On October 17

Appearing in the classified section of this issue is a notice from County News is legal notice that Kentucky's Department of Highways will let the contract on October 17 for the long sought Farmers-Sharkey (Tar Flat) Road.

County Judge Sam Green said this morning that he had also received notice from B. T. Morgan, Jr., Commissioner of Rural Highways, of the letting. Judge Green, County Attorney Elijah Hodge and others have made several trips to Frankfort in an effort to secure final approval of the project.

The advertisement for bids gives the distance at 6.6 miles. Contract will be for grade, drain and road work.

The road, for the most part, traverses a plateau in the northern section of Rowan County. RFD 1 mail route from Morehead covers this section, but the road has been impassable at times during severe winter weather.

State Police
Believe Same
Gang Guilty

The district State Police office at Morehead is investigating a flurry of robberies last Thursday and Friday with the belief that one gang perpetrated them.

Schools at Hitchens, Olive Hill and Grayson in Carter County and at Haldeman and Morehead Graded were entered last Thursday night. They gained entrance in most cases, by using a crow bar.

Morehead Graded School Principal Mrs. Roy Caudill said the thieves tore down two doors.

The Haldeman PTA, in a letter to the editor (page 4) complains of local law enforcement.

The school was broken into with crow bars there and forced a desk in her office obtaining about $15 in cash, unchrom and books and money.

The vandals wrecked everything in sight at Haldeman and made away with all the school's basketball uniforms valued at more than $200. It is believed by State police the gang started in Carter County and left U. S. 60 and to Haldeman before coming to Morehead.

State Police could not corroborate rumors of similar robberies in Elliott and Morgan counties. They do have a report of a break-in at a store at West Liberty last Wednesday.

Friday night entrance was made to the office of the Drew Evans Tire Company, Railroad Street, Morehead, by forcing a door. The robbers loaded a large size on a truck and made off.

Morehead High School as the project. This time, in cooperation with the Kiwanis Club, the group will spend a day working at Roubard Park helping to clean and improve it so that the entire community can enjoy its facilities even more.

PMA Accepting Hay Applications

Rowan County's PMA office in Morehead announced today that 21 tons of hay for drought-hit farmers had been received and outlined the plan farmers should follow to obtain this hay.

The statement said: "Farmers in Rowan County, who need hay to help livestock through the winter, are eligible to make application at the Rowan County PMA office for drought emergency hay."

"A deposit of $5 per ton must accompany application, balance to be paid when hay is received. 'Drought emergency hay' is classified as follows: (1) Grass hay, $25 per ton, composed of timothy, brome or grass of recognized feed value; (2) Mixed hay, $27 ton, mixture of alfalfa and timothy or other grasses of recognized feed value. This hay must contain more than one-fourth timothy or grasses of recognized feed value."

"There is a considerable shortage of timothy hay. Therefore, farmers who will not accept mixed hay as second choice, should arrange to purchase hay elsewhere as orders for legitimate hay cannot be accepted unless so qualified."

"Before the PMA office can order a car of hay applications for a car of 10 tons must be received. This does not mean that individual farmer must purchase chaff 12 tons, but the orders are grouped until they total 12 tons and then a car order is placed."

Rev. Adkins Speaks At Johnson Church of God

Rev. Clevis Adkins of Sandy Hook will conduct a one-night revival at the Johnson Church of God Saturday. Services begin at 7:30 p. m.

We know citizens who can wet their tongues and talk half an hour without pausing for breath. A smart investor usually puts his money into an enterprise about which he knows something.

ARTHRITIS?

I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were stiff.

Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.

Any Opposition To Fluoridation Not Understandable

Morehead will soon become the 34th progressive Kentucky community to fluoridate its public water system—or will it?

Some three or four months ago the council asked Morehead State College's Board of Regents to place fluorine in its water. Under a rather unique arrangement, mandatory because the city couldn't raise funds to re-amp its utility system and also build the impoundage reservoir and purifying system, the college sells water to the city for 20 cents a thousand gallons. The Regents, investigating medical reports and anxious to provide the best for its own students, approved the request. The Utility Plant Board, which operates a separate municipal unit, wants the fluoridation.

Reports today indicate some council members have changed their stand. Whether this is because Morehead College placed an additional charge of one cent a thousand gallons on fluoridated water is not known. Certainly, we can think of no other reason, and to our mind, this is somewhat whimsy and is a reversal of a long-held policy.

