News Needs Material For Centennial Edition

Although much material has been collected the Rowan County News is in need of old pictures, newspapers, clippings, documents and other material dating back through the years for its Centennial Edition.

Perhaps you can recall incidents that happened many years ago that will be of interest in this Edition which will sketch the history of Morehead and Rowan County for the last 100 years.

All pictures, etc. will be returned. The News also wants histories of pioneer families of the county.

Counties to be served from Morehead are Rowan, Elliott, Morgan, Menifee, Bath and part of Carter.

The Morehead office had such a classification during the war but its functions were cut three years ago as an economy measure. It was formerly in the Consolidated Hardware Building but was moved to City Hall and "Ceasized" on last year, this nomination.

April Means Sunny Weather And Income Tax Payments

The fourth month of the year, which was the second month of the year in the ancient Roman calendar, is at hand April, which has thirty days, will complete the first third of 1934.

The approach of this month, which seems to be the month in which the United States gets involved in wars, is usually welcomed in this country, since it heralds the end of winter.

Today, April is our tax-paying month, the month in which Major League baseball begins, usually the month in which Easter occurs, and the month of many important birthday anniversaries, including those of Jefferson, Buchanan, Grant, Monroe and others.

And, if Americans wish to remember it, April is the month in which the British once burned Washington. That occurred on April 24th, 1814, during the War of 1812. A British Army of about 5,000 men defeated a militia group at Bladensburg, Maryland, and then moved into Washington with resistance.

The British burned public buildings and lighted fires in the Capitol, the White House and other structures. The interior of the Capitol was burned, and the White House was also damaged, necessitating its painting.

April has been a fateful month for the United States. The Revolutionary War began in April in the Eighteenth Century. The War between the North and South in the Nineteenth Century, also began in April. A few decades later, the Spanish War began in April and in 1917, the United States went to war against Germany in April. The country's last two wars, however, have begun in other months, so that April has lost some of its gravity.

World War II began for the United States in December, and the Korean War began for us in the month of June.

Easter falls on April 1st this year because of the fact that this is the first Sunday after the full moon following the Spring equinox. The equinox occurred on March 20th, and the full moon followed on the 26th, thus Easter automatically fell on April 1st.

In April, for the first of many months, the sun will rise earlier in the southern states than in the northern states, throughout the month. For example, in Boston the sun will rise at 5:43 a. m. on April 1st and by the end of the month will be rising at 4:57 a. m.

In Charleston, S. C. the sun will rise at 5:48 a. m. on April 1st and by April 30th will rise at 5:14 a. m. Yet on March 1st, the sun rose at 6:28 a. m. in Charleston and 6:36 a. m. in Boston. Thus the greater extremes of difference between day and night in northern and southern states are seen.

The Boston calendar applies to New England, New York State, Michigan, Wisconsin, North and South Dakota, Washington and Oregon. The Charleston calendar applies to Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and Southern California. The states in between and Florida have slightly different calendars.

By June, the sun will be rising at full thirty minutes earlier in Boston than in Charleston. In December, the sun will rise about a half-hour earlier in Charleston.

April, then, is the month in which daylight hours in the North stretch out to compensate for shorter days in fall and winter months.

Disarmament May Moon Governs Easter Date

One of the most enticing projects facing the American people is the chance that President Eisenhower will be able to conclude an effective disarmament program with the Russians.

Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson and Joint Chief of Staff Chairman Arthur W. Radford recently testified before the Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee that the Administration program for disarmament was a realistic one and would do the job.

They told subcommittee members President Eisenhower's "Open Skies" formula was neither a disarmament plan nor a guarantee against sudden attack, but that it would block the launching of a decisive surprise attack, which would someday be a great temptation to an aggressor nation.

Admiral Radford described the Administration plan as a three-fold one. He listed the three major parts of the program as follows:

- 1. The exchange of military blueprints with Soviet Russia, which would reveal numbers and deployment of air, sea and land forces. This would be a detailed exchange and would cover every unit in the armed services, down to the last man.
- 2. Aerial reconnaissance over both the United States and Russia, designed to verify the accuracy of blueprints.
- 3. Ground inspection, by ground inspection teams, also designed to corroborate information in the blueprints and verify exchange data. The proposal for ground inspection teams was by the Russians and accepted by President Eisenhower.

