concrete, represented by Chase Johnson, has agreed to pay $7,000 for repair of the deck which Surf Pools, Inc. will be in charge of in the fall after the pool closes.

The $7,000 owned Surf Pools, Inc. by the City, which amount the City has been holding until a firm agreement was reached, will be paid to the pool firm after the new contract has been signed.

The old contract between Surf Pools and the city would have been void by September, but since city officials feared if the work at the pool was not done by then the pool firm would feel no obligation due to contract expiration. Had the concrete decking been replaced prior to the opening the pool, it was anticipated by Council members and the Recreation Commission that the pool could not have opened until mid to late June.

The direction of the traffic on Bridge Street has been reversed, effective

Thursday morning (today) in order that persons can be directed to the pool more easily.

The street will now run South to North from Main Street.

The pool hours, as established by the Recreation Commission and approved by Council are —

- + Sunday — 1 to 6 p.m.
- + Monday through Friday — 12 o'clock noon to 7 p.m.
- + Saturday — 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Pool Manager Zane Collins said the Monday through Friday closing time may be extended an hour later in the season when it is warmer. This would be upon approval of the Recreation Commission and Council, Collins noted.

Daily admission to the pool will be 50 cents for children 12 years and under and 75 cents for those 13 years and over.

Seasonal passes are available at —

- + Individual pass — $15
- + Family of 4 members and under — $35
- + Family of 5 members — $40
- + Family of 6 members — $45
- + Family of 7 members or more — $50

Palmer Adkins who graduated from Morehead State University in May is the assistant pool manager. Lifeguards are Joe Salyer, Leslie Smith, Barbie Holbrook, Nancy Smith, Martin Tier and Sharon Ryan.

The lifeguards will operate a learn-to-swim program during the morning hours.

They Come With Roar

A Number Of Areas In Rowan County Have Been Invaded By The Locusts

The predicted invasion of the 17 year locusts in Rowan County became reality over the weekend when numerous residents north of Morehead complained of the constant and irritating roar of the insects.

The areas hardest hit in Rowan County are those on the North Fork of Triplett Creek and include Green Bend, Tar Flat, Hills, Sharkey Cranston, Pine Grove, Rock Fork, Clear Fork and Helly. There reportedly are not as many locusts on the south side of U.S. 60, but they may come later.

A member of the grasshopper family, the botanical name of the locust is cicada and they appear every 17 years. The eggs they lay prior to dying will mature in 17 years, thus making their next appearance in 1991. The invasion of the locusts is predicted to be over by July.

Ford, Cook Big Winners In Rowan

One of the lightest votes in decades was cast in Rowan County's primary Tuesday as only 683 registered voters — 500 democrats and 183 republicans — went to the polls.

As expected, incumbent republican U.S. Senator Marlow W. Cook, easily carried the county. Cook received 162 votes as against nine for T.J. Hamlin and three for T.W. Perkins.

Gov. Wendell Ford, democrat, who will oppose Cook in November for the sixth year Senate term, was also a top-heavy winner in Rowan, as anticipated. Ford had a 386 Rowan majority on the light voter turnout. Ford received 443 votes and Harvey Edward Brazin 57 votes.

Many expected Brazin, Frankfort businessman, to receive more votes in Rowan than he did since he graduated from Morehead State University in 1966 and was well known on the campus and downtown.

Perkins Was Unopposed

No other races were on the ballot, and voters had the opportunity to pull only one lever.

Incumbent Democratic Congressman Carl D. Perkins, Hindman, had no primary opponent. The republican Granville Thomas of Tuttle, Laurel County, received the republican nomination without an opponent.

Perkins is an overwhelming favorite to defeat Thomas in November.

Election day brought beautiful weather, slightly on the cool side.

The 36 precinct election officers had little work but received the highest pay in the county's history. Fiscal Court last month increased the remuneration to precinct election officers from $15 to $25.

In November there will be no races on the ballot — Ford vs. Cook for U.S. Senator, and Perkins vs. Thomas for House of Representatives.

Tobacco Festival Dates Announced

The Morehead Lions Club announced this week the dates of the annual Morehead Tobacco Festival which it sponsors.

The festival is scheduled for Oct. 3, 4 and 5 at the Morehead Tobacco Warehouse on U.S. 60 east.

All plans have not been finalized, however, many events are in the planning stages including a parade, beauty pageant, two dances, Grande Ole Opry show and various tobacco contests.

The festivities also will include merchants' booths and possibly a traders section.

Housing Units For Elderly May Be Completed By July

Although 'eligibility applications' have been accepted over several weeks for occupancy in Morehead's 100 units of federally financed low-rent housing, the Housing Authority of Morehead will soon officially announce and advertise for applications, Chairman W. E. Crutcher said this morning.

The Chairman stressed that early applications will have no preference over those who fill in the written forms after it is officially announced in the Morehead News.

The 100 units are nearing completion on Ky. 32 at the north end of the city. They adjoin (at the east) existing Raweel Heights, a low rent family type project.

All applications are graded. Rent is not based on space occupied, but the individuals income.

The units are designed for a senior citizen man and wife, widows and widowers.

The Housing Authority met yesterday afternoon adopting standards and also fixing the maximum income a person may have and still be eligible.

The units are one bed-room, completely modern and electrically heated.

Morehead Loses SS Office

Morehead will lose its area Selective Service Office at 129 East Main Street within about two weeks, this newspaper learned today.

The Rowan County Selective Service records will be transferred to a district office at Ashland, which will serve 12 other counties. The Ashland district has already received the SS records for Boone, Boone, Fleming, Lewis, Morgan and Menifee counties which were previously processed at Morehead.

Records for Mason and Montgomery counties have also been at Morehead for the past year. Montgomery has been transferred to the Lexington district, and Mason to Covington.

The Morehead district office is being abandoned, according to Col Taylor L. Davidson, state director, because of a cut in congressional appropriations. Col. Davidson said this necessitated a reduction of area SS offices (from 21 to 12) and Morehead is one of the nine that will be eliminated.

Until last year each county had its own full-time Selective Service offices. But, these were cut from 120 in Kentucky to 21 as the draft has almost been eliminated. Men between the ages of 18 and 23 must continue to register, and each county will continue to have its own SS Board. The Rowan County SS Board consists of Alpha H. Hutchinson, Chairman, George Hill, Vice-Chairman, Curley Barker, Dr. J.K. Smith, Hubert Allen, Russell Barker, Ernest Jayne and Larry Knapp. But, the Rowan Board will hereafter have few duties and the paper work will originate at the area office in Ashland.

Carolyn Williams of Greenup will be in charge of the area SS office at Ashland, and her assistant will be Nell James, Olive Hill. Orville Walton will head the Lexington office, and Edith Dodd the one at Covington. Thelma Williams, present Executive Secretary at Morehead, has been transferred to Lexington.

Ella Mae Evans, area Board Technician who has been in charge of the Morehead area office, and has 17 years' seniority, was offered the same position at Covington, but refused.

Mrs. Evans today told the Morehead News: "I had more seniority than anybody in the Ashland, Lexington or Covington offices. I was willing to accept the position at either Ashland or Lexington which are within commuting distance of my home."

She added with some bitterness: "They wouldn't assign me to Lexington or Ashland, but said I could have the Covington job

That's too far away and I refused this unfair transfer."

Mrs. Evans said that her 17 years service with SS "will be terminated as of June 22."

Col. Davidson said the 21 district offices employed 59. "We will reduce this to 30 employees in the 12 revised district offices," he concluded.

Mrs. Evans said, "They talk all the time about seniority, and I think it is spelled out in the law. But they do whatever they want when they want to." She said the state office "purposely" transferred her to Covington (instead of Ashland or Lexington) because they knew I would then quit."

Mrs. Evans said nobody else had as much as "the 17 years seniority that I have."

Ford, Cook, Hubbard Brothers Nominated

The Hubbard brothers — Kyle, 32 of Louisville, and Carroll, 36, Mayfield — were the big news in Kentucky politics following Tuesday's primary election.

Kyle defeated Ed Witenberg, Covington Attorney, by a narrow margin for the democratic nomination for Congress in the 4th district. This district takes in part of Louisville, rural Jefferson county, and counties along the Ohio river from Newport to Louisville. He will try to unseat veteran republican Gene Snyder in November.