An average family of four in Morehead uses 2,000 gallons of water per month. In other words, if the Utility Plant Board passed on the one cent per thousand gallon cost to the city, the average Morehead family would pay an additional 24 cents a year.

A check of local water consumption reveals the city purchases an average of five million gallons a month or 60 million gallons a year. This means the cost of fluoridation would be $30 a month or $600 a year. What a small price to pay to protect the teeth and health of our children!

If any member of the council doubts the benefits of fluoridation we can only refer them to the American Medical Association, the American Dental Association, the United States Department of Health, the Kentucky Department of Health or any medical and/or dental association in the nation. These findings, arrived at after exhaustive investigation, cannot be disputed.

The Associated Press, in a New York dispatch, Tuesday said: "At least 7,600,000 persons in 363 communities throughout the United States were being served by fluoridated public water systems by mid-1952."

"The average yearly cost for the program, aimed at combating tooth decay, is 10.2 cents a person. But, in nearly 90 of the communities throughout the United States the cost is only 5 cents or less each person."

Surely, Morehead will not sidetrack the progress made and the agreement arrived at to give our people fluoridated water. We can think of no sensible argument against it. We hope the council at Tuesday's meeting will inaugurate this progressive step because we believe those who might oppose it are misinformed.

Johnson Knew What He Was Talking About
Coach Ellis Johnson's pre-

Homecoming at Morehead is October 25 against an old foe, Eastern. The Maroons, with possibly the best club in Western Kentucky outside the University, will rule Eastern has already decided Toledo and Marshall.

Further bad news for Morehead is that their Saturday opponent, Tennessee Tech, upset Murray last week and Western the club that comes to Morehead October 11, beat Evansville by half-dozen touchdowns.

Basketball Might Be Different
One ray of sunshine for Eastern Kentucky sports lovers is that, unless something happens, the Eagles will be tough on the basketball floor.

Friday Is The "Big Day"
One reminder—don't fail to attend the annual Rowan County Youth Fair tomorrow. It starts with the parade and ends with a beauty contest and band concert at 8 o'clock. This will be the best Fair Rowan County has presented and a lot of progressive people have given generously of their time and money to present it for you. There's no admission charge.

Not The End Of Purgatory Dispute
Rowan County's democratic organization is broiling mad over Republicans challenging registration of several hundred Democrats. Said one democratic leader today: "We'll challenge every Republican, about which there is any doubt, next year."

We add that 1953 is the time county officials are chosen. This thing could end up in Rowan County's biggest political turmoil.

DISPLAYS CALVES AT STATE FAIR

It is a nice pair of calves that Cathryn Stanley, of Union City, N. J., is taking to the New Jersey State Fair at Trenton. Prize-winning Ashbake they are and she expects to take some blue ribbon awards with them. Oldest fair in the U. S. and largest in the East, the Jersey exhibition celebrates its 107th birthday.

Season prediction on the Eagle football team was: "We'll be lucky to win one game."

After Morehead's trounced Evansville 14-0 even Johnson thought he might have a better club than expected. But, after the Eagles lost 34-0 to East Tennessee Saturday, the feeling is evident that the Evansville victory will be the only one this season.

Recent raids and jail sentences, plus the fact that a person found guilty of violating local option laws must post a $500 bond to be forfeited if they are convicted again within 12 months, are the reasons that Rowan County has been dropping out of the top tier of the league.

Want Copies Of These Books
Mrs. Robert Howe, State Librarian, Frankfort, is anxious to locate a copy of the book, "Vivid Memories of Rowan and Elliott Counties 75 Years Ago" written by E. S. Montgomery and another book, "Elliott County, Ky.," by Mary Vansant. These books were published by the newspaper in 1934 and 1935.

If you have one of these books or know where a copy can be located please advise the Rowan County News. Free copies at the newspaper were destroyed in the 1939 flash flood.

On Rowan Farms

Many Farmers Benefit By Preparing Tobacco Beds At This Time Of Year

By Adrian Razor
(Rowan County Agent)

Many farmers in the state have found it profitable to prepare tobacco plant beds in the fall of the year. There is still time to make these beds using Zyanamid or the Methyl Bromide or gas treatment. Those farmers in the county who have tried these very effective in control of weeds in the plant bed. They are obtainable at the local supply stores and should be used according to directions. Detailed information on the application of the zyanamid and the methyl gas to the bed may be obtained at the Extension Office.

