Bath Liquor Stores Will Soon Close

Only Few Days Remain Before Local Option Law Becomes Effective

The days that Moreheadians can drive eight miles to the Bath County line and procure packaged whiskey and beer by the case are numbered—in fact they may total less than a week.

There is a chance that Bath County, which overwhelmingly voted for local option last year, may try Monday, January 20.

After the election the wets appealed the decision, but the dries contended before the late Circuit Judge Bridger that the case lacked merit and was only a subterfuge for the whiskey stores to stay open longer.

After hearing the evidence Judge White ruled there was some merit in the "wet" appeal and permitted the stores to remain open until the court of appeals has handed down a ruling.

The appellate body on December 20 upheld the election.

The "wets" announced they would file motion for a new hearing, and the court generally allows 30 days for this.

When Rowan County voted dry in 1943 most of the whiskey trade went to stores just across Licking River in Bath County.

Of Kentucky's 120 counties 92 are now totally dry, while some others have local option territory only. Only 14 counties are completely wet.

Sixty-four per cent of Kentucky's population now lives in dry units.

Morehead County, now dry, is planning an election on February 15, and the wets claim they will re-capture this tri-state precinct.

When Bath County goes dry the two closest places from Morehead where whiskey and beer can be legally bought are Morehead, 40 miles distant, and Mt. Sterling, 35 miles west.

Montgomery County has already voted dry which will make Winchester the closest point west on U. S. 60 that is wet when the election becomes effective at Mt. Sterling.

Bates Declines To Make Race For Governor

Congressman Pledges Support To Party; Group Meets Friday

In an effort to keep his name from adding to the current difficulties of the Democratic party in Kentucky, Representative Joe B. Bates, Lexington, announced today he is not a candidate for Governor, according to a news story written by Robert L. Riggs in the Louisville Courier-Journal.

"I fully realize the problem that confronts the Democratic party in Kentucky," Bates said. "I am not anxious to be a part of the answer rather than a part of the problem. Nobody who loves his state could decline to support its governor. But I have no illusions about it. I am ready to serve the party in any way that will increase its chances for victory next November. However, I am not a candidate for Governor."

The problem to which Bates referred is the effort of Democratic leaders to select a gubernatorial nominee without a vigorous primary contest between Representative Earle C. Clements, Morehead, and Harry Lee Waterfield, Clinton, Speaker of the Kentucky House of Representatives.

There have been suggestions that Bates would make a good compromise candidate because although his Eighth Congressional District had been thought to be in danger of going Republican last November, it actually increased the Democratic majority by which it re-elected Bates.

Ernest Black, Kentucky political writer for The Cincinnati Enquirer, presented Bates as a compromise candidate in a story last week in that publication.

By his announcement, Bates sought to remove his name from the discussion of possible candidates before the State Central Executive Committee meets Friday to consider two alternative plans proposed to avoid the Clements-Waterfield battle.

Men, Reaching 18th Birthday Are Required To Register

The local selective service board decided today that all men must register on their 18th birthday. They said that there seems to be some misunderstanding as to the meaning of the law.

The board said that it has not registered so far so immediately.

Eastern Topples Eagles; Vikings Eye Regional Halo

Eastern retained its unbeaten record last night by defeating Morehead 74 to 57 at Richmond.

Playing without the services of Captain Jack Pobst, who was out of the lineup due to the death of his father, the Morehead Eagles put on one of their worst performances Saturday evening in dropping a 99-82 overtime decision to Murray.

The Eagles were far off in their shooting, and could have won the contest in regulation time if they had connected with their free throws.

They rebounded Monday to beat Cedarville 89-45 in an uninteresting game.

The Eagles take on strong Miami University of the Army in Louisville Saturday in the second half of a twin bill. Eastern plays Davis-Elkin in the first game. Miami is originally scheduled to meet the Davis-Elkin team, but since Miami is rated 25 points stronger than Davis-Elkin, Eastern management changed the match to give Ellis Johnson's club the tougher opponent. This is in keeping with Johnson's request that he play the better ball club in each of the seven twin bills carded at the Louisville arena.