Carroll pulled a 'major upset' in the 1st district by unseating Congressman Frank Stubblefield. His majority was about 700.

Young Hubbard, Mayfield Attorney, kept plugging away that the democratic Congress was "sitting on its rear end" and letting Nixon destroy the country through Watergate and inflation. This race had national implications in that the present democratic Congress is getting a backlash for alleged inactivity in impeaching the President.

Incumbent republican U.S. Senator Marlow W. Cook and Gov. Wendell Ford, democrat, won nomination to the six year U.S. Senate seat.

The political fireworks will come from now until the Nov. 5 general election as Ford seeks to oust Cook.

western Kentucky

The voter turnout was extremely light all over Kentucky with the exception of a moderate interest in the 1st and 4th congressional districts where the Hubbard brothers were nominated.

Polls which showed that voters want Nixon out of office and are also unhappy with a "slow moving democratic Congress" were borne out in Arkansas. Senator J.W.

FINDS TO COUNTY ARE FOR RECOVERY OF FLOOD DAMAGE

Charles R. Sizemore of the Department of Public Information at Frankfort advised the Morehead News today that his department released erroneous information to the News last week regarding a check presented to Rowan Judge O.H. Caldwell by Gov. Wendell Ford.

Sizemore said the story stated that the check was presented to the county as disaster relief for destruction caused by tornadoes which hit Kentucky in early April.

"This is incorrect," Sizemore explained. He said the relief check was for recovery of damage caused by floods in early April 1972. The check was in the amount of $28,062.

Numerous other Rowan farmers are in the process of setting tobacco and some have completed the work.

SALES OF SAVINGS BONDS SHOW INCREASE IN ROWAN

Sales of Series E and H Savings Bonds in Rowan County for March were $13,066 while sales for the first three months totaled $53,000 or 32.7 per cent of the County's annual goal of $170,000. Sales a year ago were $29,587.

In the Thursday, Nov. 5, 1974 general election the nominees for the United States Senate (six years term) will be incumbent republican Marlow W. Cook versus democrat Gov. Wendell Ford and for Congress (7th district) — (two year term) republican Granville Thomas versus incumbent democrat Carl D. Perkins.

Logging Accident Fatal To Rowan County Man

A 59-year-old Rowan County man was killed Monday morning in a logging accident on U.S. 60 east of Morehead behind Roark's store.

Glenn Slous of Cranston was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Claire Medical Center at 12:10 p.m. by Deputy Coroner Russel Coch. He said Slous died of multiple neck, back and chest injuries.

The mishap occurred between 10 and 11 a.m. when a winch attached to a logway was uprooted and fell on Slous.

A lumber dealer, Slous was a native of Elliott County born Feb. 13, 1915. He was the son of Boone Slous of Cranston and the late Nora McDaniel Slous. He had resided in Elliott and Rowan Counties all of his lifetime and attended the Baptist Church.

Surviving, in addition to his father, are his wife, Alma White Slous; his stepson, Dewey Griffith of Fairbourn, Ohio; two stepdaughters, one brother, Clyde Slous of Cranston; four sisters, Mrs. Reba Caudill of Franklin, Ohio, Mrs. Edna Blewett of Cranston, Mrs. Lydia White of Morehead, and Mrs. Verna Caudill of Ashland.

Funeral services were scheduled for 1 p.m. today (Thursday) at Cranston Baptist Church with Revs. Russell Reynolds, George

DEAR EDITOR:

I am, with great newspaper stories in which Congressmen from states other than Kentucky say that Kentucky's 7th district Congressman Carl D. Perkins is "greedy."

They say that Perkins has got more dams and water impoundments for his district than most states receive. The New York Times once editorialized: "Carl Perkins is in favor of dividing the entire national budget — one-half for his district and the other half for the rest of the United States." Dear Editor, I loved that New York Times editorial.

But there are many untruths printed about Appalachia. For example, I have figures at hand which show that more welfare checks and food stamps are distributed in the City of Detroit than in all of Appalachia which extends into several eastern states, including Kentucky.

The truth of the matter is that the cities are getting the lion's share of all these federal funds. The metropolitan newspapers don't say much about that, just like they cover up the tremendous increase in crime in the cities. It's not so fast to walk on any street in any city in the United States.

Our parish preached one of his best sermons Sunday. He said the rich are getting filthy rich and the average taxpayer and church-goer never had it so bad. He also said that it used to be that the price of food went up when we had a bad crop year, and predicted if this year (1974) is a good crop year and the farmer produces bountiful harvests that the big business middle-men will still keep the price of food up to enrich their own pockets.

Summed up, the parson concluded that the few men who have created all these shortages and high interest rates for personal gain have no chance of ever getting rich. He quoted the scriptures about the money changers and the crooks in exalted temples. And, in his prayer he didn't ask the Lord to forgive the crooked politicians or the Texas and Wall Street billionnaires.

He ended his sermon with a plea and hope: "That the people will awaken." I agree with what the preacher said, and I dropped two dollars instead of my usual one dollar into the collection plate.

YOURS TRULY, CLAIG SPROUT

Documentary By Ex-Moreheadian In Competition

A one-hour radio documentary composed, produced and narrated by Tom Bowne of Cresolis, Pa., and Mrs. Anne Bowne of Morehead, has been entered in the radio and television news directors Association international competition.
 The winner of the national contest will be revealed at a convention in Montreal, Canada, in September.
 Bowne was awarded the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFTRA) Outstanding Radio Special Award for 1973 in the city of Pittsburgh, Pa. The award was presented for this documentary on the energy crisis entitled "Don't Stop the World, I Want to Stay On!"
 The documentary also won the 1973 National RTNDA Murrow Award for the Northeastern United States and is the same documentary which will be entered in the international competition.
 Bowne is news commentator on KQV Radio in Pittsburgh. The 25-year-old former Moreheadian attended Morehead State University. He and his wife, the former Jacqueline Wurzbacher of Cincinnati, Ohio, have two sons, Jonathan and Christian Bowne.

Transportation Department Still Feels Energy Pinch

The energy pinch is still being felt by the Kentucky Department of Transportation. According to Transportation Secretary James E. Gray, the petroleum situation is still forcing his agency to "wear a tighter belt," constantly review priorities, and make a concentrated effort to use what fuel is available to get the job done.

 An additional $700,000 was made available recently to allow the department a sufficient supply of gasoline for the remainder of this fiscal year, which ends July 1.

"We have never paid such a high price for gasoline," said Jim Claxton, assistant director for the Bureau of Highways' Division of Equipment.
 "The average price we pay for gasoline has risen from 23 cents as of July 1, 1973, to 40 cents at the present time. That represents almost a 100 per cent increase."
 "And the cost is not the only problem," Claxton added. "We have been fighting with a 10 per cent cutback in fuel allocations."

The area most affected by the cutback is maintenance. Most all the maintenance equipments runs on either diesel fuel or gasoline, and the department has 6,000 pieces of gasoline powered equipment.
 In addition, this year for the first time the department has been unable to get a price contract with any major petroleum companies.

"We have to purchase fuel from independent distributors, just as any service station does," stated Claxton.
 "In the past with a price contract, companies furnished us tanks and gas pumps. We had to purchase our own tanks and pumps at 155 locations. This cost the department $200,000.

It is said driving 55 mph is terribly boring. Even so, it is better to risk dying of boredom than to drive fast and risk being mangled to death in a wreck, as the former is a much safer way to die.

Sun Street Bridge Contract Awarded

Pack's, Inc. was awarded the bid for construction of a new bridge on Sun Street during a special session last Thursday night of Morehead City Council.

The bid was in the amount of $9,600 Jackson Builders, the only other firm submitting bids, had a bid of $10,850 for the same project.

The bid specifications on which the contract is based called for new east and west abutments and a new poured concrete bridge. Pack's will be responsible for working with General Telephone Company of Kentucky in making arrangements to install telephone cable in the bridge structure.
 General Telephone has agreed to pay $6,000 toward the construction of the bridge since it has been determined that the company's cable caused damage to the old structure.