Under the disarmament program outlined by Admiral Radford and Defense Secretary Wilson, it would be highly difficult for either the United States (which would never launch a surprise attack) or Russia to carry out a material and manpower mobilization sufficient to win a war, with one surprise blow without some signs of this program being noted by aerial inspectors, ground inspectors or exchange personnel.

The disarmament program, then, constitutes the greatest hope of the American people, at present.

A Cleveland woman told authorities she put ground glass in the milk delivered to the couple that lived in the apartment over hers because they were noisy. She evidently assumed, logically enough, they would be quieter if they were dead.

It seems many good things came to the members of the organization in the last few days. On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the fire department was busy with a number of fires.

The connection of rabbits with Easter eggs, as we now know it in the United States, is derived from the old pagan custom which regarded rabbits as emblems of fertility—symbols of new life.

It was only during the Nineteenth Century and the war days of 1861-65, that non-ritualistic churches began elaborate observances of Easter. These were initiated to bring as much consolation as possible to the homes of those who had lost loved ones.

Easter, traditionally, carries the message of hope to all the Christian world, and therefore is a major spiritual event. The religious signs in the East are often overlooked, but it should be stressed, along with the Easter eggs, bunny rabbits and mystic customs which bring so much exhilaration and joy to children.

Easter Seal Sale On

The sale of 1934 Easter Seals will provide funds for many worthwhile services. In addition to the help and services to crippled children and adults, such as special clinics, hospitals, schools, camps, therapists and medical consultants, it also provides special centers for cerebral palsied children.

The campaign, now underway, will close on April 15th and it is hoped that the total raised will exceed the funds obtained in 1935. All of the funds raised in Kentucky, except for 83 per cent, will be retained locally. Less than one-twelfth goes to finance the services of the national organization in its education and research work.

It is expected and hoped that the people of this county will give generously to the fund that offers hope to the crippled of our state and nation. Certainly, this is a drive to which all of us should respond cheerfully and liberally.

A federal agency announced the cost of living dropped one-tenth of one per cent in January. If it should continue to drop at this rate for some 36 years, it would have reached a fairly reasonable level.

Father Colaghan Still Revered In Far West

Father J. J. Colaghan is still remembered by the early settlers of Butte, Montana. In those days, many of a kind of a "far from" materialities swarmed on to the mining city, the priest was respected and revered by all men of all creeds.

Squad Names "Best Ten" Of Opponents

Morehead Eagle squad members were asked after the Iowa trip to name the players among their opponents who, in their opinions were the best they met during the year. Unanimously, they named Charlie Tyra, U. of L. and Carl Cain of Iowa as being their toughest opponents. Western's Forrest Able, Western, Ky.'s Jack Adams, Eastern, Ky.'s Carl Cain, Iowa Howie Crittenden, Murray State Bob Daniels, Western, Ky. Don Fira, Washington & Lee, Ceb Price, Marshall College, Kenny Sidwell, Tennessee Tech, Charlie Tyra, Louisville, Phil Wheeler, Cincinnati.

The consensus among the team was that it would be impossible for them to reach complete agreement on the five best players. They were in general agreement on ten players, though. The "best ten" and their schools are listed below in alphabetical order.

LITTLE SHORT OF 'SCANDALOUS'

Kernel Lambasts Treatment Given Fans From Morehead

The treatment that Morehead players and fans received when the Eagle basketball team competed in the NCAA at Iowa City continued a choice subject of sports material. Morehead officials termed it "scandalous" that 15,000 fans could get in this manner. Sports Editor Tom Preston had this comment Friday in The Kentucky Kernel, student newspaper at the University of Kentucky.

"GO HOME KENTUCKY and take Adolph Rupp with you. They you hillbillies, pack up and get out!" Morehead, who's Morehead? "Oh, just a bunch of southern hicks up here in the hallowed lands of Iowa."

These expressions and many more were typical of the hostility given to UK and Morehead as they participated in the Midwest Regionals of the NCAA basketball tournament. The North believes in equality Iowa hasn't heard about it. Common courtesy has been in Iowa City when small bands of Bluegrass fans visited the little college town. Up there everyone is equal—except Kentuckians!