Morehead will see Eastern on Monday night. Eastern is scheduled to meet the Davis-Elkin team, but since Miami is rated 25 points stronger than Davis-Elkin, Eastern management changed the match to give Ellis Johnson's club the tougher opponent.

The Morehead Vikings who have won 18 games while losing two, are led by Berkley Cox, one of Kentucky's outstanding high school players.

MSTC Chapel Programs Have Good Speakers

The next four chapel programs at Morehead College will feature excellent speakers. Dr. William Jesse Baird, President, pointed out today.

On Thursday, January 16, Dr. Lee Allen Estes, a magician representing the Kentucky Highway Patrol, will speak on the importance of a driver's license.

The following Thursday, January 23, James W. Kennedy, secretary of the Kentucky Highway Patrol, will have charge of the program.

Rev. David H. Sageser, pastor of the Morehead Methodist Church, will address the assembly on Thursday, January 30.

On Thursday, February 6, the college will have a group of songs by Ernest Wolf, tenor. He will also give a concert in the college auditorium at 8 o'clock in the evening of the same day.

Karl Vogel, Ashland business executive, was the principal speaker on the chapel program this morning.

All of the above programs start at 11 o'clock a. m. A special invitation to the public is extended," Dr. Baird said.

BANKS CLOSE MONDAY

Morehead banks will be closed Monday in observance of Robert E. Lee's birthday.

That the school does not pay. Then, too, she must live the full fifty-two weeks in the year the same as the teacher, but she receives a check only part of the time.

In addition a special ladies program is scheduled to include discussions and demonstrations on plastics and clothing.

Youth Killed In Hunting Accident

14-Year-Old Boy Meets Death While Hunting Squirrels

Rowan County's first fatal hunting accident in two years occurred Sunday when Dennis Shelton Jones, 14-year-old son of John W. Jones and Bessie Harris Jones, was killed by an accidental shot while hunting squirrels on the farm near his home.

The accident happened on Green Mountain while Dennis and two brothers and two other boys were hunting squirrels. They cut down a tree to dislodge a squirrel and in the confusion Lebon Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dilard Johnson, a neighbor, accidentally shot young Jones.

Funeral services were held at the Lane Funeral Home in Morehead. Arrangements were handled by the Lane Funeral Home.

The boy's father is an employee at Curt's Motor Sales in Morehead.

Surviving besides the parents are 11 brothers and sisters: Amanda and Judith of Detroit; Elmer, Elmer Clayton, Versie, Wade, Teddy, Olive and Dale, all at home. Two other children of the family predeceased him in death.

Barley Price Remains Steady On 21 Markets

Average of $42.97 Reported Tuesday; End Of Rush In Sight

Sales on 21 Kentucky tobacco markets yesterday brought an average price of $42.25 which was 72 cents under Monday's record of $42.97 the State Department of Agriculture reported. The average was compiled on sales of 11,231,641 pounds.

Cynthiana reported an average of $47.54 to lead all other markets. Lexington's $46.04 was second and Harrodsburg was third with an average of $46.02.

The total of 452,236 pounds were sold at Mayville for $247,490.64, an average of $41.11. The average at Mt. Sterling was $41.96, and at Paducah $41.96.

Continued strong prices were welcomed by those growers who have been forced to sell their tobacco in the open market because crowded floor conditions kept them from delivering their crops.

Homeowners said last night that they were still under heavy pressure from growers seeking to make deliveries, but that the end of the big rush was in sight. More than half of the estimated 1946 crop throughout the barley belt has been marketed. They pointed out that the Lexington market, which has a longer sales season than most markets, is near its half-way mark. Within a week, a large part of the crop will have been delivered to the market.

That strong prices have continued throughout the season was attributed to less than usual production to the fact that a general market has prevailed because of the reduction of sales by the barley growers in the past few weeks to prevent congestion in redrying plants. Sales have been geared to the capacity of redryers and no big buyers have been forced to curtail purchases because of congestion, he pointed out.

High Excise Taxes Will Stay In Force

Republican Leaders Say They Will Go Along With President Truman

Chairman Knutson (R-Minn.) of the Ways and Means Committee announced this week that House Republican tax managers will sponsor quick passage of the excise tax bill.

Such action would coincide with a recommendation made by President Truman in a message to Congress last week.