Not only does fall treatment of beds get rid of a job that comes in the busy time of spring, but research has found that fall plowed and treated beds are less likely to have trouble with wild fire and other plant bed diseases since the organisms that cause these troubles live on grass roots. On the beds that are plowed in the fall these roots decay thus eliminating the habitat of the disease organisms. Fall plowed and treated beds should be plowed so that water will not run across them. Those on a slope should be well ditched above the beds. Some farmers have used clean straw or corn fodder to mulch the treated beds during the winter and then burn off the mulch in the spring, rake the crust off the bed and sow the seed. However, it has been found that mulch is not necessary. Fall plowed and treated beds are more favorable for farmers try them more.

The agent will be glad to work with anyone who would like to try out the methyl bromide and the zyanamid treatment.

Spray Crib To Prevent Corn Weevil

Many farmers reported last year that they had trouble with weevils in their corn. Since corn husking time is here much of this trouble can be eliminated by spraying cribs with an insecticide before the corn is put in. There is a new material on the market known as Pyrene which when used as directed when the corn is put in the crib, has proved effective in controlling the weevils. This material is available at our local dealers.

Joe Malbrain, who lives out in the Sharkey section and who was among the first to try sub soil on his farm, will be the guest of John Butler on the WLW Farm Hour this Saturday at Mason, O.

Do Not Put Rubber
Bands On Tobacco

Although I don't think this will apply to farmers in this county, I am sure it will apply to tobacco growers against putting rubber bands on tobacco as it is stripped. In discussing this project Mr. Hunt says it is imperative that all foreign material such as rubber bands, pieces of string and other materials should be removed from tobacco before it is placed on the market. Many of our tobacco growers have objected to it therefore, Extension agents in this state as a whole have been asked to request that this practice be eliminated. Although this trouble was only found in one section of the state, which incidentally is not near our section, it could probably maturely effect the tobacco prices if it became widespread.

Full Purchases
Of Fertilizer

Farmers may save on their fertilizer bills by placing orders for fertilizer needed in the spring this fall. Since fertilizer companies are anxious to move their stock out of their warehouses and usually there is a wider choice of analyses, those who have good dry storage places should figure their spring fertilizer needs and get their orders in.

Wm. H. Rice Makes Perfect UK Standing

William Homer Rice, Morehead, was one of 81 students who recorded perfect "all A" standing at the University of Kentucky during the past summer term.

Rice and 22 other students in the UK College of Engineering attained the perfect standing during the summer. The College of Education ranked in the number of students making the perfect standing by placing 38 on the honor list. The College of Agriculture, four from the College of Commerce, and one student in the College of Law achieved the standing.

nessee Buccaneers blanked the Big Blue, 34-0, an successive Saturdays. The folks in Johnson City evidently had forgotten to be scared by the fact that East Tennessee was the only team to bow to Morehead last season.

It may have been because Starr Wood, the Buccaneer coach, had trimmed Morehead last year while at the helm at Tennessee Tech. Wood's shift to East Tennessee this year has forced Tech's coach, Jimmy Nantz, to take over coaching retirement and the pigskin was again.

From the start he has made this season it's rather plain to see that Coach Overly will repeat some glorious pages of Tennessee Tech football history.

There he was stationed, attached to the 2nd Army Headquarters in the G-3 (General Staff) division. Apparently Howard McCartney was again headed overseas, this time for Korea but—the above ruling was made.

And so, come November 30, Capt. McCartney will gladly resign his commission and come home to begin all over again his law practice and political career.

All Fleming Countians will agree that Capt. Howard McCartney has indeed done his duty as a soldier and as a gentleman, and will sincerely hope that he will be able to uninterruptedly pursue the vocation at which he has worked so hard and so long.

Language Conf. To Meet Here In October

"To promote greater interest in the study of languages in this part of the country," is the purpose in the meeting of the Second Mountain Interstate Language Conference which will meet at Morehead State College on October 17 and 18, says Miss Maria Bizzoni, who is a member of the Conference executive committee along with Mrs. Beth Bradey from Pikeville College in Pikeville, Kentucky, chairman, and Mr. Aldis B. Easterling from

Don't Clean Eggs Before Storing Them

The National Egg Products Association says not to wash eggs if they are to be stored. If they must be stored, it's better to store them unwashed. The reason is that in the washing process some bacteria may seep through the shell and pull down the quality of the eggs. In any event, dirty eggs, washed or unwashed, should not be stored for more than a few weeks.

Union College in Barbourville, Kentucky, is chairman of the local committee who will make the arrangements for the conference here in Morehead.

Students and teachers from Kentucky and nearby state high schools and colleges are expected to attend the conference.