Never have I witnessed such a lack of sportsmanship as was displayed by the Hawkeye crowd. When UK came onto the floor, rolls of toilet paper were hurled at the Wildcats. Programs were tossed. Morehead played and the boons never ceased. The few foreigners seated in Iowa Iowa Field House received the same treatment. Cups filled with coke were thrown at the Kentucky spectators. The mess of Morehead was splattered with a soft drink just because he was yelling for his team. Women received verbal abuse but could do little about it. How could 250 Kentuckians fight back against 15,000 Iowans? Yes, that was Iowa's welcome to Kentucky and Morehead in the NCAA.

To those fear in the college community who tried to make our stay a pleasant one, we will always be grateful. But to the mobs of people who believe they are civilized we can only say— you had better think again!

UK Cheerleaders ought to send a letter of thanks to Morehead's pep group and cheerleaders. The Eagle went all out for the Wildcats, leading in yells, whooping it up, and trying to give UK a genuine backing it certainly missed.

TWO HUNDRED persons attended the open house Sunday afternoon of the remodeled home economics department at Breckinridge Training School. Parents of members of Morehead Chapter of Future Homemakers are inspecting the up-to-date equipment in one of the departments. Members of the advisory committee of the adult homemakers class assisted with the entertainment.

Fowler's Track Team Again Favored For Championship Of OV

The Morehead track team opened its 1956 season Saturday, March 24, by trouncing Bellarmine College on the latter's track by the lopsided score of 20 to 50.

The weather was far from suitable for track. The wind was blowing at a terrific velocity. The temperature was hovering near 40.

Despite the adverse weather conditions, the Eagles set a school record in total points scored, 80%, and also in first places, 11.

Jack Robock, Morehead's sensational freshman, from New Albany, Ind., led all scorers with 15 points. Dick went first place in three events, 100, 220, and the low hurdles.

In winning the 440, Joe Wheeler ran a magnificent race, running it in 51.2 seconds, only 1/14 second slower than his first place time in the OVC championship meet last spring.

Carl Deaton was running track to form as he ran second to nobody in the 880 and the mile.

Carl's nearest opponent in the mile, Ken Daugherty, not only ran second in that race but had his best time ever, 10:23.7, in winning the two mile event.

In the mile it looked as if Ken would surely come in third behind Combs of Bellarmine, but he put on a great burst of speed to oust Combs in the home stretch. Combs is the KJAC champion in the mile and 880.

Paul Whitley duplicated Ken Daugherty's feat in the 880 when he out-kicked Combs in the last few yards for second place honors.

Morehead's old faithful, Kenneth Thompson, came through with 10 points as he won the high jump, tied for first in the pole vault, and was third in the shot put.

Gene Carroll collected 9 points by winning the javelin, taking second in the shot put and third in the broad jump.

Ray Chantry bested his personal record by winning the discus throw with a 116' 5 1/2" throw.

Clarence Schmitt ran his best 2 miles to date as he ran second to Ken Daugherty in the Harold Falls grabbed second place honors in the high hurdles and high jump, and third place in the pole vault.

Jerry Joe Lancaster took third place in the 440.

HARDWOOD STAR—Marine 2nd Lt. Charles D. Harris, son of Mrs. and Mr. Denver E. Harris of West Union, O., and husband of the former Miss Frances Bellamy of Morehead, is captain and guard for the 1956 Marine Reserve basketball squad at Camp Lejeune, N. C. The squad, runners-up in the 2nd Marine Division championship, overcame all opposition to win the Camp Lejeune championship, February 24. Before entering the service in February 1955, he graduated from Morehead State College.

Miners' Pay Goes Up April 1

The price of coal and miners' wages both go up April 1. Wages will be increased 80 cents a day and coal prices will be advanced an average of 25 cents a ton.

The price increase will range from 15 to 40 cents a ton depending on the mine location. The quality of the coal. It is meant to put coal prices back where they were in 1948—the post-war business period.

"The Bell" Was There To Ring Out Victory

By Billy Joe Hall

One of the great throw-outs for a field goal. That's the complete story, as heard and seen at the Jefferson Army Armory in Louisville, in War Memorial Coliseum in Fort Louisville in Louisville, in War Memorial Coliseum in Fort Louisville in Louisville.