Knutson said it might be approved by the tax-training committee on Friday.

The bill would remove the income tax on liquor, but he said the feeling was unanimous that "the country should be told what to expect" in excise levies.

Knutson made his statement following a meeting of the 15 Republican members of the Ways and Means group and he said the feeling was unanimous that "the country should be told what to expect" in excise levies.

Knutson said it might be approved by the tax-training committee on Friday.

L. A. Fair Is Elected To S.I.A.A. Post

Becomes Member Of Executive Committee

Prof. Linus Fair

At a meeting held in Jackson, Mississippi, December 13, 1946, L. A. Fair of the department of mathematics and physics of Morehead State Teachers College was elected vice-president of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association for the Fourth District of that body. Kentucky comprises the entire Fourth District. In his capacity as a vice-president of the S.I.A.A., Mr. Fair is automatically a member of the Executive Committee of this group and will also be required to pass on the eligibility of all college athletes in Kentucky with the exception of the University of Kentucky, which is not a member of the S.I.A.A., and Morehead. In the case of Morehead, the secretary of the association will pass on the eligibility of Eagle athletes.

This is the first time in the history of Morehead College that any representative from Morehead to the S.I.A.A. has held an official post in that body.

In other action taken at the Mississippi meeting the S.I.A.A. decided to hold its annual basketball tournament at Bowling Green, Kentucky, and to allow freshmen to compete in varsity athletics until September 1, 1946. No action was taken in regard to Morehead's being dropped from the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and Mr. Fair stated Tuesday that no action can be taken until the December, 1947, meeting which will probably be held in Miami, Florida.

Ranger's Column—

(Continued from Preceding Page) county is second only to that received by McCreary County. There are 47,312 acres of Government land in Rowan 150,066 in McCreary. The next highest acreage is in Laurel County which has 47,103 acres.

This disparity will adjust itself in years to come, for these thousands of acres of young growth in Rowan County are rapidly recovering from the effects of fire and destructive logging and beginning to put on valuable increment. There will come a day when the timber sold here will be proportionate to the area, which means support of more wood-using industries, more jobs, more income, and more revenue for the county treasury here and in our neighboring counties within the Cumberland Forest.

Every now and then—just often enough to make it interesting—I hear, directly or indirectly, of another person who reads this column. (Certainly does make me feel good.) In the thought that some of you may have questions about forestry or the Forest Service or conservation in general, I'd like to suggest that you write in for such enlightenment as I can give you. For instance, several ladies have asked my better half what those abbreviations on the Forest Service directional signs at the lower end of Morehead indicate. In case any more of you question these hieroglyphics, Morehead L. O. stands for Morehead Lookout Tower and Morgan, E. C. stands for Morgan Fork Guard Station.

Let me hear from you. Just drop a card to the District Ranger, Morehead, Ky.

Lewis F. Allen was re-elected president of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation. The program and policy of the Kentucky Farm Bureau was planned for the coming year. Among other things the organization will attempt to develop a stronger market for Burley tobacco. An attempt will be made to ship Burley to foreign countries and the organization will stand behind the Burley tobacco growers Cooperative Association. It was brought out in the meeting that farm subsidies will not be available in 1949 under the present laws. Efforts will be made by the organization to continue floor prices for several years during the reorganization period.

SUPERVISED FARMING

PRACTICE

The Rowan County Chapter of Future Farmers of America has 33 members. Of this group, 11 are seniors, three are juniors, eight are sophomores, and 11 are freshmen. All parts of Rowan County are represented in this group. However, this is a very small percentage of the farm boys in Rowan County. The chapter feels that it should have 100 farm boys enrolled in vocational agriculture at Morehead High.

greatly help we boys later.

Boys taking agriculture in high school also owns projects at home, either crops or livestock. The improved practices learned in class are carried out on the crops and livestock at home. In other words, we learn by doing. The 33 boys enrolled in agriculture at Morehead High this year own 77 projects. Lesson for January 19

JESUS INTERVIEWED BY NICODEMUS

LESSON TEXT—John 3:1-11, 16, 17.
The man who said "I am the light of men" was born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.—John 3:3.

How does one become a Christian? This was the question of Nicodemus, and it is the question in the hearts and minds of thousands in every generation. The answer is clear and definite.