Man Sentenced On Grand Larceny

The May term of Rowan Circuit Court entered its second week Tuesday when William Keith Burkhardt was found guilty on two separate counts of grand larceny and sentenced to one year in prison on each count.

Burkhardt made motion on grounds for a new trial and the court will act on the motion June 17. He was indicted on a third indictment on grand larceny, however, that charge was dismissed. The indictments were in connection with theft of motorcycles.

William Joseph Gordon also was named in the indictments, but he pleaded guilty in the November term of Circuit Court, was sentenced and then granted probation.
 The grand jury returned yesterday (Wednesday) to make its final report and the petit jury was scheduled to return today (Thursday) to hear the case of Anthony Sparks. He was named in an indictment for operating a motor vehicle without owner's consent.

No cases are scheduled Friday.

44-Year-Old Rowan Man Dies Of Gunshot Wound

James Earnest Flannery, 44, who resided at the home of his father on Rt. 4, Morehead, died about 2 p.m. Sunday of a gunshot wound to the head. Deputy Coroner Russell Gooch pronounced Flannery dead at St. Claire Medical Center at 3:20 p.m. He said Flannery was home alone when the shooting took place.

Deputy Gooch said the shot was fired from a .357 magnum pistol with a .38 caliber shell. There is no foul play suspected, according to Gooch, and a coroner's inquest will be held within the next two weeks.

Flannery was found by Faye Kegley of Sandy Hook who reported to officials that Flannery had called her residence and asked to speak with her daughter, Sue. Mrs. Kegley said when she left the phone to get her daughter she heard the noise which sounded like a gunshot after which she went to the Flannery residence.

A late and lifelong resident of Rowan County, Flannery was born May 2, 1930, and was the son of Ernest J. Flannery, retired custodian of the Morehead Post Office, and Mrs. Delpha Flannery.

Surviving, in addition to his parents, are a brother, John Carl Flannery of Belleville, Mich.; seven sisters, Mrs. Bernell Drexler and Mrs. Colleen Pingleton of Bradford, Ohio, Mrs. Pauline Marras of Kettering, Ohio, Mrs. Lorene Hogge of Blue Creek, Ohio, Mrs. Jean Haney of Morehead, Mrs. Joleen Lehman of Mansfield, Ohio, and Mrs. Lola Anglin of Scotts Hill, Tenn.

Funeral services were conducted at 1 p.m. Tuesday at Stucky Funeral Home by Rev. Russell Reynolds. Burial was in Elliott County Memory Gardens at Sandy Hook.

Publisher's Pen...

Op-by-day job-middens, and editorial observations of the publisher of this newspaper.

This column has been "hunting" for some time that the females are taking over this country.

They do more complaining and "doctory" but it is irrefutable that women outlive men, on the average, by eight years. Almost all advertising is directed toward women because surveys show they spend 80 percent of the money which is mostly earned by men but turned over to the wife.

We note that for the first time in Rowan County's 118 year history that more women served as election officers (Tuesday's primary) than did men.

Rowan has 56 election officers in its 14 precincts - 28 were women and 18 were men better than a two to one ratio in favor of the females.

Two precincts - No. 1, Courthouse, and No. 3, Upper Farmers had all women election officers. In many of the others three out of four were women.

Rowan County's Fiscal Court raised the pay of election officers last month from $15 to $25. The women then got most of the $25 election day jobs.

It hasn't been too many years back that no woman served as an election officer in Rowan County. The theory then was that polling places, the scene of voter challenges, fights etc. and men could best handle the disturbances or disagreements.

What this country and this nation needs is not Women's Lib - we need Women's Life.

The women are about to take us over like the 17 year locusts which have hatched out by the billions.

Come to think of it the females have dern near taken over this newspaper. We have a female editor, and all of the composing room personnel consists of the distaff side. It wouldn't surprise us to see them get together and try to fire the Publisher. We refuse to be fired but would consider being retired on full pay.

More Kentucky women have been leaving their homes to go to work.

A recent Labor Dept. study shows that in 1970, well over one-third of the state's work force was female - 413,692 women 16 and older, 43 per cent higher than 1960.

Kentucky women still made less money, had less education and were more often unemployed than their male counterparts.

The unemployment rate for women was 5.5 per cent, compared to 4.1 per cent for men.

The median education for Kentucky women 25 and older was 10.3 years of schooling.

And the average income for families headed by women was $101 compared to $960 for all families.

The study showed about half the women 20-24 are working.

Most Kentucky women workers were married, and more than a third of all married women worked. Single, widowed and divorced women were slightly more likely to be working.

More women were employed in clerical work, 30 per cent, than any other occupation. The next largest portion worked as operatives, including transport, and as service workers outside the home.

Neal Harrington, was the first March of Dimes prester boy in 1906, when he was 6. Today, at age 44, he is a self-made millionaire. Harrington was born with a deformed right leg - not from polio, but something close enough to polio so that doctors used him in polio research. Doctors tried to use him to avoid dragging around a useless leg for a lifetime was to have it amputated and replaced with an artificial one. Young Neal turned them down. With his leg brace he went on to learn how to swim, bowl and play golf. Harrington figures his defect was the "asset" which drove him to the top as head of one of the South's largest steamship agencies Harrington and Co. a firm he founded nine years ago.

A man armed with a pistol forced the only cashier in a bank in New Zealand to hand over $100,000 - while the other two cashiers were advised to take a lesson from Madison Avenue.

Catholic bishops studying modern techniques of communications at a seminar were advised to take a lesson from Madison Avenue.

"If the television industry can motivate people more effectively with cat food commercials than we can with the Sermon on the Mount, then it stands to reason we have a lot to learn from them," the Rev. Richard A. Blake, S.J., associate editor of America Magazine, said.

Morehead and Rowan County can claim a few "firsts" like this was the site of the first adult education (Moonlight Schools) classes which later spread around the world, and we had on July 4, 1929 the highest rainfall over a period of an hour (six inches) ever recorded in the USA. We lost that "cheapest downpour" distinction when Hawaii became a state because it sometimes pours like from a fire hose on the leeward side of Kauai.

Kentucky State Police advise that Morehead last week achieved another first. Their records show the first streaker arrested in Kentucky by KSP was at Morehead. A State Police car happened to be passing when a 17 year old went streaking by Wetherby Fieldhouse.

We could append that Morehead has a "first" - rate Publisher.

Records of the Kentucky Election Commission show that, in recent years Rowan leads the other 119 counties in the number of absentee ballots cast, percentage-wise, for primary and general elections.

The charge has been made that most of these absentees were simply "bought" votes and we have a sneaking suspicion that this allegation is correct.

This is written before Tuesday's primary in which there is little interest. The primary results will be printed on page one of this edition, and we suggest you look for the number of absentees. We daresay in advance, there'll be only a few because no money was spent in this primary as the nomination of incumbent republican U.S. Senator Marlow Cook and Gov. Wendell Ford, democrat, was a foregone certainty. The real battle comes this fall with Ford a heavy favorite because of Watergate and Nixon.

Gov. Ford's primary opponent was Harvey Edw. Brazin of Frankfort.

Records at Morehead State University show that a Harvey E. Brazin graduated there in 1906. He would now be 31 years of age, and we submit an educated guess that the 1906 MSU graduate and the candidate is the same person.

This is not much of an honor for MSU as we predicted that Brazin wouldn't carry a precinct in all of Kentucky. Brazin had entered the primary race because "I'm against all politicians."

Jonathan Ater hoped to get an A in art class for running onto the field during a Reds' baseball game at Riverfront Stadium.

Instead, he got a $100 fine and court costs, writes Larry Surratt in the Cincinnati Post. Ater, an Ohio University student from Chesapeake, O., ran onto the field Saturday when the Reds were playing the Houston Astros. He was caught before he could make it across the outfield, arrested and charged with criminal trespassing.

He told Judge Rupert Doan in Hamilton County Municipal Court that he did it as part of a "street arts project" for a basic design class at OU.

"To sow get a grade for this type of project?" Doan asked.

Ater said he would give himself a B+ for his efforts, adding, "I could have got an A if I had made it from one side of the field to the other."

"I wish you a... of luck in your academic endeavors," Judge Doan replied. "After this, confine it to the Little League."