This is what basketball fans view as the greatest throw-out of the Morehead Eagles post-season. When they traveled to Louisville to best Western 64-50, the bell was moved from corner to center. The Jefferson Army Campus Club members ran the ball, the Eagles ran up a victory.

Sportswriters gave the bell many discouraging write-ups but the Campus Clubbers never gave up. They continued on to Fort Wayne and the bell, sportswriters said, was the best they ever saw. The bell got the bell into the gym for the Marshall game. The boys were determined and they succeeded. They had to buy a seat for it, but they ran for the Eagles rolled on to victory.

Then came the trip to Iowa City. The Campus Clubbers made the 600-mile trip. Yes, the bell went 1000. This time as the Morehead fans suffered from the rough reception of the host, the bell seemed to suffer too. It came but victory didn't. The Eagles lost. Then in the consolation game, the bell got back in the win column.

Now you ask me, "How did the boys move the bell and exactly how big was it?"

Well, I can answer that too. The bell was a large one, similar to an old locomotive bell. It weighed approximately 250 pounds. You see, it was quite a load for the boys. They hitched a trailer on the back of one of the Clubber's car and toled the bell on it.

Mrs. Claypool Will Trace Kentucky Art

Mrs. Naomi Claypool, head of the art department of Morehead State College, will deliver a speech to the "Three Arts Clubs" in Ashland on April 2. Her subject will be "Kentucky Art". The Allen R. Hite Institute of art is sending an exhibit of 19 original paintings done by some of the most outstanding Kentucky artists. Some of Mrs. Claypool's personal friends who are well known artists are sending original works and slides of their works.

Mrs. Claypool says her talk will trace the Kentucky Art from early times and show the trends and changes that are taking place in art in Kentucky today. It will cover architecture, sculpture, painting, and crafts.

Medical Education Week Proclaimed

Governor Chandler designated the week of April 22-28 as "Medical Education Week" and asked that Kentuckians acknowledge its common debt to medical schools and to "foster their continuing foundation and security."

It was noted that medical schools throughout the country are endeavoring to raise $10,000,000 as "additional income to discharge their responsibilities to the nation."

Know Your Bible

"THE RESURRECTION"

The "gospel" of Christ is the power of God unto salvation (Rom. 1:16). The death, burial, and resurrection of the Lord are part of this gospel (1 Cor. 15: 1-8). Therefore, the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ were essential for our salvation.

If the Lord had not been raised from the dead, then the apostles' preaching was in vain. The apostles preached as they were directed by the Holy Spirit who searched the mind of God (1 Cor. 13:1-3; 2 Cor. 13:1-3; 1 John 1:6-7-14). God has said Christ was raised.

Christ's resurrection means much for it provides a basis for our faith, makes possible the remission of sins, and offers us a hope (1 Cor. 15:12-19). This was Christ's work in God's plan for human redemption. The death and resurrection of His Son were not accidental. Had Christ not died and come forth from the grave, we would yet be in our sins. How thankful we should be!

Christians are given the privilege to commemorate the death and resurrection of their Savior each first day of the week. The early Christians took advantage of this, leaving us an inspired example for a pattern of worship (Acts 20:7). This is God's plan that we observe the Lord's Supper upon the first day of each week.

We all know that Christ has been raised from the dead. By that resurrection, He assures us of a resurrection at His coming. When the Lord does come again, He will come for vengeance on the evil doers and to give rest to the righteous (2 Thes. 1:3-10). The end, when He shall deliver us the kingdom to God, when He shall have abolished the last enemy, death (1 Cor. 15:20-28). Do you not want to be in that number?

S. O. S. Centennial Material Needed

WE NEED YOUR HELP AND WE CAN BE OF ASSISTANCE TO YOU

The Rowan County News is planning a great Centennial Edition of 100 pages to be distributed May 10. This edition will carry perhaps 400 pictures and over a thousand news items, feature, factual and historical stories. Work on the edition has started.

We have run into much difficulty securing the voluminous material, covering the 100 years history of Morehead and Rowan County, needed for such an edition. And that is where you can help us, and we can, in turn put in black and white for future generations, the history of the county, your family, etc. that should be recorded in this Centennial Edition.