Income From Forest Tops Previous High

Cumberland Area Will Distribute $14,000 To Kentucky Counties

Forest Supervisor H. L. Borden of Winchester today announced that gross income from the forest for the year ending June 30 had topped all previous records. A total of $105,163.00 was taken in from sales of timber and rental of land, which was $16,000 more than in 1950. Nearly $41,000 will, therefore, be available for county roads and schools when 25 per cent of the gross income is distributed this winter. Borden further commented that the Cumberland Forest was holding its own among the seven forests in the eastern region by being only $2,000 behind the leader. Another record occurred when the average value per thousand board feet went over $10 for the first time.

Borden stated that the volume of timber cut was 14,686,000 board feet, which has been exceeded only by the war years of 1944, 45 and 46. He said this was a real accomplishment in view of "tighter" financial conditions and an increase in the number of forest fires.

Forty-nine fires have burned 618 acres since January 1, which is much more than burned all last year. Borden said that the dry fall season is not far ahead and the Rangers would need a bit of good luck and public cooperation to stay within the fire quotas assigned.

According to figures released by the President's Materials Policy Commission, the country will increase its timber needs by 10 per cent by 1975. To reach our timber objectives, the Commission recommends:

Better fire and insect protection; more tree planting; more low grade roads to reach inaccessible timber; more assistance to owners of private woodland; assist states in prescribing rules for proper cutting of private timber, and reduction of waste, as now only 65 per cent of a tree is used.

Four out of every five persons arrested for game violations in Kentucky last year were found guilty when brought to trial.

Mrs. Wright Of Famed Calumet Farm Marries

Film writer and producer Gene Markey and Mrs. Lucille Wright, owner of Calumet Farms racing stable at Lexington, Ky., were married Saturday by Supreme Court Justice James McNally in his chambers at the New York County Courthouse.

Mrs. Wright, widow of baking powder tycoon Warren Wright, wore a simple black dress and short fur coat for the ceremony which had been postponed twice last week. The first postponement came after the 57-year-old Markey's plane was delayed en route from his home in Hollywood. The second postponement on Thursday was unexplained.

Markey's three former marriages ended in divorce. His wives were film stars Joan Bennett, Hedy Lamarr and Myrna Loy.

Improvement of Education Is Theme of ASCD Meet

Morehead State College was the site of this year's annual convocation of the Kentucky Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, held September 25-27. The convocation laid plans for the improvement of education in the state.

Markey's department officials and county and school superintendents were among the group which attended the convocation. About 150 people from the State of Kentucky were present.

Despite what we thought several months ago, cooler weather is returning.

Chances Of War Are Lessened - Bradley

Gen. Omar Bradley thinks the chance of Russia making war by 1954 is lessened but that the possibility "is so great we can't afford to slow down" the defense buildup, as Britain is doing.

The chairman of the joint chiefs of staff said so in telling reporters about his recent inspection trip to Europe. He presumably has a similar although more detailed account to President Truman.

In answer to newsmen's questions, he also expressed these other thoughts:

1. Although there is no idea of telling the secrets of atomic bomb manufacture, won't the top military leaders of the other NATO countries need to have some idea how many atomic weapons they can count on as part of the Western European defense plan?

2. With the military organization now a going concern of commands and forces in being and emphasis turning more toward overall administration of the international structure, where do the member nations look henceforth for leadership? To the secretary-general of NATO's permanent council, a post now held by Lord Ismay of England? Or should the military commander, American Gen. Matthew Ridgway, be continued for a time as the central figure who makes decisions and does negotiating?

3. There is no split among military leaders over strategy for the defense of Western Europe against a Russian attack. "The people over there are studying two or three or maybe more methods" for stopping a Russian strike into the free areas of Europe. A recent field maneuver, Exercise Redoubt, involved a

Annual White Elephant Sale Is October 11

Funds for an art program for children in 50 Rowan County schools will be raised Saturday, October 11, when the local chapter of the American Association of University Women holds its 14th annual White Elephant Sale in the Morehead High School gymnasium. The sale is part of a cooperative project of the AAUW, the college, and the Morehead and county communities to provide art materials and instruction for these school children.

Sale proceeds are used, each year, to purchase art materials such as drawing paper, crayons, water colors and brushes for use in the county elementary schools. It was explained by AAUW president Jane Chapman.

The college's part in the project is to provide an advanced art student to serve as county art supervisor. This student receives college credit in practice teaching during the first semester of the school year, and a salary from the Board of Education for the second semester's work. An exhibit of art work produced by the children is sponsored each year by the college art department under the supervision of Mrs. Nancy Claypool.