The only entrance into the Christian life is by the door of the new birth. Regeneration is the act of God whereby the divine nature is imparted to the believing sinner and he becomes the child of God. He who has not entered by this way has not entered at all. He is still dead in trespasses and sins, with out God and without hope (Eph. 2:1, 12).

The Pharisee who looked for the coming of the Messiah as a secular conqueror wondered at this new spiritual leader. It was probably as much as he could do to believe in his own that Nicodemus came to inquire of Jesus. In answering his questions Jesus reveals the necessity of the nature, and the method of regeneration.

1. The New Birth—A Necessity (vv. 1-7).
Our Lord's visitor was a man of distinction and standing in the community, but he was not saved. Impressed by the dignity and high station of his visitor, not by the visitor's courteous and intelligent manner of his own position as a great teacher. With decisive boldness Jesus declares that this man, a cultured and distinguished member of the law, must be born again, if he is to see the kingdom of God.

God is no respecter of persons. The doctor of divinity must be born again just as much as the illiterate fisherman. D. L. Moody once said that he was thankful it was to such a man as Nicodemus that Jesus presented the necessity of the new birth, or men would have said that only the down-and-outer needed to be saved.

Two reasons are given by our Lord for the "must" of verse 7: (1) The kingdom of God is a spiritual kingdom and cannot be entered by way of our human nature; and (2) "that which is born of the flesh is flesh" and is radically and essentially bad. To learn why that is true read Jeremiah 13:23 and Galatians 3:3.

Scripture on this point is almost diametrically opposed to much of the teachings in our schools and colleges. But God's Word is right; let us follow it.

II. The New Birth—A Mystery (vv. 8-11).
God has graciously revealed to us "all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge" of Christ (II Pet. 1:3). But it is true—and we say quite appropriately true—that he has some things hidden in his own blessed counsels. We know the experience of the new birth. We see the blessed results of regeneration. But what actually takes place is a divine mystery, not fathomable by human reason. Those who insist that all spiritual truth be put through the little norm of their intelligence will never understand it or receive its blessing (I Cor. 2:14).

The striking illustration of the life-giving and energizing wind used by our Lord is most illuminating. Wind is unseen, but the results of its movement are evident. Even so the spiritual rebirth of men is an enigma to the worldly man, but even he can see its results in godly living.

We know that regeneration is not only a possibility, but an actuality, a fact; in truth, the greatest of all facts.

III. The New Birth—A Reality (vv. 16, 17).
Just as there was healing and life in a look at the uplifted serpent in the wilderness (Num. 21:8), so there is life for a look at the Crucified One. Faith receives God's perfect provision for sin.

Verse 16 may well be regarded as the greatest sentence in the greatest Book in the world. It presents the whole plan of salvation—its source, its ground, its recipients, its condition, and its result. This glorious salvation is for all men—"whosoever"—but some reject it. Notice that God does not condemn them. Their own evil works and desires condemn them (vv. 17-20). God in his grace is ready and willing to save, but men love "darkness rather than light," for their works are evil. Our tender, loving heavenly Father has no desire to condemn anyone. The man or woman who falls under his condemnation of sin does so by choice. God's desire is that all should be saved.

Estes To Give
Program Here

Has Given Program
All Over State

Combining magic and safety with ventriloquism, Lieutenant Allen Estes of the Kentucky Highway Patrol, will present his original "Magic Safety Show" for the student body of Morehead College, Thursday, January 16, at 11 a. m.

Lieutenant Estes is called the Man of Many Mysteries and the Wizard of Allen and has presented his show of a thousand and one wonders in many places. He was the feature performer at the convention of the International Brotherhood of Magicians last year. Besides showing at some of the larger schools and colleges throughout the state he has shown in the State Capitol, on a specially constructed stage for the House and Senate and at many unusual places including the women's and men's prison, Greendale and the Kentucky School for the Deaf, where his program was done in sign language. He is now working on a safety program to be presented to the blind.

Lieutenant Estes has just returned from Camp Campbell where his programs were seen by thirty thousand soldiers.

The finish is brick-handy white... can be painted over with any color... and does not powder, peel, flake or rub off.