He fined Ater $100 and court costs. A check with Ater's art professor at OU confirmed that Ater did not expect the story for the court's benefit.

The project had been discussed in class, and some of Ater's classmates had chipped in to help him pay what they thought would be a maximum $50 fine.

Wayne Jewett, who teaches the class, explained that the idea was for his students to overcome their self-consciousness and inhibitions by doing things they ordinarily would never consider.

The students had to come up with their own projects.

Most of the projects were not as spectacular as Ater's.

(One student collected toenail and fingernail clippings from strangers.)

Another walked into a grocery store and bagged groceries for an hour then left without anyone's questioning him.

Another tried to get a free meal at a restaurant by offering to wash dishes or mop. He was tossed out.

One group of students offered to wash windows for free. Most people turned them down.

Another group tried to buy lemons for strangers on the street. Most people turned them down, too.

"The idea is to get inside yourself, to discover the fears that stop you from functioning," Jewett said. "It's actually an experiment on my part, too."

Jewett said he had never tried anything like this in his classes before, and "From the way this turned out we probably won't do it again," he said.

A Good Little Motto - "A man's worth depends upon what he contributes - not upon what he obtains. It depends on what he does with his life, how much he adds to the peace, health, happiness and beauty of this world."

Memorial Day in Morehead was almost like a homecoming. We saw friends who had moved away many years ago. They returned in memory of their parents or other relatives who are buried in area cemeteries.

The cemeteries in Morehead and all over Rowan County never looked nicer than on Memorial Day of 1974. Even the virtually abandoned ones had been groomed with volunteer labor.

Community efforts like this make us real proud to be a citizen of this progressive community.

The Morehead News will have a special supplement this summer about projected populations. It will show Rowan County's 1970 census 17,010; projected population in 1975 at 18,439, 1980 - 19,896, 1990 - 23,218, year 2000 - 26,198, and 2020 - 31,063.

The projections, compiled by Spindletop Research, forecast that almost all of eastern Kentucky will drastically lose population in the next 50 years except Boyd, Greenup and Rowan counties. Nearby Montgomery County is also projected to double its present census.

Between 1960 and 1971, one in every five births in Kentucky was to a mother aged 19 or under. The national ratio was one in seven.

"Pregnancy among our high school youth is a growing concern and one of the same contributing factors to the dropout rate," says Dr. Lyman V. Ginger, state superintendent of Public Instruction.

Michael Harris went back to school in Okeechobee, Fla., this week minus a set of eyeglasses. The 11-year-old was working on a model airplane Sunday when he got some "Krazy Glue" in his eye. He rubbed the eye and found he couldn't open it. Neither could his parents. Then followed a trip to a local Okeechobee, Fla., hospital and a 150-mile roundtrip to Fort Lauderdale where an eye surgeon finally cut off Miles eye lashes enabling the boy to open his eye. Luckily the glue had stuck only to the eyelashes.

The Agriculture Department has reported results of a national survey showing what a lot of mothers have known all along. Many children don't like Brussels sprouts and turnips.

Sprouts, mentioned by 38 per cent of the boys and 37 per cent of the girls surveyed, also was comparatively high on the "don't like" list. But it was outranked by Brussels sprouts and eggplant (52 per cent), turnips (50 per cent) asparagus (49 per cent), beans (41 per cent), broccoli (44 per cent), cauliflower (43 per cent), okra (44 per cent) and squash (41 per cent).

"A vegetable may be high in vitamins and minerals and easy to prepare - but, unless the homemaker and other household members like its taste, it is not likely to appear very often on the family dinner table," the report said.

Corn and white potatoes, were "particularly liked" by about three-fourths of the surveyed adults and the same ratio of youngsters aged 2 to 19.

Anna sat on poison ivy at Girl Scout Camp and ended up in the hospital. Her younger sister, seriously bothered about sending a telegram acceptable to Western Union, finally figured this one out:

"Ann in hospital stop sending places upset by poison ivy stop end in sight."

When man first came down out of the trees, it is probable that his first dwellings were caves. In those days, it was his house that man didn't know from a hole in the ground.

After a month of married life, the glamour wore off and the young couple went to see a psychiatrist. After talking to the couple for a

Factually Correcting An Erroneous Report

I am in the process of developing about 12 acres of land in West Morehead into family type housing, and I am confident that this development will improve the image of West Morehead, and also provide much needed family type housing in our community.

In some manner that is not understandable to me, a rumor has mildly developed that I am moving dirt from the banks of Triplet Creek, recently widened and straightened by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

This is to advise that: 1. The dirt that I have moved is "spoil" from the creek widening; is on my property; and belongs to me; and 2. The use or moving of this "spoil" residue in no way creates a flood hazard or affects the creek widening.

In other words, I am not doing anything illegally or anything that creates a flood hazard to any person or their property. Instead, I feel that I am making a significant contribution to Morehead, particularly West Morehead, with this housing development.

The above is recited as the factual facets of this situation, and to clarify any false rumors to the contrary.

while the psychiatrist suddenly swept the woman into his arms and kissed her. "Now," said the doctor, looking at the husband, "this is the treatment she needs Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays."

"Very good, Doc," said the husband. "I can bring her here on Mondays and Wednesdays, but on Fridays I play golf. You will have to come to the house."

The young man wired home from his job, saying, "Made freedom, feather in my cap." After some weeks, he wired home again: "Made manager, feather in my cap."

A few days later came another wire: "Fired, send money for fare home."

His dubious young wife unfeelingly wired back: "Use feathers and fly home."

It was clear that both Smith and Jones proposed to Joan. I wonder which one is the lucky fellow.

"It's too early to say yet, but she accepted Smith."

A bachelor is a man who has no ties except those that need pressing.

While the bride rested after the trip, the groom disappeared into the dressing room of the honeymoon suite. Coming out, he tossed his trousers on her lap.

"Put 'em on," he commanded.

"Don't be silly," she said. "You know I can't wear them."

"And don't you ever forget that," said the groom. "I make the pants around here. I'll make the decisions and handle the money."

So saying, he climbed into bed while his bride went to change into her nightgown.

When she came out, she tossed her panties on his lap. "Put those on," she said.

"Ah, come on," he protested, "you know I can't. I wouldn't begin to get into them."

"And you never will," she said sweetly, "until you change your attitude."

There is no sense in advertising your troubles; there is absolutely no market for them.

Howan and area farmers will produce more burley this year than anytime in history if they can get the fertilizer and labor. Burley was increased 15 percent, and most farmers had a carry over because they didn't market their poundage quotas last year due to poor growing weather conditions.

Cigarettes increased in price by about 12 cents a carton last week.

We never had much use for Charlie Finley, that old insurance purveyor and self-proclaimed insurance salesman, has the faculty of getting his name in the newspapers for doing nothing. He is the man who has called that players on the Oakland baseball team grow mustaches, and hired Adolph Rupp as a PR consultant for the Memphis pro basketball club.

Finley is, in our book, a cheapskate. The following UPI press release is a case in point.

Can the estranged wife of insurance magnate and sports proprietor Charles J. Finley find happiness and pay the bills on $100 a week?

Finley says she can.

Judge Alfred J. Spornik of the Porter County Circuit Court has under advisement counterclaims of Finley and his wife of 32 years given during a two-day hearing.

Shirley Finley filed for divorce March 15, maintaining there was an "irretrievable breakdown" in their marriage. She had been receiving $1250 a week under a temporary order and asked this week the payments be raised to $1750 to keep her in the style to which she said she is accustomed.

Finley, owner of the Oakland A's of the American League and the Memphis Teams of the American Basketball Assn., claimed he can't afford either figure.

He said prior to their breakup, Mrs. Finley ran their 250-acre spread at Laporte, Ind., for about $100 a week. He suggested she now receive the same amount, plus some "reasonable" household expenses.

Court sources indicated a decision might be issued Monday or Tuesday.

Mrs. J. Finley estimated her weekly expenses at $95 for maid service, $175 for a handyman-gardener, $140 for food for herself and three of the couple's seven children, $50 for the operation of two cars, $180 for clothing, $100 for incidentals plus more than $200 a month for utilities for their 18-room, seven-bathroom house and annual vacations totaling about $10,000.