The Morehead Board of Trade cooperates each year by contributing prize money for the school which collect the greatest number of articles for the sale. School children help by serving as collection agents and by bringing farm products from their homes for the sale.

Members of the AAUW, assisted by high school girl students and Boy Scouts, will conduct the sale. General chairman are Mrs. W. H. Rice and Mrs. Claypool.

Cooper, Underwood Heard At Frankfort

Kentucky's Democratic and Republican candidates for the Senate stopped off in Frankfort last week and each predicted he would win in November.

Sen. Thomas R. Underwood also asserted his opponent, John Sherman Cooper, had called him an "errand boy." He described the Republican as a man who "did nothing the two years he was in Washington but parade around stiff as a ramrod, proud as a peacock, solemn as a prairie crow."

Underwood's remarks were made during a meeting of more than 200 Sixth Congressional District members of the Democratic Women's Club of Kentucky.

Cooper's talk was given during a reception in his honor. He said the GOP is better organized than ever before on the precinct level and called for greater efforts to get out the party voters this year. He also suggested the need for an effective Republican organization in Franklin County, recommending that at least one active Republican be responsible for each of the county's 41 precincts.

Underwood told his audience he was proud of his record in Congress and asserted the country needs the Democratic administration.

He said too the only reason Cooper picked Lexington to open his campaign was "to discard his henhouse and single-shot for Cooper." He did not elaborate upon the remark.

Fine Arts Building To Be Completed By Fall of 1953

Construction work on Morehead's new Fine Arts Building was resumed this month after six weeks of inactivity, and the present schedule calls for completion of the building by the fall term of 1953, according to W. H. Rice, superintendent of the buildings and grounds department.

The building was originally scheduled to be finished in the spring of 1953, but work was held up this summer because of the steel strike.

Coveted Otis Air Base Title Of 'Air Policeman Of Month' Awarded To Bill Battson

Most of the information appearing here concerning Rowan County men in the armed forces comes from Army, Navy and Air Corps Headquarters offices and is often delayed.

Four airmen of the 564th Air Police Squadron at Otis Air Force Base, Falmouth, Mass., were recently commended for their conscientious work and military bearing by their Commanding Officer, Major Robert M. Wilson, and selected as "Air Policemen of the Month" for August.

The security section of the Air Police Squadron is comprised of four flights with one man from each flight being picked for the honor each month. Airmen Third Class William F. Battson formerly of Morehead, and who is attached to Flight B was selected as one of the "Air Policemen of the Month" for August.

The airmen elected to the envied title of "Air Policeman of the Month" are chosen for: diligence, dependability, conscientious effort, ability to work long hours on security watches, and for carrying out orders in a manner which reflects credit upon themselves and the unit and is a source of inspiration to the men with whom they work.

The security members of the Air Police Squadron work nine eight hour days and are given three days of relaxation. As reward for the men who achieve the honor of being selected "Air Policemen of the Month" from within their own flight, they are granted an extra day.

Selections of the "Air Policemen of the Month" are made by the commander of the guard and the sergeant of the guard with final approval by the squadron commander. Airmen Battson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Battson of 313 Fifth Street, Morehead. The 21 year old airmen's wife Eva lives at present residing at 313 Fifth Street in Morehead.

Variety Of New Scholarships Awarded Here This Year

A number of students entered Morehead this semester with the help of a variety of scholarships offered for the first time this year.

Of five $400 scholarships available to students in the new nursing department, only two were awarded this year. Recipients are Barbara Williams and Lenora Williams, both 1932 graduates of Flat Gap High School. Barbara was salutatorian of the class, and Lenora was valedictorian. Both said they prefer the combination of college and hospital training rather than hospital training alone, because there is more social life at a college.

Another new scholarship is the $300 Jayne Memorial Scholarship, awarded this year to Peggy Burke, valedictorian of the 1935 class of Fleming County High School. This scholarship is financed by three brothers, Luther, Mason and Legrand Jayne, who are associated with the Midland Trail Garage of Morehead. It will be awarded annually to a resident of Eastern Kentucky, preferably one who plans to become a teacher.

Two $50-a-semester scholarships are offered by the Alumni Association of the college, and by the Morehead Woman's Club. The Alumni Scholarship, awarded this semester to Mrs. Patsy Lee McCommis, was offered for the first time last year. It is open to any prospective student, but preference is given to a son or daughter of a Morehead graduate.

The Woman's Club scholarship, available to a high school grad-
