A Great Deal of Shooting Reported, but No Fatality.

The Governor, having the matter investigated, with a view of sending troops if necessary.

TOLENTON, KY., April 5. -- Great excitement prevails here. Yesterday afternoon, a party of about fifty men fired into the Gault House, where the Martin faction is said to be residing. At this hour there is no evidence published that any persons were killed. The riot has spread to all parts of the county, and it is feared that the situation may become desperate. A truce has been called, but the issue is uncertain.

ANOTHER REPORT.

MT. STEWART, KY., April 8. -- Rowan's riot still rages. Mrs. W. J. and the others last night were attacked at their houses, and many parties are said to have been killed. The riot is in full swing, and the situation is critical. The Governor has ordered troops to be mustered in and sent to the county.

TROOPS CALLED TO ARMS.

State Militia Held in Readiness to March on Rowan County.

FRANKFORT, April 2. -- Telegrams were received here this evening from Lexington, where the town was in a state of' excitement, due to the killing of a prominent citizen. The Governor has ordered troops to be called out immediately. The situation is critical, and the Governor is expected to call on the militia to aid in restoring order.

LEXINGTON, KY., April 3. -- The Governor has called out troops to aid in restoring order in Rowan County. The situation is critical, and the troops are expected to arrive at any moment. The Governor is expected to call on the militia to aid in restoring order.

The Secretary and Adjutants left this morning, and are expected to arrive in the city at 10 a.m. today. The Governor is expected to call on the militia to aid in restoring order.