Talk about a run of tough luck - this is what happened last week to a man in Latina, Italy.

Miguel Crescenzo, 23, crashed his car into a tree and was badly injured.

A passing motorist drove him to the hospital at Fondi where doctors ordered him taken to Rome for neurological treatment. The speeding ambulance hit an oncoming car.

A passerby rushed him to the hospital at Latina where he was sent in another ambulance toward Rome.

Kentucky Power Company announced this week plans to construct 155.1 miles of 765,000 volt transmission lines from Greenup County to Trimble County, just east of Louisville.

We have the inside info that Kentucky Power will follow with the construction of a huge multi-million dollar generating plant on the Ohio River at St. Paul in Lewis County.

John N. Browning, 75, industrialist, philanthropist and civic leader, died on Monday last week at his Maysville home following a long illness.

Some considered him Mr. Maysville. Most knew him simply as Mr. John Browning.

Browning was a life-long resident of Maysville and founder of the Tom Browning Boys Club. He helped start the Maysville Community College, was past president of the Maysville Country Club and recently served on the college development council of the University of Kentucky.

He was best known for a gift he and his wife, Carlisle Chenuatt Browning, pledged in July 1972 to Haywood Hospital in Maysville.

The hospital was in trouble financially and unable to recruit new physicians, when the Brownings decided to contribute enough money to allow construction of a medical arts building.

"We made the contribution because it seemed foolish to wait until later to give to a charitable organization when the money is needed now," Browning said then.

"There's no way of measuring how valuable the new medical building will be to the community," said hospital administrator Earl Langquist.

Langquist said the gift, the amount of which was undisclosed, probably kept the hospital from closing down part of its services. The new wing is nearing completion.

Browning was born Dec. 7, 1888, in Louisville. At the age of 16 he took over much of the operation of the Ohio Valley Pulley Co., a manufacturing plant founded by his father and great uncle.

He later remained in the Browning Transmission Co. and the firm in recent years merged with Emerson Electric Co.

Browning married his childhood sweetheart, the girl who lived next door, in 1923.

They celebrated their 50th anniversary July 26.

John was just interested in doing everything he could that would be good for Maysville, his wife, Carlisle, said.

Last issue we wrote in this column about the plentiful supply of jambo frogs in Rowan County. At the time, we were getting our information from a man who is the grating of our telephone rang at 3:30 in the afternoon.

You put in the paper about all the frogs. Four of us have been out all night and we don't have a dozen.

We could almost smell the alcohol on his breath. I told him to go to hell, rolled over and went back to sleep.

At the start of this column we mentioned that Morehead was the site of the first arrest of a streaker by state police.

We can boast of another "first" or "best." The best baseball playing field in Kentucky is the John "Sonny" Allen Field in Morehead.

That's the reason the Kentucky High School baseball championship finals will be played here June 3, 4, 5 and 6.

Morehead Last week's issue of the Morehead News carried a feature story about the Hobbrook and Calvert families being lost on Cave Run reservoir.

The account said that they were rescued by a power boat operated by District Forest Ranger Richard Bonyala. The rescue boat was operated by Bo Bo Crawford, who is with the Department of Motor Transportation. We regret the error and hasten to make this correction.

Anyways, we suggest you boaters keep off Cave Run lake until it's officially opened to the public.

Motorists from this area enroute to or returning from Cincinnati have been forced to detour on U.S. 52 in Ohio because of a slide just west of Ripley. The massive earth movement carried part of the highway into the Ohio river. We can report today that the road has been rebuilt, and the detour no longer necessary.

Morehead would be a better place to live if we had more do-ers and fewer complainers.

Come June 21 there'll be no more executive sessions or secret caucuses by any law supported agency whether elective or appointive. Kentucky's Open Meetings law becomes effective then and we think the public will be better informed. There are those in public positions who think the taxpayer is not entitled to know how his money is being spent.

Our granddaughter gave the correct definition of inflation in an essay. She wrote that inflation is when you put more and more for less and less. The fashion designers change women's styles every year so they'll purchase new garments. It is our conclusion that styles for women have been changing ever since Eve wore a fig leaf.

The House Judiciary Committee and the President are evidently on a collision course and it doesn't seem that either is going to chicken out. The sillier young people seem to you, the longer it takes, the more you are young and as silly as they are.

Extra $300,000 Allocated For Road Striping Paint

By Bill Claxon
The State Bureau of Highways has allocated an additional $300,000 for the purchase of traffic paint for striping highways.

R. R. Flenor, director of the Department of Transportation's Division of Traffic, said that the appropriation enabled his agency to contract for 335,000 gallons of paint, which represents 92 per cent of the project's requirement.

"Now," Flenor says, "if we can just get the paint."

According to Flenor, there is a striping paint shortage caused by raw material shortages, which prevent manufacturers from meeting their consumers' needs.

"One of our suppliers says these shortages are worldwide," said Flenor.

The Division of Traffic needed 359,000 gallons of paint to maintain a normal striping program this year. "However, we were only able to get contracts for 335,000 gallons of paint - 35,000 less than what we used last year."

"Even worse," Flenor adds, "is the fact we may not get all we contracted for because the shortage of raw components used in manufacturing the paint prevents the companies from guaranteeing a given amount."

"Normally by this time of year we would have 30 per cent of our needs and by the end of June 100 per cent. But this year we have

Fewer Youths Request Summer Work Permits

Not as many Kentucky youths have requested job permits this year as last year, but the Kentucky Department of Labor is preparing for the usual summer deluge. Department records show 6,270 employment certificates were issued to Kentuckians aged 14 through 17 from January through April 1974. This year, the number was 5,061.

When the certificate is issued, the board of education sends a copy of it to the Labor Department. And though there haven't been as many of them as last year, Parrish says, "we're ready for them."

Two Moreheadians Awarded Regular Army Commission

Aleson Lake and Paul Caudill of Morehead are among 10 Morehead State University ROTC cadets recently awarded a Regular Army commission. Selection for a Regular Army commission is highly competitive, as evidenced by the fact that nationally only 50 per cent of those who applied were awarded a Regular Army commission.

History Professor's Works Published

Two articles and a book review by Dr. Victor B. Howard, professor of history at Morehead State University, recently were published in scholarly journals. "The Slavery Controversy and Domestic Missions" appeared in the 1974 "Year Book of the American Philosophical Society."

ORDINANCE TO REGULATE TRAFFIC ON BRIDGE STREET IN MOREHEAD, KENTUCKY

Be it ordained by the Board of City Council of the City of Morehead, Kentucky, as follows: Section 1. That Bridge Street from its intersection with Main Street on the North to its intersection with Rowan Street on the South shall be a one-way street with traffic moving only from North to South between the said Main Street intersection and the said Rowan Street intersection.

ATTENST MRS. FORENE B. CASTLE, CITY CLERK

INVITATION TO BID

The Morehead Utility Plant Board will receive bids until 7:30 p.m. local time on June 6, 1974. All bids will be opened at 10 a.m. at the office of the Board located at 109 Bishop Ave., Morehead, Ky.

All bidders should make an on site inspection of this work before bidding

All bidders should make an on site inspection of this work before bidding. Contact Herman Brown, Supt. at 784-5538 for an on site inspection.

FOR SALE - Four-bedroom house on 21 acre farm, many improvements.

FOR SALE - 1972 Ford Maverick, six cylinder, automatic. Call 784-6083.

Enforce Child Labor Laws

According to Parrish, the certificates help the department enforce state child labor laws. Usually, the department revokes more than 100 permits each year - usually because the occupation is considered hazardous.