New State Constitution Advocated

Contrasting 1947 with 1890, John Fred Williams, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, declared that the present Constitution of the State of Kentucky, which was written in 1892, should be completely overhauled.

Speaking to an audience of Morehead College, Breckinridge Training School and Morehead High School faculty and students, Dr. Williams said that "although the people of Kentucky may want to retain some of the limitations of the present constitution there are some that very definitely should be discarded."

The question of a new constitution will be submitted to the people of Kentucky in November of this year, he said.

"Rapid change has caused the present constitution to become outmoded more quickly than others," the head of the State Board of Education and ex-officio chairman of the Morehead College Board of Regents continued. "But we have waited six years longer to revise this constitution than we have any other."

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramps, the headaches and nervous strain of functional periodic pain. It's a relief, it should stimulate appetite, give a good, healthy sleep, and help you get the "time" to come. It's a relief, it should help relieve pain due to periodic pain. CARDUI

"How to save money on your electric bill"

Another in a Series by Phineas Q. Twitch, Eminent Economist

- 1 Sell your electric range and take to the Great Outdoors. Any Boy Scout can teach you how to build a fire and cook. It's a grubby job, but think of all the fresh air you'll get—particularly in winter! Just think, you might save as much as 10¢ worth of electricity a day! That should almost buy you as many indigestion tablets as you'll need.
- 2 Rip out all that electric wiring in your home, and go back to candle-light. It's so romantic you'll hardly even mind the inconveniences. Since it would cost about $200 for the quarter-ton of candles you'd need to light your house each month—you won't be able to buy candles. But with a little time and ingenuity, you can MAKE your own out of old bacon drippings—if you can get the bacon. And by the time you're through, you'll just about break even—or break down!
- 3 Turn off your radio during the Electric Hour—"Hour of Charm"—every Sunday afternoon at 3:30 CST over CBS. Of course, you'll miss the All-Girl Orchestra under the direction of Phil Spitalny, with Evelyn and her Magic Violin—but you'll actually save one-sixth of a penny every time you do! In a year you'll be almost 9¢ to the good—and think what all that money will buy today!

Watch for more of these practical money-saving suggestions by Dr. Twitch. He really knows his subject. We hope he'll help you realize how many jobs electricity does for you, and how little it costs.

Jobless Benefits To Veterans Total $46,000

Kentucky's unemployed veterans collected $46,892,694 in jobless benefits during 1946, the Kentucky Unemployment Compensation Commission reported today.

Payments to claimants other than veterans amounted to $6,428,588 for an overall total of $53,321,282 paid out in benefits for the year.

The Commission reported it had handled 2,347,598 veterans' claims in 1946 and 338,419 claims by industrial workers idled during the 12-month period.

Employer contributions to the unemployment insurance fund amounted approximately to $10,000,000.

The amount in the trust fund from which jobless benefits are paid to workers other than veterans was $94,281,996.06 on December 31.

The peak load of veterans' claims was reached last June when 76,500 ex-servicemen were on the benefit rolls. This figure scaled upward from 16,327 claimants in January of 1946. From June to August the number of veteran claimants fell off to 45,940, increased to 55,860 from June to August to September, and from that month until the end of the year declined steadily until there were but 34,860 on the rolls at the close of December.

The decline in the number of veterans claiming benefits in the closing months of the year is attributed to exhaustion by many of their full 52-week benefit period, acceptance of employment, return to school or entrance by veterans into training programs or taking on-the-job training.

Lewis County Pays To Protect Its Forests

Lewis County becomes the second in Kentucky to establish county-wide forest fire protection under the new enabling law passed by the 1946 General Assembly, according to an announcement today by H. W. Berckman, Superintendent of Fire Control, in the Division of Forestry at Frankfort. A cooperative agreement between the Division of Forestry and the county's fiscal court has been approved, and will become effective immediately. Work of building an organization to control fires on the 215,582 acres of privately owned forested land, has begun. The county will pay to the state one cent per acre per year for each acre of forested land protected under the agreement. The total cost of protection may run as high as eight or ten cents per acre for the first year, but should then level off to five cents or less. All costs above one cent per acre will be borne by the State and Federal Governments. Sites for lookout towers will be selected this month.