We are interested in:

- All the old pictures we can obtain. Even recent pictures or photos of particular news value will be welcome. All pictures will be carefully preserved and returned as we realize they are valuable to you. Particularly acceptable are photos of an old wedding, your family, street scenes, group shots of homes, churches, transportation, farming, schools, industry, etc. We are sure you get the general idea. Your attic is a good spot or perhaps you know of someone who has such pictures. In short, what we want are pictures that will portray our city and county back through the century.

- Old newspaper clippings, old programs, old documents, etc. Perhaps an old letter of particular historical significance.
- Histories of all the families that have been in our county many years. If you will let us down all the material we will put it in our Centennial Edition. If you are one of our older families, we know you will want this edition to carry this posterity.

- Recollections of the days gone by. For example you may know of an incident, etc. that happened years ago. One man has brought us the story of the first street lights (kerosene) in Morehead while a woman has handed us her experience on a back road 60 years ago.

To make this as brief as possible, we simply point out that we want any material we can gather about Morehead and Rowan County during the past 100 years, or even before that. You may have the very story we were looking for in your mind or the photo or old newspaper in your attic.

It could be that you might have something of value for this edition that might not directly concern Rowan County but would be worthy of this Centennial paper. A Morehead woman has a copy of a newspaper published the week of George Washington's funeral and another published the week after Abraham Lincoln was buried.

In submitting pictures, material, letters, etc. be sure to give your name and address and all details. Identify the pictures as fully as possible. Your contribution to this edition may be brought to the Rowan County News office or mailed.

We will also appreciate any suggestions you have, or any information where we can gather a particularly good news story, etc. for this edition.

Please do not backward about telling us about your own family and history, particularly if your family tree dates back to Rowan County's pioneer days.

Yours very truly,
ROWAN COUNTY NEWS

Thousands of additional copies of this great Centennial Edition will be printed and will be available to the public. We know you will want several copies for your relatives and friends.

Name Miss Reynolds V. Club Dance Queen

By Joyce Gum

Jeannette Gay Reynolds was crowned 1956 Queen of the Veterans Club Dance when the first spring formal dance of the club was held on Saturday night at the Veterans Club, Morehead State College. The gymnasium, artistically decorated, was the scene of this gala event. The orchestra of Bill Ed Clark with Jim Andy Caudill furnished the music for the dance. Jim Andy, a recent Morehead graduate, led his own dance band while in college here.

At exactly 10 o'clock, Miss Reynolds and her court were escorted to the coronation circle where Jeannette was crowned by President Adron Doran of the 1936 Queen of the Veterans Club Dance.

The queen and her attendants were chosen by the members of the Veterans Club this year. For their second annual formal dance, the queen was the delightful Miss Jeannette Gay, a freshman from Owensville. She has already received such honors as being a member of the cheerleading squad and treasurer of the club.

Members of the Queen's court were: Wilma Perry, a senior from Pomper, Phyllis Perry, a sophomore from Pomper, Joyce Gum, a freshman from Greensup, Lillian Burris, a junior from Vanceburg, Barbara Allen, a senior from Rainsford, and Joyce Gum, a junior from Folsom. In their colorful and graceful dances, these seven girls made a very picturesque scene and helped to make this dance event more successful than the Vets Club's spring formal last year.

and there should be new ones to replace them. We recommend that they be placed in a box of metallic nature be brought in and left in the jail. We found an iron bar in the jail that could be used by a prisoner to escape if left there. In our inspection of the court house we find it in poor repair except the ladies' rest room where we recommend that a sign be placed saying "Women only." The leaks should be repaired in the court house and we notice that the gutters around the court house should be repaired also.

We further recommend that the county road department look into the repair and resurfacing of certain roads at the vicinity of Coppers Hollow which roads have been investigated by the Fiscal Court or members thereof. We recommend that this be investigated by the next grand jury.

Rambin Through Willits New Poke Warden Will Be Appointed To Guard Against Infringement On Wild Greens

By Cletus Hallas.

Our first complaint of the season came in the form of a letter from the Willits poke warden last week that Ted Bradley was back with a big sack and that he had a big gun and was digging young poke from the ground. Bradley has been unlawful to dig young poke shoots from the ground in the spring. This destroyed too many poke-plants what would furnish more poke for the poke eater on big lawns. Let grow them a good sized plant.