Hours Are Limited

The 16- and 17-year-olds, including school drop-outs, can work from 6 a.m. until 10 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and until midnight Friday and Saturday. They may work up to four hours on school days and eight hours on other days.

your week ahead by DR. A.W. DANIS

- ARIES Mar. 21 - Apr. 19: The moment someone mentions a good deal... beware! Your chart warns against becoming involved in a "get rich" scheme. Really, it's not the time to start a project.
TAURUS Apr. 20 - May 20: No doubt whatsoever, your sign has the urge to tamper with affairs of secret order. So, avoid the temptation to carry malicious gossip.
GEMINI May 21 - June 20: For you! Members of the opposite sex, most certainly, will hold the spotlight. Anyway, you'll make points in some unexpected area. Look for surprises!
MOONCHILD June 21 - July 20: Might sound like "stock" advice. Nonetheless, before you sign, please read documents that must be attended to - before the end of this month.
LEO July 21 - Aug. 22: You just might... talk a little too loud, and a little too long. Most members of your sign are prone to becoming too pushy this week.
VIRGO Aug. 23 - Sept. 22: Several opportunities are heading your way, in ending a rather tempting overture. The point? Don't disrupt your present living pattern. Hold on to security.
LIBRA Sept. 23 - Oct. 22: Over indulgence and physical pleasures seem to be in this week's stellar pattern. Discretion is in order - for most members of your sign. One other thing? Check your grooming.
SCORPIO Oct. 23 - Nov. 21: Telling the truth is one thing; at whose expense is another. This week, it seems as though you will receive data or evidence that could harm an associate.
SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22 - Dec. 21: According to your chart, things will get worse - before they improve. A major reversal will prove to be an advantage, in the long haul.
CAPRICORN Dec. 22 - Jan. 19: Look for a behind the scene romance to affect your job, task or project, in one form or another. Incidentally, it's not a good week for speculation.
AQUARIUS Jan. 20 - Feb. 18: Your chart is painted with a broad brush of optimism. A series of events, this week will inspire you with new ambitions.
PISCES Feb. 19 - Mar. 20: Many under your sign, must wait out a bad situation that has now developed with members of the opposite sex. Other Pleureans must guard valuables.

Shootout Mars Grayson Memory Days; One Killed

Everybody who attended will remember annual "Memory Days" this year at Grayson.

The big downtown parade Saturday was followed with a "wild west" shooting incident which left one Carter County man dead. The circumstances, according to Kentucky State Police —

The long parade had just concluded
when witnesses said they saw Edward Lolen
Hale, 25, of 804 Marie St., Grayson, jump from a car with a gun in hand, and dodge through the parade jammed traffic.

Hale then started shooting into the rear of a car in which Earl Michael Suttles, 24, Mayhew Flats, sat talking to a woman. Hale used a .44 magnum pistol and at least four shots were fired and two bullet holes found in the car. Suttles had his back turned to Hale at the time.

Suttles opened the car door, and emerged with a single cartridge shotgun.

Hale kept advancing on the car and toward Suttles who was holding the shotgun.
Suttles then fired the shotgun at fairly close range, the entire load hitting Hale in the left side.

Hale died within a few minutes.
Suttles was arrested and jailed on a charge of drunkenness.

Police said the shooting, witnessed by hundreds at the Memory Days celebration, had nothing to do with the festivities, but the two men had held a long standing grudge.

ROWAN STUDENTS TO ATTEND BUSINESS ENTERPRISE WORKSHOP

Rick Armstrong and Joyce Curtis will represent Rowan County at the State American Private Business Enterprise Workshop to be held on the campus of the University of Kentucky the week of June 17.

Both Armstrong and Curtis received awards during the American Private Business Enterprise Banquet here last week. Others receiving awards were Rebs Kidd, Connie Caudill, Teresa Stinson, Chris Schmidt, and Rhelda Jones.

Leaders are Lloyd Dean and Bud Stidom. Bill Marshall served as speaker for the banquet.

"Good cooking electrically can be efficient cooking too!"

Nancy Veatch, Home Economist

Cooking vegetables in just a little water — only 1 1/2 tender — means better, more nutritious eating, while cutting cooking time for more efficient use of range and electricity. Match pan sizes to surface coils and you'll utilize all heat.

When using the oven, remember that several dishes (for a complete meal) cook as economically as one. Put them in the instant oven is preheated and avoid heat-wasting peeking. Our home-making experts can suggest other cooking time savers to help you enjoy full value from your range and electricity. Simply call one of our home service representatives.

Board Of Gateway Organization Seated

Members of the board of directors of the Gateway Community Service Organization, the agency formally seated at a recent meeting at the Rowan County Courthouse.

The officers of the organization are Henry Cline, Haldeman, chairman of the board; Larry Smith, Ezel, vice-chairman; Rhea Harger, Frenchburg, secretary-treasurer.

The organization will accept and operate Community Service Programs that relate to the entire community and especially to target area residents located in Rowan, Morgan, Montgomery, Menifee and Bath Counties. The agency is primarily funded by the Federal Office of Economic Opportunity.

Location of the area office has not been determined.

I REMEMBER THE GOOD OLD DAYS

From Alabarta Courtright, Alvin, Texas: I remember how Mama made onion soup the pot as large Bermuda onions (sliced very thin) into a big blue crock. She heated a cup of sugar in half a cup of water until it boiled. This was poured over the onions. Over this she put a heavy plate and weighed it with a clean flat iron (the cast iron kind with the built in handle). When the syrup was prepared she took it off and everyone who would take it whether they had a cough or not. I know what that onion syrup did not help to ward off coughs or colds, but I know that it was choctful of vitamins.

Then there was the onion pool. Use Mama made by heating the sliced onions and pouring them into a salt sack (remember the cloth ones!) and pouring the whole mess warm into a vest on the chest. I do not know how much it helped, but I am here to remember.

Ann Landers

Copyright - Field Enterprises, Inc.

Dear Ann Landers: A while back you asked teen-age boys to write and tell you how they felt about losing their virginity. I laughed when I read the letter because somehow one doesn't think of boys as "virgins." Then I stopped laughing and began to think seriously about my first sexual experience.

I was 16 and the girl was 15. I really didn't like her very much but I wanted to see if I could score because all the guys in my crowd were talking about the chicks they were knocking off and I was the only one who didn't have anything to my credit.

It was a crummy thing I did. I lied and told the girl I had been crazy about her for a long time — a real snow job.

The whole "affair" lasted five minutes. I felt like a heel immediately after. When I took her home I didn't even kiss her goodnight.

I never called her for a date after that and I'm sure I hurt her feelings something terrible. I used that dumb kid for my own selfish purposes and to this day I regret it.

Sex without love is lousy. I hope every guy who reads this will remember what I am saying. It took me two years to get over that experience. The next time I had sex, it was with a girl I really cared about, and I married her. — No Name Please.

Dear No Name: Thanks for telling it like it was.

Dear Ann Landers: I am beginning to think I have bats in the belfry. Please tell me if you think I'm crazy.

When I was in my early 20s I enjoyed men my own age, and I married one. We had a good marriage for eight years, until Jim died in a tragic accident. It took me a solid year to get over it.

When I once again began to enjoy the company of men, they were in their 30s, and so was I. Now I'm in my 50s. I never remarried but I have several gentleman friends who are also in their 50s.

The point I want to make is this: Why do so many young girls run after men who are 20 and 30 years older than themselves? It's got to be money because these girls are not chasing older men of modest means. It's always some rich geezer. I call it prostitution no matter how you look at it.

Don't these girls realize that when the glamour wears off they'll be bored stiff and stuck playing nurse to some sick old huzzard? Why don't you tell them, Ann? — Seen It Happen.

Dear Happen: When they ask me, I tell 'em. But everyone knows of at least one exception to which they fendsidly point to prove you're all wet. (I know a few myself.)

Dear Ann Landers: Please tell your readers recovered alcoholics and handicapped people make the best employees. As the personnel director for a large firm I can vouch for them — both men and women.

The A.A.S. and the handicapped are my most valuable employees. Their attendance record is by far the best and their job performance superior. It means a great deal to these people that someone had enough faith in them to give them a chance.

Please, Ann, urge your readers to hire recovered alcoholics and the handicapped. — Proof Positive.

Dear Proof: Right you are! And I'd like to add a third group. Ex-convicts have proven to be excellent employees. Come on, folks, give these people a break. They really need it.

MAN FALLS THROUGH GLASS OF WINDOW AT RESIDENCE

A 25-year-old city of Olive Hill employe is in satisfactory condition at the University of Kentucky Medical Center following a severe cut he received at his home Saturday evening.

Sherman Henderson sustained a cut on his right arm which ran from his elbow to his wrist, cutting the main artery and all ligaments, when he accidentally fell through a glass door at his home.

