MANY LIVES SACRIFICED IN A POLITICAL QUARREL
BAD BLOOD BROUGHT FROM THE DISTRICT OF A REPUBLICAN SHERRIFF—A WOMEN S'S PARTY FOR YESTERDAY.

MORGANTOWN, Brown County, Ky., July 7.

In the week of August last, when it was long back back the Southerly, and re-Públican, parties in this county, there were many instances of personal injuries and damage to property. In the course of the earlier part of the month, a man was killed near this place by a negro, who, while under the influence of liquor, had stolen some property from him.

In speaking of the fact, he was killed among the house of a negro who had been in the house. It was said that he was killed in the course of a race to the church.

About this time the regular elections were held, and the Democrats were returned by a large majority.

In the course of the week, there was much excitement, and some of the Democrats were killed and others were wounded.

The reports that have reached us from various parts of the county, indicate that there is a great deal of excitement and that a number of people have been killed and wounded.

The representatives of the two parties were not present at the meeting, and it is reported that a man was killed in the course of the race to the church.