We thoroughly investigated this complaint. These are the dates of last year's appointed Poke Wardens will be re-appointed, as you know, to protect the poke-salt from being gathered for possible destruction of this spring food. The year new Poke Warden will not be appointed.

The organizations of commodity clubs in the area, including the Willits, will be completely protected the poke. Who will need to gather poke-salt for a setting out he can catch a ride to the county seat and get a coffee sack or two full of chrome battery for setting out and butter beans? Just the few unlucky ones what can't become members of the commodity club will need to gather poke salt. These fellows will be so few that we are not in danger of destruction.

Commodities have been rather slow in coming out of the ground and we have already seen a few bonneted ladies scanning the creek bank for a good sized spring plants. These ladies have had a big water bucket on one hand and a tin of poke salt on the other hand. They know the plants good for salt and they dig them early. They put the plants for a good mess of spring lard cooked with a great tin of poke salt.

Not a single person has been seen, or reported being seen, digging or gathering for tea and a spring tonic for the blood. They're all still waiting for their commodities that good dried milk, Mountain folks have always been healthy and long living folk because they have always drank sassafras tea in the spring to purify their blood and it prevents a lot of diseases in the months to come. Fresh green salt from the fields in early spring has always added color to their cheeks and filled their bodies full of vitamins and minerals and kept them from yearning for a doctor to come in and set up practice in their country.

Cheese and butterbeans will make the plants spring salt. When it come to the health or property. Neither will dried milk take the place of red sassafras in detoxifying the blood stream. But if we can become a member of the commodity club, we can afford to sacrifice our health and give it a trial.

Ben Crose took a great big wooden box from the freight station down at the county seat. We ain't found out yet what was in this box, but the most of us have had decided that Ben ordered a big box full of baby bears and has turned them out down in the canyon below his house. The reason we believe that he ordered them was because he is ordered to shop the classified ads.

KELLY SUGGESTS SILENT TREATMENT

Bill Would Require Consent Of Husbands In Housecleaning

There was no woman to speak in behalf of her sex, but the power of the little word back home was felt in the Senate at Frankfort Monday.

Sen. C. W. Maloney (D-Madisonville) introduced a bill to ban spring housecleaning without permission of husbands.

The bill is in its entirety: "An act relating to crimes and punishments, with particular reference to spring cleaning in Kentucky homes."

"Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky: "Section 1: No housewife or lady of the house shall engage in the annual rite of "spring cleaning" or "springing" without the permission and agreement of her husband or the owner of the house.

"Section 2: Any woman violating the provisions of Section 1 of this act shall be punished by being required to wear for the remainder of the spring season, including Easter Sunday, the dress worn by her while doing "spring cleaning" or moving of furnishings of the home."

Maloney asked for a recess so he could go to the Senate.

The Rules Committee could meet hurriedly and give the bill first reading. It would be taken before Sunday.

Sen. Merlin B. Fields (D-Hazard) broke in to declare, "The results of this bill will get action by Sunday—fast."

"There appeared to be at least one senior in a neutral position," John W. Willis (D-Greenville), a bachelor, who said he had "no home, no furnishings, no wife."

"The legislators' only woman member in Mr. Randolph Willis, Glasgow, Democrat, and she lives in the House of Representatives."

Sen. Ed J. Kelly (D-Flemingburg) moved that the Senate give the "silent treatment" to Maloney's bill, which Lt. Gov. Harry Lee Waterfield, presiding officer, observed had been offered in a spirit of "horseplay."

In the usual "silent treatment," a bill is not taken up, but a bill-drafters do want to get a bill through for passage. Maloney's associate did not even get that far—it wasn't called up for a vote.

Reiger Will Represent State At Conferences

Governor A. B. Chandler commissioned Charles K. Reiger, executive of the Central Electric Power Authority, to serve as Kentucky's official representative at a top-level conference of Southern business and economic leaders being held at Charlottesville, Va., the first week in May.

Reiger, who is vice president and general manager of GE's Appliance and Television Receiver Division, reinforced his morning with Governor Chandler and George W. Hinkle Jr., executive director of the Kentucky Agricultural and Industrial Development Board, about his participation in the conference.

Reiger returned to Hables after a tour through the board's office, that he was "much impressed" with the amount of economic and technical data the board has developed to assist business desiring to locate plants in Kentucky.