Breck Student Awarded Grant From Georgetown

Don DeBorde, director of Admissions at Georgetown College, has announced that John Keller Back II of Morehead will receive a College Opportunity Grant from Georgetown College.

Back is a senior at University Breckinridge School and has been a member of the Beta Club, Key Club, basketball, track and cross country teams while in high school. He has been named to "Who's Who Among American High School Students" and has won numerous awards due to his outstanding athletic ability.

Supplemental Security Income

A new federal program that improves the financial well-being of millions of needy Americans who are old, blind or disabled, regardless of age, recently went into effect. The new program is called Supplemental Security Income (SSI).

Because of this new federal assistance program, the income of people who are 65 or older, blind or disabled, will not be allowed to fall below a nationally established standard.

Instead of having a different plan in each of the fifty states and Washington, D.C., a federal system with uniform eligibility requirements and uniform payments has been established.

Supplemental Security Income replaces three federal-state programs—old age assistance, aid to the blind, and aid to the permanently and totally disabled. The Social Security Administration will administer SSI and make payments.

Supplemental Security Income will establish a nationally uniform income floor for people in need. The amount of the payments they get will depend on how much other income they might have.

If you know an aged, blind or disabled person who may need this supplemental income and is not now getting assistance, you may wish to suggest they call their local Social Security Office.

Lions Club Celebrating Anniversary

The Morehead Lions Club will celebrate its 25th anniversary Saturday, June 8, with a banquet and dance at the Morehead Holiday Inn beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Past International President Finis E. Davis of Louisville, vice president and general manager of the American Printing House for the Blind, will be the principal speaker at the banquet.

During the evening the local club will recognize all past presidents, along with their charter members. The club was chartered in 1949 and is one of the oldest civic groups in the community. Its primary activity is in sight conservation.

Lions members and officers of Lions International from throughout the state will be on hand for the banquet.

The guest speaker, Davis, is a native of Lead Hill, Ark., and was educated at Lead Hill High School, Arkansas Polytechnic College and the University of Arkansas. He has been recognized as a distinguished alumnus of the University of Arkansas and has been admitted to Arkansas Polytechnic college's Hall of Distinction.

Most of his career has been in work for the blind. He is a former member of the faculty at the Arkansas School for the Blind where he also served as superintendent of the school.

MERITORIOUS AWARD

Debby Lee Thomas of Morehead, seated, General Telephone Company of Kentucky service assistant in the Morehead District, shows Kay Hyron, operator services manager, the certificate of meritorious service she was presented for her effective handling of a situation that could have resulted in death for a man who had taken an overdose of sleeping pills. The award is presented by General Telephone & Electronics Corporation to recognize and honor employees who display heroic actions.

On May 14, 1972, an operator transferred a call to Mrs. Thomas after the customer indicated that he was "about to die" and wanted to "talk to someone on the Help Line." She questioned the customer and learned that he was calling from a coin telephone in front of a motel in Olive Hill. She then had another operator alert police and had an ambulance dispatched to the motel. She also notified the motel owners and instructed them to try to keep the customer awake until help arrived.

Mother Of MSU Regent Member Dies In Hospital

Mrs. Susie (Robinson) Kibbey, 77, of Grayson, mother of Sam F. Kibbey, Ashland, a member of the Morehead State University Board of Regents, died Thursday in King's Daughters Hospital at Ashland.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Grayson of which she was a member. Burial was in Carter County Memory Gardens.

Mrs. Kibbey was a retired school teacher and a lifelong Carter County resident. Her husband, Delbert Kibbey, preceded his wife in death.

Besides the son who is a member of the MSU Board and legal counsel for Ashland Oil and Refining Co., she leaves another son, Jack R. Kibbey, also of Ashland, a brother, Boyd Circuit Court Judge George M. Kibbey, grandchild, and six great grandchildren.

County Officials Don't Have To Account For State 'Expense' Funds

The Kentucky attorney general's office has reversed itself and now says certain county officials will not have to account to anyone after June 21 for their state expense allowances.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Charles Runyan, in an opinion released Thursday, said a restudy of three 1974 laws suggests that was the intent of the General Assembly. The opinion was in response to a query from State Auditor Mary Louise Foust.

Runyan previously had said the county officials would have to confirm for their fiscal court that their state allowance had not paid expenses for which they were seeking reimbursement by the county. He said then that 1974 laws saying the officials did not have to keep records for that allowance applied only to reporting to the state, not the county.

A review of the 1974 laws, however, changed his mind, Runyan said. Now, he said, it seems evident the legislature meant for there to be no accounting to anyone for that allowance.

The state now pays a flat allowance of up to $2,400 a year to county judges, $2,750 to county attorneys and $2,100 to county sheriffs, a sum which will go up to $3,600 a year beginning July 1, 1976, if state revenue exceeds last year's estimate.

The officials still will have to document their expenses to be reimbursed by the county, Runyan said, but they will not have to show whether or not the state allowance paid for some of them.

"It is not our role to question the policy of the General Assembly," Runyan said.

Father Of Mrs. Loretta Markwell Dies At Age 73

Ernest (Handle) Clark, 73, of Olive Hill, father of Mrs. Loretta Markwell of Morehead, died Sunday in King's Daughters Hospital at Ashland.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at Henderson Branch Apostolic Church in Carter County by Reverends Jack Boggs and Edward Messer, with interment in Watson cemetery.

Mr. Clark was born in Carter County July 27, 1900, son of the late Thomas and Reida (Albright) Clark. He was a retired employee of General Refractories. His wife, Mrs. Ella (Cooks) Clark, died in 1967.

Immediate survivors are two sons, eight daughters, a brother, a half-brother, 44 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

New Oil Discovery

Gulf Oil Company-U.S. announced that a significant oil discovery has been made by this Mariner II semiautonomous rig in the Gulf of Mexico, 110 miles southeast of New Orleans. The discovery well is the first wildcat to be drilled on acreage leased by the Federal Government in December, 1973. Gulf (50%) and its partners—Texaco and Tenneco (25%)—paid $61 million for the lease on the 5,044-acre tract. The company said multiple oil-bearing sands were logged and cored to a depth of 8,391 feet on the well which has been projected for 10,000 feet. Although development drilling on the tract will continue into 1975, Gulf said oil from the new discovery probably will not begin flowing to U.S. consumers before 1976, due to the long lead times necessary to build and install production facilities. The Mariner II rig is owned and operated by Santa Fe Drilling Company.

Vikings Advance To Finals In Regional Baseball Meet

This issue of the Morehead News went to press Wednesday before the final game of the regional baseball tournament was played between Rowan County and Bath County. The winner will meet Trinity of Louisville Monday in first round play of the state tournament which will be held June 1, 4, 5 and 6 at John "Sonny" Allen field in Morehead.

One thing is certain — the regional high school baseball championship will rest this year near the edge of the Licking River. The finalists, both pre-tourney underdogs, are Rowan County High of Morehead and Bath County High, Owingsville. Both finalists are from the extreme west end of the region that extends throughout northeastern Kentucky to the Virginia line. RCHS defeated Greenup County 6-5, and Bath County used a strong defense and pitching to oust Prestonsburg 1-0 in semi-final matches at the Johnson Central Field in Paintsville Tuesday.

RCHS defeated Virgie 7-2 in first round play. Virgie made its only runs in the top half of the first inning, but RCHS came back with three tallies in the bottom of the opening inning, and added four more in the fourth.

Thompson drove in three of the Viking runs while Kiser had two hits and knocked in one tally.

Greenup County pulled the 'big' upset in the regional by beating favored Paintsville 5-2 in opening round competition. Martin was the winning pitcher.

Bath County, with Sneedgar hurling a two hitter, upset Boyd County 7-1 in the first round. The Vikings advanced to the semi-finals with a 3-2 victory over Phelps.

Coach Trent has one of the best tournament records of any high school baseball coach in Kentucky. He has twice taken the Vikings to the state tournament during the past four years; and lost to Owensboro in the state championship finals two years ago.

Jaycee Little League Opens Play June 5

Athletes May Be Penalized

Morehead State University President Adron Doran said Friday that at least seven MSU athletes may be ineligible for the 1974-75 school year because of erroneous instructions given the University by Ohio Valley Conference Commissioner Arthur L. Gause.

Heading the list are 6-6 senior guard Gene Frye in basketball and senior wrestler Mickey Ryzmek. Others on the list, which does not include football, are pitcher James Duff in baseball, distance Dennis Schaefer and Doug Osborn in track, golfer Bob Breimeyer and diver Billy Lowe in swimming.

Dr. Doran said the university's admissions staff had not completed checking the status of returning football players.

"We are sorely disappointed that this situation developed without our knowledge," President Doran added. "It is appalling to think these young men may be penalized for something neither they nor the University caused."

Dr. Doran said MSU would report its situation to the NCAA as soon as all records have been examined to determine if other athletes were declared eligible on the basis of SAT scores instead of ACT test results.

Records in the MSU registrar's office indicate that nearly all of the affected athletes took the ACT after enrolling.

"Our athletic personnel acted on the written advice of the conference commissioner," Dr. Doran said. "This situation is primarily the result of the incompetent administration of the conference commissioner."

"Time is running out," says Gloomy Gus, "I'm fast running out with it."

Trent Shows Faith In Randy

Wallace struck out the next batter, but then he walked in a run.

At this time the Viking coach, Ted Trent, went to the mound and most fans thought he would bring in a replacement for Wallace who has having trouble getting the ball over the plate.

Wallace mixed curve balls with hard fast inside pitches to strike out the next batter which left the bases loaded with two away. Trent yelled encouragement from the sidelines and Wallace, again resorting to both sliders and his good fast ball, put everything he had into his pitches and struck out the final batter.

The Morehead fans, and they were plentiful in the stands, let out a mighty roar after the last pitch.

Actually, Thomas struck out all three batters in that nerve-racking job inning.

The winner of the Rowan County-Bath County game Wednesday will advance to the state tournament to be held next week at the John "Sonny" Allen Field in Morehead. The winner meets powerful Trinity High, champion of the Louisville regional.

The "key" factor of the Vikings win over Greenup County in the semi-finals was that Coach Trent had faith in and struck with Randy Wallace in that 7th inning.

Vikings Down Virgie 7-2

And, the significant factor was that Wallace recovered from his own wildness, plus two errors by teammates, to strike out three men in that last inning.

Wallace also hurled the entire game as

Tommie Clay, 14, Youngest To Make Hole-In-One Here

Tommie Clay, age 14, is the youngest player to ever make a hole-in-one at the University Golf Course in Morehead.

He accomplished the feat over the weekend on the par three, number eight hole. Tommie is the son of Commonwealth Attorney James Clay and Maxine Clay.

Four senior witnesses saw the feat and signed the score card. Tommie was using a PGA ball which means that he will receive many prizes from the Professional Golfers Association.

Morehead Hosting State Tournament

The 34th annual Kentucky High School Baseball Tournament opens Monday at Morehead State University.

The four-day tournament, to be played at MSU's John "Sonny" Allen Field, is sponsored by the Kentucky High School Athletic Association.

Play begins Monday at 2 p.m. with Louisville Trinity (26-7) meeting the winner of the Johnson Central Regional, Somerset (21-5) faces the Ohio County Regional winner at 4 p.m.

Tuesday's action will send Elizabethtown (34-5) against Covington Holy Cross (26-7) at 2 p.m. and the Lexington Regional winner against the Murray Regional winner at 4 p.m.

Semi-finals are scheduled Wednesday at 2 and 4 p.m., with the championship game set Thursday at 2 p.m.

MSU President Adron Doran and K.H.S.A.A. Commissioner Joe B. Mansfield will throw out the ceremonial first pitch before Monday's opener.

The eight regional winners will be attempting to succeed Lexington Henry Clay at the state high school baseball champion. This year is the first time the tournament has been held outside Lexington.

Question

We have a brother who is a patient in a Veteran's Hospital. What should we do to be prepared for the possibility that he might die there?

Answer

The hospital or the domiciliary where your brother is a patient should have our name and phone number with instructions to notify us. When death occurs to a veteran in a Veteran's Administration facility the veteran is entitled to:

- (A) $250.00 funeral allowance or as much as $500.00 if death is service connected.
- (B) Transportation back home.
- (C) Burial space in a National Cemetery or a cemetery allowance of $150.00.
- (D) Grave marker.
- (E) Flag to cover the casket.

Our many years of experience are your assurance that we can materially lighten your burden of responsibility at this time.

Ben Mabry, 74, Claimed Saturday; Services Monday

Ben Mabry, 74, of Morehead, died Saturday at the University of Kentucky Medical Center in Lexington following a long illness.

A native of Elliott County, he was born Aug. 21, 1899, and was the son of the late Henry and Maude (Leadingham) Mabry. He was a member of the Church of God and a farmer. He had resided in Elliott and Rowan Counties all of his lifetime.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Zora Wagner Mabry of Morehead; two sons, William Mabry of Griffith, Ind., and Delmar Mabry of Saline, Mich.; one daughter, Mrs. Shelby Jean Jones of Morehead; three brothers, Reece and Willis Mabry, both of Olive Hill, and Jack Mabry of Mansfield, Ohio; two sisters, Mrs. Jossie Nichols of Olive Hill, and Mrs. Monie Harris of Sandy Hook, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Monday at the Clearfield Tabernacle by Revs. Scott Griffith and Clifford Price. Burial was in Brown Cemetery at Morehead.

pallbearers were John D. Barnett, Clyde Mays, Elmer Lewis, Roger Trent, Ben Butcher and Eldoe Roe.

Stucky Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Two Contests Will Be On November Ballot

Two races will appear on the general election ballot in this and 7th district counties to be held Tuesday, Nov. 5. They are:

- + For United States Senator, six year term — incumbent republican Marlow W. Cook versus Gov. Wendell H. Ford, the democratic nominee.
- + For U.S. House of Representatives, two year term — incumbent democrat Carl D. Perkins versus republican Granville Thomas.

Hardest fought race is expected to be for the Senate seat, and President Nixon and Watergate are certain to be among the issues.

Cook is from Louisville; Ford from Owensboro.

Until two years ago Kentucky had two republican Senators. But, the GOP nominee, former Governor Louie B. Nunn was upset by democrat Walter "Dee" Huddleston.

Democrats are hopeful this fall of electing Gov. Ford and thereby gaining both seats in the U.S. Senate.

Result of the race between Perkins and republican Thomas in the 7th district is almost a foregone conclusion. Perkins has never been defeated, and is dean of the Kentucky delegation in Congress with 25 years service.

Free Child Care Workshop Slated

A free workshop in child care is beginning on Tuesday morning, June 11, at Rowan County High School. Sponsored by Licking Valley Child Care Organization, a local non-profit volunteer organization, the workshop will last for eight weeks. It will meet on Tuesdays from 9 to 11 a.m. Free child care and snacks will be provided during the sessions.

The informal sessions will be geared to parents, baby sitters, day care operators and all interested in pre-school children. Mildred Wightman, chairwoman of the LVCCO program committee, said that the classes will include basic first aid and emergencies, meal planning for preschoolers, games and activities children like, inexpensive play materials you can make, understanding the needs of children of different ages, handling discipline problems, scheduling a good day, language development, art and music.

Committee members JoAnn Setser, Carol Karwaka and Inez Caudill will participate in the workshop. Other specialists who will talk to the group include UK extension specialists Bart Ashley and Joyce Shirrel, and Moreheadians Meri Allen, Jane Baxter, David Holt, Jan Brummett, Wayne Caldwell, Onelda Caudill, Betty Catts, Greta Duncan, Oval Hall, Don Kneisley, Louise Payne, Katherine Riddle and Thelma Skaggs.

RECIPE FOR YOUR RANGE KEEP THE HEAT FOR COOKING — If you use small amounts of water when cooking, foods will heat faster and you'll use less energy. Turn the surface unit on HIGH until the water begins to boil, then turn it down to the lowest setting at which water will simmer. Use pans that cover the surface units. You'll avoid wasted heat and prolonged cooking time. Pans also should have flat bottoms, straight sides and tight-fitting lids so the heat enters directly and stays there.