Christ Lives

Lesson for April 1, 1956

"CHRIST is risen!" The words will be said and sung many thousand times this Easter. What do they mean? Let us leave out of sight all those to whom the words mean nothing but a vestige of tradition at the worst, a picture of something altogether different at best. What do these words mean to those who do believe them?

It is possible to believe this sentence literally and to believe in a family, and yet be as dead to their young meeting as if they were a weather report of the area as they posted a miracle, but yesterday's miracles may not be especially interesting. Do you feel kind of rapture on reading about the frogs in Pharaoh's palace, the "music-drops" that help your malarya to read about the cures St. Paul did at Ephesus?

Yesterday's miracles may seem so discouraging just because they are yesterday's. The Resurrection of Christ is not in a class with any other miracle. For the early Christians it was "the event of man's history."

The Resurrection is a kind of consummation of the work of Christ. It is not a miracle, but it has many meanings, but consider three of them: in the lives of the plain people who have experienced the truth of it. Remember: the Resurrection was not a miracle that happened to them; it was a miracle that they lived.

It is no accident that the church has and has had a resurrection more than "Christ rose." The Resurrection is a kind of consummation of the work of Christ. It is not a miracle, but it has many meanings, but consider three of them: in the lives of the plain people who have experienced the truth of it. Remember: the Resurrection was not a miracle that happened to them; it was a miracle that they lived.

Famous bulletin from Mobilgas Economy Run FORD WINS IN ECONOMY TOO! Ford's new V-8 wins class A

V-8 WINS CLASS A In this year's Economy Run a new Ford V-8, with Fordomatic, was the official victor over every car in its field, with a winning average of 27.65 miles per gallon. This means that the sturdier, heavier Ford carried more weight, with greater gas economy per pound than any car in its field. This latest Ford victory was scored over a tough and rigorous 1,108.5-mile route running from Los Angeles to Colorado Springs. Through the heat of Death Valley and over chugging mountain trails... through gas-consuming city traffic and over the straightaways of the open road, the new Ford proved new its traditional reputation for economical performance. The winning Ford was a regular-production model taken right from the assembly line. It was no different than thousands of '56 Fords you see on the road and in dealer's showrooms. This proves that Ford, the Performance, Style and Safety Leader, leads in Economy, too! That adds up to four big reasons why the '56 Ford is worth more when you buy it, than you drive it, and when you sell it, too. Top-Award Winner for All-Around Stock Car Performance... Winner of MANUFACTURER'S TROPHY Daytona Beach, Florida. Test Drive the Economy Winner... '56 Ford ROWAN MOTOR SALES PHONE 18 SALES AND SERVICE MOREHEAD, KY.

Presidents Used To Take Office On March 4th

By Lee Stewart
March is necessarily a historic month in the United States record for the reason that it has been on the fourth day of the month every four years that we inaugurated a President and the Ninth Amendment was adopted in 1791 designating Jan. 20.

Although March was named after Mars, the mythological God of war, it has not been particularly warlike in American history. Most of our wars have commenced in gentle April.

There has been some noted military events in March. However, the month of March is also the month of several important events in American military history in the Mexican War.

One of the strategic points in Mexico, then as now, was the City of Vera Cruz, called the Gibraltar of the southern sea public.

General Scott set out to capture it with a small army of 12,000 men. On March 16th, he took the important point of San Juan de Ulua and on the 22nd of the month commenced the bombardment of Vera Cruz. For 47 days later Scott with his little army of hardy Americans took the city.

Under his command were two officers destined to make even a greater mark than their superior officer in American history. These were Lieutenant Ulysses Grant and Captain Robert E. Lee, both of whom fought bravely in the Mexican campaign.

After capturing the coast city, General Scott and his little army plunged into the interior of the Mexican Empire. Military strategists thought the move foolhardy but after a series of brilliant victories the American army hoisted its flag over Mexico City, Sept. 14, 1847, and the war was over.

We have had other difficulties with Mexico in the month of March. General Pershing invaded Mexico on the hunt for Villa on March 15, 1916 after Mexicans had raided Columbus, N. M., on March 9th of the same year.

Going back still further in our relations with Mexico, we learn that one of the great historical events in American history took place in March, 1836. This was the American defense of the Alamo in Texas, an event which has been likened to the stand of the Greek heroes at Thermopylae.
